March 18, 1968

On February 16, 1968, [REDACTED] John B. Stetson University, DeLand, Florida, advised that there had been a lengthy meeting of the Administrative Executive Board of the university held on the evening of February 15, 1968. This meeting had concerned itself with the scheduled appearance of Dick Gregory at the university on March 18, 1968. It was tentatively decided at the meeting to permit Gregory's appearance, which had been the result of an invitation of a student group, subject to the development of further information bearing upon the potential consequences of such a visit. [REDACTED] advised that the Board of Trustees of the university were scheduled to have a regularly scheduled meeting on February 16, 1968, at which meeting Gregory's scheduled appearance might be further considered.

The Daytona Beach News Journal, Daytona Beach, Florida, contained a news item in its February 18, 1968, issue reflecting that at the request of the Stetson University Trustees, the Stetson Union Board has cancelled the March 18 appearance of Dick Gregory on the campus. It was reported that this announcement was made by the Stetson news bureau after a meeting of trustees of the university. The item related that the news bureau said that Jeff Ledewitz, President of the student group which booked Gregory, had contacted the comedian's agent to make the cancellation. Ledewitz was reported to have told Gregory's agent that the action was taken at the request of the trustees and that student officers involved in the invitation were acting in response to that request.

The "Record", a Hackensack, New Jersey, daily newspaper, which covers Teaneck, New Jersey, in their February 16, 1968, issue carried a photograph of the subject as he appeared at the university and an article written by Roger Beirne, staff writer. The article titled "Racists' Democracy Stinks, Gregory Fumes" attributed the following remarks to the subject:

"If Negro ghettos stink and are contemptible, it is not the Negroes who stink and are contemptible. It is democracy, as practiced by racists, that you are smelling. The smell at Dachau was not of the Jews, but of Nazism.

"The law of the land should be changed to all whites are born equal. South Africa can stand on its racist attitude with honesty since that country has no law saying everyone is born equal.

"The President came to Washington as a poor, young Baptist high school teacher of 26. Today he is a multimillionaire and TV station owner."

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY spoke to more than 2,000 persons in East Stroudsburg State College's Koehler field house February 15, 1968.

The source further advised GREGORY, attired in a tight blue denim suit and yellow shirt, labled the American system as "sick" and "insane". The source stated GREGORY called America's number one problem a "moral problem" and the United States the number one racist country in the world. The source said GREGORY told the college students they should not feel guilty about racism because they inherited it.

The source said GREGORY referred to H. RAP BROWN and STOKELY CARMICHAEL as "two young cats who have scared the USA to death and neither one owns a missile. BROWN had nerve enough to be as bitter as PATRICK HENRY." The source said GREGORY quoted H. RAP BROWN as saying "Get a gun and watch the police," was not original; "PAUL REVERE said, "Get a gun, white folks, the British are coming."

The source stated GREGORY several times blasted Russia but not once did he mention Communist China.

The source advised GREGORY, in comparing today's and yesterday's Negroes said, "Twenty years ago Blacks had empty stomachs; today, they have full stomachs but hungry minds."

The source stated GREGORY talked like a man who hates his country but he does not look it, he does not act it, and it just is not possible to imagine that the hate is sincere. Once past his delivery of comedy, GREGORY stops being a first-class salesman. To rate attention beyond a laugh, he apparently must do something flashy. This he has done by first cancelling some night club appearances to help lead a march in Alabama and more recently to announce a hunger strike of forty days.

Mabley's report:

Dick Gregory came, spoke and conquered

By Jack Mabley

DICK GREGORY IS talking to the college students of America. "That's where the action is, and nobody knows it," said Gregory.

When you ask the whereabouts of this radical Chicagoan, you learn he is on a "college tour," which sounds innocuous enough.

Gregory is the most brilliant speaker I've heard in 30 years of listening to speakers. I'm not talking about the content of his talks, but about the mechanics of his delivery, his voice, his projection, his skill with words, his persuasiveness.

He is delivering his message of revolt "against this sick and insane system" to no less than a thousand college students a day, from one coast to the other. He is paid $1,000 for most appearances. In the next 80 days he will speak before 90 campus audiences ranging up to 5,000 students, faculty members, and others.

And he is reaching them. Most of them walk into the hall hating the draft, hating the war, contemptuous of the President's policies. And these audiences are not hippies or beatniks. They are young, middle class Americans.

AN INFORMED PERSON should know what Dick Gregory is telling our college students. I stood in the back of the Kendall college auditorium in Evanston for 3½ hours Thursday night. I had to stand because I arrived at 2 minutes after 8 and every seat was filled and kids were lining the walls and backed out into the halls. I thought only Castro could hold an audience 3½ hours and Castro needs a gun to do it.

"Two college students burned their draft cards, and it took Congress two weeks to pass a law making it illegal to burn a draft card," Gregory shouted. "We waited one hundred years for a law to make lynching illegal. The white system puts more value on 2 pieces of cardboard than on my mother's life—AND WE ARE GOING TO TAKE THIS COUNTRY APART, HOUSE BY HOUSE, BRICK BY BRICK!"

The students cheered.

"Suppose my daddy had been killed in 1942 fighting the Nazis. That would have meant I would have grown up without a father. But now, in 1968, the same Nazi that killed my daddy could come to America and live in a place where I can't live! You wonder why we're mad?"

Gregory was dressed in work clothes, and wore a mustache and scraggly beard. "I have made a vow," he said, "that I am not going to have my hair cut, or shave, or wear anything but work clothes, until the war in Viet Nam is stopped."

"SO I TRAVEL around the country and I like to stay in a decent hotel and eat in a decent restaurant but my friends say, 'Greg, they won't let you in places dressed like that.' And I say, 'Brother, if I can't get in dressed like this, then neither can my brothers fighting in Viet Nam, with their shirts covered with mud and sweat, and dried blood caked on their arms.'"

The Kendall students gave him an ovation.

They applauded when he violently attacked communism, and Russia and China supplying bullets, guns and planes which are killing our soldiers. They cheered when he said the most important people in America are our policemen and firemen, and the students should dedicate themselves to seeing these men get the security and dignity of $10,000 salaries.

"I am a non-violent, vegetarian pacifist," said Gregory. "I am opposed to violence. But that's my hangup. I can't tell Rap and Stokely they should be against violence. I'm a vegetarian. I think it's wrong to kill animals. But I won't knock a steak from your hands."

"I fasted for 40 days. Baby, did I get the hate mail then. One I'd like to read you. Did this man hate! It starts: 'Dear Sir: This is to inform you that for dinner today I had baked chicken and gravy ...'

"MAYBE YOU REMEMBER I smoked a lot — 6, 7 packs a day. About 6 weeks ago I got to thinking, a lot of my money for cigarets is going to the government, and they're using that money to buy napalm. And I decided I was going to stop smoking, and I did."

"Would you like to hurt yourselves a little? Would you be willing to stop smoking until they end the war? Make 'em hurt just a little more? 'Cause one you stop, maybe you won't start again, and we can get them cats in the cigaret business to start carrying signs to end the war before they go broke."

The Kendall students gave Gregory a standing ovation when he stopped. He got home at 1 a. m., caught a plane for Atlanta at 7 Friday morning, flew later to Mississippi, and wound up Friday night in New York City. He made a speech at each stop.

On 2/1/68, [redacted] Merchor Auditorium, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, made available to SA [redacted] three reels of tape (which are enclosed) he said contain the entire speech made by DICK GREGORY at the auditorium on 1/23/68. The last reel #3 of the tape consists of a question and answer period after GREGORY's speech. A review of the tape at the Cincinnati Division reveals comments made by GREGORY fellow very closely to the remarks he made previously at a speech at Wittenberg University at Springfield, Ohio on 1/24/68. The text of this speech was set out in referenced LHM.

In these tapes GREGORY makes numerous references in a derogatory manner to "LBJ" as well as Senator ROBERT KENNEDY, Governor RONALD REAGAN, Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER of New York.

GREGORY also makes several favorable references to STOKELY CARMICHAEL and H. RAPP BROWN.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated January 3, 1968.

On February 28, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he recently learned that in January, 1968, Dick Gregory stated that he had received $50,000 from Bertrand Russell, the English pacifist-philosopher, who conducted mock war trials in Copenhagen condemning United States policy in Vietnam. Gregory indicated that the purpose of the money was to finance a Negro movement directed against the Democratic National Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago during August, 1968. Gregory further indicated they planned to use this money to pay for the transportation of as many Negroes as will come to Chicago to participate in this movement. Gregory also planned to purchase large quantities of food staples to help feed this group. Ralph Schoenman, Secretary to Bertrand Russell, was in Chicago during January, 1968, to help Gregory make arrangements for the temporary housing of this group. (U)

This source advised that in February, 1968, Gregory indicated that he had purchased 36,000 pounds of beans, prunes and coffee and had stored these items in a warehouse located on Chicago's South Side. Concerning demonstrations during the Democratic Convention, Gregory disclosed plans to have simultaneous demonstrations at various locations miles away from the Convention site, for the purpose of attempting to pull police units from the Convention area. In the immediate area of the International Amphitheatre, the actual Convention site, approximately 150 militants armed with guns, knives and other equipment, placed in strategic positions will create a violent demonstration. Referring to Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daly, Gregory stated, "I got that white man worried; he is really afraid of me." ~~(U)~~

Dick Gregory is a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has threatened to disrupt activities of the Democratic National Convention.

On February 28, 1968, a second confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he learned that [redacted] who is active in Chicago's Puerto Rican community, stated recently that plans are being made to disrupt the forthcoming Democratic National Convention by means of demonstrations to be held three days before the actual beginning of the Convention. [redacted] feels that police security will not be as intensive at this time as it will be when the Convention actually convenes. In this way, greater impact will be made on Convention delegates who will be arriving in Chicago during this period. [redacted] expects that delegates will have time to react to such demonstrations and translate their reaction to their activities during the Convention. ~~(U)~~

Re Detroit memorandum dated March 4, 1968.

On March 8, 1968, Detective [redacted] Holland, Michigan, Police Department, advised that Negro comedian Dick Gregory spoke at Dimnent Memorial Chapel on the campus of Hope College, Holland, Michigan, from 8:15 PM to approximately 10:00 PM on March 7, 1968, as part of a three-day program sponsored by the college captioned "The Crisis in Our Cities". Detective [redacted] advised that the chapel where this talk was held was filled to capacity and that closed circuit television was employed to cover Gregory's talk for additional audience in two adjacent buildings. Detective [redacted] estimated that approximately 2,000 persons heard or saw Gregory on the campus and that in excess of 95 per cent of the persons in attendance were of the Caucasian race. He said there was no violence, demonstrations, or other incidents prior to, during, or after Gregory's talk.

b7C

Detective [redacted] advised that the talk given by Mr. Gregory was critical of the United States Government's policy and position in the Vietnam conflict and critical of the current United States administration's policies in general. He decried the ghetto conditions existing in the American cities, indicating the Negro is forced to live in slum conditions and that money spent on the Vietnam war could be better used to solve domestic problems existing in United States cities.

b7C

Detective [redacted] said Mr. Gregory remarked in effect that the United States Government was more afraid of H. Rap Brown and Stokeley Carmichael, officers or former officers of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, than it was of the Russians.

b6

Detective [] stated that the entire tone of Gregory's talk was critical of the conditions under which the Negro lives in the United States and critical of all current policies of the United States Government, although he made no specific recommendations for change.

Detective [] advised that there was no question and answer period after the talk and that Gregory was believed to have left Holland, Michigan, immediately after his talk, possibly for travel to Chicago, Illinois, via Grand Rapids, Michigan.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Detective [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Des Moines, Iowa, Police Department, on March 15, 1968, advised that the National Affairs Committee of the Drake University Student-Faculty Council sponsored a two-week program on "Riots: Analysis and Alternatives". This program, which began on March 5, 1968, featured a number of prominent speakers, including Richard Claxton Gregory, who spoke on "black power" at Drake University on the afternoon of March 14, 1968.

Detective [redacted] advised that he attended the speeches and that during the speeches Gregory talked about forthcoming demonstrations in Chicago. Gregory stated that he would have demonstrators marching twelve hours a day, then twenty-four hours a day, and that these marches would eventually paralyze the city. When police could not cope with the situation, the "soldiers" would then be called out. Gregory said that calling the "soldiers" out would look bad in the eyes of the world and that this will cost the country about ten million dollars to hold the Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Gregory also remarked during his speech that some banks would be robbed and stores looted while the demonstrations were taking place.

Detective [redacted] said that there were no racial incidents in Des Moines as a result of Gregory's appearance at Drake University.

According to the March 15, 1968, edition of the Des Moines Register, in an article captioned "Gregory: I'd Bring Boys Home, Send L.B.J. with Barbecue Gun", Gregory when asked at the news conference about his plans to disrupt Chicago, Illinois, during the Democratic National Convention in August, said he hopes to have fifty to sixty groups "going out in different directions and paralyzing the police. They will make them bring the army in and that will cost the country ten million." Gregory said he plans the protest "because Chicago is one of the last cities in the world that

Comic With a Cause Dick Gregory Assumes Solitary, Costly Role As a Rights Activist

He Alarms Some Old Fans, Passes Up Club Bookings;
Peace Is Newest Passion

A Vow to 'Bug You to Death'

By DAVID GARINO

Staff Reporter of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

CHICAGO—When the time comes, write this epitaph for Richard Claxton Gregory: He Put His Money Where His Mouth Was.

Dick Gregory won't be needing a tombstone just yet, of course. He's very much alive and living in Chicago—when he isn't demonstrating for open housing in Milwaukee or telling it like it is, baby, to collegians in Latrobe, Pa. Still, the description fits.

Many people still think of the 35-year-old Negro as a full-time comedian and part-time civil rights activist. Actually, it's now the other way around, and the switch has cost the comic dearly.

Five years ago he was raking in $5000 a week and driving a new Lincoln Continental. Even Southerners roared when he told the one about the waitress in the Dixie restaurant (Waitress: "We don't serve colored people here." Gregory: "That's OK, I don't eat colored people. Bring me a whole fried chicken.").

Today, Dick Gregory is some $35,000 in debt and doesn't own a car. What's more, he isn't nearly as funny to a lot of people; some call him demagogue now. But none of this

"Dick has given more of himself than anyone I know."

But there is puzzlement among some who wonder what Mr. Gregory hopes to achieve in his lone wolf role. Though he contributes a great deal of time and money to various civil rights causes he represents no organization and thus has no solid base. It can't be said that his efforts have resulted in passage of a single law or ordinance that might help his people. He has some influence, no power.

Ted Determan, his former publicist, says, Dick Gregory is "the best satirical comedian this country ever had." Along with others, he thinks Mr. Gregory could make a greater contribution to civil rights by "keeping us laughing at ourselves."

But Dick Gregory himself says pressing social problems can't be laughed out of existence. He views himself as a social commentator who uses humor to interpret the needs and wants of Negroes to the white community, rather than as a comedian who happens to deal in topical social material.

He says he is trying to become a "militant but humble" civil rights spokesman, filling a vacuum between the Rev. Martin Luther King ("humble but not militant") and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee ("militant but not humble"). He is pressuring the white community into action now; clad in battered hat, denim jeans and jacket and suede shoes, he is often to be seen marching in Milwaukee, where civil rights forces led by a white Catholic priest, Father James Groppi, have been demonstrating daily for passage of an open housing ordinance.

But he is equally interested in the long-haul job—reeducating people and reshaping their attitudes on the race issue. His emphasis is on youth; he has undertaken a rigorous lecture tour that will take him to scores of colleges within the next few months. He is paid for these appearances ($1,000 is a common fee), but his total income from this source, while high by usual standards, doesn't approach what he could be making as a comedian.

He treats his audiences to 15 minutes of humor for a starter. "I have this Arab friend," he says, "who kept telling me how the Arabs would wipe out the Jews. After the war I called him and said: 'What happened, baby? We held out in Watts longer than you did over there.'" After that, he takes a more serious tack, though he uses barbed witticisms to make his points. Some of his public statements, at colleges and elsewhere, shock. Gasps are heard

He will not criticize the militant advocates of black power. "Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael taught me nonviolence," he says, "but then they saw the same rat that bit a baby five years ago bite another one today."

In his forthcoming book, he declares: "When America heard Martin Luther King speaking nonviolence she was temporarily relieved because 'turn the other cheek' sounded better than 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But the failure to respond to 'turn the other cheek' has produced the 'eye for an eye' revolution." Elsewhere, he has said: "There is nothing in the rules which says the Negro must be nonviolent. Nonviolence is a favor, not an obligation."

One "myth" he seeks to dispel is the claim that violence has done nothing but harm to Negroes. "It sickens me to admit it," says Mr. Gregory, "but violence has helped." He notes that in some cities racial disturbances have been followed immediately by improvements in recreational and other facilities serving the ghetto.

As for Mr. Gregory, he prefers the boycott to the riot as a tactical weapon. He has encouraged use of it in Milwaukee, among other places. He views the boycott as a "substitute brick" for the frustrated ghetto dweller, observing: "People will get mad at boycotts, but afterwards buildings will still be standing, firemen won't be getting shot and Negroes won't be dead."

Mr. Gregory also recommends that the entire war on poverty be removed from political control and turned over to colleges and universities for administration. In this way, he reasons, the best brains in the country would play a decisive part in shaping antipoverty efforts. "To close the missile gap we went out and bought the best minds we could. The Congressmen realized they didn't have the education and the understanding," he says. The same thing should be done to close the social and economic gap between Negroes and whites, he believes.

Though he differs from the more radical black militants in several ways, he is at one with them in his contempt for gradualism—the step-by-step approach to Negro-white equality. A driving sense of impatience runs through all his commentary on civil rights; time and again, he lambasts the establishment for what he believes is a distorted set of priorities.

"They tell us they can't get rid of rats," he says in apparent reference to Congressional shillyshallying over a rat-control measure. The same people talking who got rid seems to bother him much; after all, he chose the rôle he plays now, that of the most prominent lone wolf in the civil rights movement.

The transition began in 1962. Late that year when he was in Jackson, Miss., he says he was stunned by the case of a 78-year-old Negro man who was jailed during a voter registration drive. The man's wife died while he was imprisoned—on the first night the old man ever had spent away from home. About then, says Mr. Gregory, he began to wonder if he "really had it made" when so many of his people were suffering.

His involvement in civil rights grew. Using jets the way most people use taxis, he crisscrossed the country, going where the action was. He marched in demonstrations north and south. He was hurt trying to cool the Watts riot. He saw many a fall from the inside.

Mounting Debts

He had less and less time for nightclub dates, TV and other lucrative engagements. His advisers urged him to pay more attention to business, less to rushing around the country, but he brushed off their counsel. His debts mounted as his income shrank.

Mr. Gregory's manager, Ralph Mann, estimates that the comic is giving up $100,000 to $200,000 a year in bookings because of his civil rights activities. Much of this is lost because Mr. Gregory simply isn't available to work a good deal of the time. In other cases, says Mr. Mann, his client's outspokenness in behalf of civil rights has caused "major TV variety shows" to reject him. Mr. Mann won't say which shows.

Creditors began to get tough. American Airlines revoked his credit card privileges because of an unpaid bill of $8,000. It would be difficult for most people to roll up a tab so huge, but not Dick Gregory; two years ago he flew round trip daily for a month from a nightclub job at the hungry i in San Francisco to Chicago, where he participated in demonstrations against Benjamin Willis, then superintendent of schools. Also, he had his telephone service cut off. It was restored upon payment of $3,000, says the phone company.

What's Money?

Mr. Gregory has a supreme contempt for matters monetary and admits he's no canny manager of his own financial affairs. "When America gets out of debt, so will I," he says breezily. Actually, he's better off now than he was awhile ago, when he owed a grand total of roughly $200,000.

Dick Gregory's financial sacrifices earn him the deep respect of a number of people. "If I had his talent, which I don't, I'm not sure I'd have the courage to do what he did," says Bernard Kleinhman, the comedian's lawyer. Father James Jones, a white Episcopalian priest in Roanoke, Va., and a friend, says:

riots were legal, sanctioned by the Declaration of Independence, which, says Mr. Gregory, obligates people to overthrow the government if their inalienable rights are violated. He also raises hackles when he calls America the "number one racist country in the world."

Not long ago he created a flurry of ill-feeling, plus puzzled queries and complaints from Jewish friends, when he commented on anti-Semitism among Negroes. He said: "Every hip Jew in America over 30 knows another Jew who doesn't like niggers. So when you find some niggers who don't like Jews—well, that's just even, baby."

All this has given Mr. Gregory a reputation in some quarters as a bit of an anti-Semite, a rabble-rouser and a black power militant. But many who have watched his career closely insist he is none of these. George O'Hare, a friend who is a merchandising manager with Sears, Roebuck & Co., says: "Dick sometimes uses the volatile statement as shock treatment in order to get people to think."

Actually, Dick Gregory is a thoroughgoing integrationist, among other things. Everywhere he tells his audiences, be they collegians or business executives, "This (the racial problem) is not a question of black against white but right against wrong." He tells a reporter: "When I stop being your Negro friend and become just your friend, then we'll have a thing going." He is not interested in Negroes' exercising their rights in a black society but in an integrated society.

He remains an advocate of nonviolence. To predominantly white audiences, he declares: "I will not hit you. I will not kill you. But I will bug you to death." As for intimations that civil rights forces somehow are linked to communism, he says: "I'm not saying I won't bring this country to its knees. But if I did, I wouldn't fly across the ocean and give it to another white boy."

His own conception of black power differs markedly from the doctrine of violence and separatism propounded by others, a doctrine deeply disturbing to most whites. To Dick Gregory, black power means simple equality. Commenting on black power in his book, The Shadow That Scares Me (it will be released next month), he says: "All Americans have a right to a decent wage, to own their own businesses, to own their own property, and to choose and elect their own public officials who will serve as their power of attorney at the seat of government."

While he personally abhors rioting and separatism, he finds their existence today wholly understandable—and believes that whites should stop viewing violence as simple lawlessness and wake up to the "injustice" that he feels has bred the racial explosion in our cities.

of the buffalo." He maintains that if the Soviet Union publicly pledged it would rid itself of rats in five years the U.S. would respond by eradicating them in nine months.

Dick Gregory says a "monster" is driving him. Certainly something is; a reporter accompanying him is exhausted by a 15-mile march in Milwaukee, followed by a night flight east, where Mr. Gregory gives talks at three colleges in one day. But the comedian is fresh after only two hours sleep; this pace is routine for him.

A compulsive talker, he often will order a meal in a restaurant and leave it untouched while he delivers a civil rights monolog to those accompanying him. He is a vegetarian ordinarily, and currently he says he is abstaining from all food. From Thanksgiving to Christmas, he has pledged to take nothing but water, as a mark of protest against American involvement in Vietnam. He has promised $1,000 to anyone who can prove he has eaten anything in that time. If the challenger can't prove it, he must donate $100 to SNCC.

The fast is the most recent symbol of Mr. Gregory's increasing involvement in the peace movement. An advocate of immediate U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, he says he intends to run for President as a peace candidate in the 1968 election.

Quixotic though this effort may sound, Mr. Gregory says he wants to serve as a focus in the next election for those who want to express their opposition to the war in concrete fashion. He is harshly critical of Lyndon Johnson, calling him "the most vicious tyrant since Julius Caesar." Of the Johnson-Kosygin conference at Glassboro, N.J., he says: "The two most powerful men in the world were meeting. Kosygin was sitting there and he don't understand English, and neither does LBJ."

His friends worry that Dick Gregory is spreading himself dangerously thin, damaging his health and perhaps diluting his effectiveness. Certainly he has little time to spend at home, a comfortably furnished six-room apartment in south Chicago that is a far cry from the slums of St. Louis, where he was raised.

He is married and has six children, ranging in age from a six-month-old boy, simply called Baby Gregory, to an eight-year-old girl, Michelle. Though he can't spend much time at home with them, he does take his wife, Lillian, and the two oldest children on some of his travels: Lillian was once jailed in Atlanta while pregnant with the Gregory twins, Pamela Inte and Paula Gratton.

If Dick Gregory sometimes yearns for a more settled existence, feels despair or hopelessness or tires of his lonely odyssey, he does not show it. Says his friend, Father Jones: "Dick doesn't believe he can be beaten."

until the war is over and urged those who sympathized and "wish to express their opposition to the system" to follow his example.

Specifically Mr. Gregory asked "that people do not buy Easter eggs this holiday season as large numbers of people had expressed their opposition to the war by not purchasing Christmas trees, decorations, toys, and gifts to impress the economy with their determination to make peace on earth a reality."

Mr. Gregory repeated his admonition to "all those who wish to express their desire for peace to refrain from purchasing 1968 American automobiles and to give up smoking cigarettes, not only for your own health but to save the lives of innocent victims in Vietnam who are burned with napalm bought with the tax on smoke."

Mr. Gregory will continue with his current lecture schedule which will take him to over 40 colleges and universities in as many days.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

On February 8, 1968, BS T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that Dick Gregory, who was introduced as a former comedian turned Negro protest leader, addressed an assembly of approximately 3000 students and faculty members at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts, on February 7, 1968. The appearance was arranged under the Distinguished Visitors Program which is described as a long standing student-faculty organization which provides for regular lecturers.

The source advised that Gregory's remarks were politely received and that no demonstrations were held or incidents occurred in connection with Gregory's appearance. According to BS T-1, Gregory also spoke at Amherst College and Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts, on February 8, 1968, which was corroborated by BS T-2 and BS T-3 on February 9, 1968.

The "Daily Collegian", a daily student newspaper published at the University of Massachusetts, contained an article relative to the appearance of Gregory at the University in its issue of February 8, 1968. According to this article Gregory stated: "We live in a country so sick and insane that even riots help out." According to the article Gregory praised the black power movement headed by Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, and said that America is so sick that black people as well as white people are racists. He said that if he were elected President he would "Bring all the boys back home from Vietnam and send LBJ there all by himself", and that Vietnam "Ain't worth saving."

In his speech Gregory urged Martin Luther King to stop preaching non-violence to Negroes and start preaching it to whites. He spoke of how he and Carmichael got fed up with the non-violent philosophy, and recalled the day when non-violent Negroes were knocked down and stomped on by white policemen in Birmingham, Alabama.

According to this article Gregory predicted new riots in the cities this summer and stated that the riots will continue until we stop making the ghetto a battleground, and turn it into a lab. Gregory concluded his speech with this remark:

"It is a mark of insanity when a nation as powerful as our's gets frightened over the two simple words 'black power.'"

The February 14, 1968 edition of the "Concord, New Hampshire Daily Monitor" on page 1 carried an article captioned "Battle-Garbed Gregory Places Hope in Youth." This article stated that on February 13, 1968, Dick Gregory spoke at Colby Junior College, New London, New Hampshire, for about 2½ hours during which time he held his audience spellbound. During his speech Gregory stated that his generation is leaving the country in a mess for the next generation, and that the only hope for the country is the young generation. He said that he does not trust anyone who is more than 26 years of age.

According to the article Gregory, who is running for President as an independent candidate, stated: If I were President I would give a $10,000 reward to anyone getting goods on any congressman. In this way we would have no dishonest congressmen."

Gregory further stated that he felt Chicago was a poor site for the Democratic National Convention and said "Unless the city adopts a five point program suggested by me I will keep the policemen busy." Gregory stated that he will not cut his hair or shave until "LBJ does something about Vietnam" and suggested that the male students present not cut their hair in protest of the war in Vietnam.

The February 16, 1968 edition of the "Lewiston Evening Journal, Lewiston-Auburn, Maine" on page 12 carried an article captioned "Challenge to Protest War Given by Gregory." According to this article Dick Gregory addressed a group of students at Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, on February 14, 1968, during which he challenged his audience to protest the Vietnam war in a non-violent fashion. He urged them to refrain from getting their hair cut or from shaving until hostilities cease. In addition he asked them to wear work clothes until the end of the war and to quit smoking.

According to the article Gregory stated that for some strange, sick, insane reason the United States is afraid of black bombs and sent in the National Guard to take ammunition away from Negroes, while at the same time the Minutemen are allowed to keep their ammunition. Gregory stated "One of these days they are going to shoot at you. The Minutemen have never shot at the Negroes, and the dynamite they have buried in the suburban areas one day will wipe out blocks of white men and then maybe you will take that ammunition away from them."

Gregory stated that he did not come to Maine to impress the audience, but only to inform them. He stated that he did not come to Maine to make people mad, but that he could make one phone call in Chicago and make trouble and therefore he did not have to come to Maine in the middle of winter to cause trouble.

Gregory warned the audience not to feel guilty about the racism that exists today, but that the frightening thing is that in 1968 we refused to admit that this racism exists. He stated that Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown have scared this nation to death and expressed surprise that the United States could be frightened by two such people who did not even have any missiles.

Gregory stated that these two civil rights leaders were originally in favor of non-violence but after being exposed to killings and mistreatment for a period of six years, their attitudes have changed.

He described civil rights laws as nothing but an insult to the Negro. He stated that if these laws are so good "Let the white people live under them and we will take the Constitution. Don't do us any special favors. The Negroes are not asking for crumbs when the Constitution says half the cake is our's.

This is my country whether you like or or not."

The February 15, 1968 edition of the "Bath-Brunswick Times Record", a daily evening newspaper published at Brunswick, Maine, carried an article captioned "Dick Gregory - hip mahatma." This article reflected that on February 14, 1968, Dick Gregory addressed an overflow crowd of 700 people at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. According to this article Gregory made virtually the same speech here as he made at Bates College which is described above.

None of the above newspaper articles indicated that there were any demonstrations or incidents of any kind in connection with any of Gregory's appearances.

Dear

Your letter of March 11th has been received.

I am opposed to communists speaking on college campuses; however, I would like to point out that the FBI has no authority to prevent speakers, academic or otherwise, from appearing on college campuses, nor do we have any control over the selection of faculty members or the views they may espouse. Nevertheless, I do consider it my responsibility and obligation to present to the public facts concerning the infiltration of communist propaganda in our schools and colleges. The communists are highly trained and skilled in the ways of deception and distortion of the truth. These conspirators are not bound by any obligation to be honest or factual in their statements. While we all believe in academic freedom and freedom of speech, I do not feel these privileges grant license to deliberately present distortions and falsehoods.

I am enclosing an excerpt from my testimony before the House Subcommittee on Appropriations on February 10, 1966, and other literature which I hope you will find of interest.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

A number of Communists and revolutionists are continueing to speak on college campuses. This of course is wrong. Newspapers come out and say that the students can speak their own minds and are not influenced. However, in talking with students direstcly, I find the opposite is true.

You have testified or made statements to the effect that Communists are not free - that they are under the complete control of Moscow, etc. and of course they are dedicated to their cause.

I would appreciate hearing from you with the documentation of your thoughts on subvensives such as Dick Gregory speaking on campuses and Communists, many of whom have spoken on the campus of Ohio State University

Thank you,

RAYMOND WALTON, Chief of Police, Ypsilanti, Michigan, has advised that subject spoke at Pease Auditorium, Eastern Michigan University, on 1/10/68, to an audience of approximately 800 persons. WALTON added that GREGORY appeared wearing workmans "dungaree" type appearel, and spoke on a variety of topics, mostly political. He added that although subject touched on such topics as opposition to the Vietnam war and the draft, his approach seemed to be more entertaining. He directed jokes at government leaders, white society and "niggers," and recalled GREGORY stating that the idea of Negroes enslaving white people was ridiculous because "it'd take 2½ years just to teach them how to eat watermelon." He pinpointed the problem in the United States to be "moral pollution" resulting from "people telling lies from one end of the country to the other." He added that if social problems in the United States were faced honestly, they could be solved.

Concerning Vietnam, GREGORY stated "You guys are gonna die under the false pretense that you are creating democracy," and later added "with my political beliefs, if I tried to volunteer, the government would tear up my draft card." He characterized the Vietnam war as a genocidal war against a country without an air force, and regarding whether he would fight, stated "I'm the same guy who ran around last summer and told colored folks not to throw bricks."

WALTON added that GREGORY spoke for about two hours and presented a program which contained many of

GREGORY would speak and obtain signatures on petitions for the coming Pennsylvania primary election to be held in April 1968. GREGORY was seeking to get on the ballot as a candidate for President of the United States. ~~(S)~~

On February 28, 1968, PH T-1 and PH T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the appearance of GREGORY at Philadelphia on the previous day had been sponsored by the Pennsylvania Peace and Freedom Party for the purpose of obtaining signatures to place GREGORY's candidacy for President on the Pennsylvania primary ballot. There were an estimated 250 people at the rally. Instead of the Nixon Theater, the rally was held at the Antioch United Church of God, 11th and Huntingdon Streets, Philadelphia. ~~(S)~~ (U)

Among the things that GREGORY said during his talk was that if elected President, he would paint the White House black and bring the boys home from Vietnam. The Negro does not want integration, he wants liberation. He was quite well received by the audience.

Re: Appearance of Dick Gregory,
Benton Harbor, Michigan,
March 8, 1968

On March 9, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights worker, spoke on the racial situation in the United States at the Benton Harbor High School gymnasium, Benton Harbor, Michigan, to an audience, predominantly Negro, of an estimated 1,350 on the evening of March 8, 1968. The speech was without incident.

Gregory, a self-styled presidential candidate, commented that Negroes are engaged in an irreversible revolution, that the Kerner Report on Civil Disorders may "keep it cool" in many fights this summer if whites examine it, although in his opinion it does not go far enough. Gregory claimed politicians are responsible for 90 per cent of the problem and said he wants to create an atmosphere through demonstration in Chicago that will keep whites out during the Democratic National Convention August 26, 1968.

He predicted that commencing the last week in May, 1968, or the first of June, 1968, marches will start in Chicago on an 12 hour basis and gradually escalate to an around the clock basis by the 4th of July.

Re: Richard Claxton Gregory; Racial Matters

On March 12, 1968 the Daily Cougar, official student newspaper of UH, contained an article indicating that Gregory's speech at UH was being sponsored by the University Center Program Council in cooperation with the Lecture-Artist Series.

On March 21, 1968, the Houston Chronicle, daily newspaper, Houston, Texas, carried the following article regarding the speech given by Gregory on the night of March 20, 1968.

-U.S. 'Insane Nation,' Gregory Says at UH

BY TED D'ANDRIOLE
Chronicle Reporter

American college students have inherited "the most morally polluted, insane nation on earth," says comedian and civil rights militant Dick Gregory.

"You youngsters have got to bring sanity back to a nation gone mad. College students have become the number one moral force in the world," Gregory told more than 600 predominantly white students in a 2½-hour speech at the University of Houston Wednesday night.

The general reaction to Gregory's bitter denunciation of and jokes at the American government and social system ranged from stunned applause to uncomfortable silence.

"Most of the enthusiasm came from the estimated 40 Negroes in the audience," Gregory said. "I like to see the students seated in the front of the hall. There was no heckling."

"When will this country be honest and stop playing games with us?" asked Gregory. "If you're going to take away the guns and ammunition from the blacks, we expect you to take away the ammunition from the minutemen."

"America's attitude toward crime and violence wasn't upset until it came to black crime and black violence."

"Fort Lauderdale has been torn up by white kids every year for the last 10 years and none of them has been shot," said Gregory.

He called Dr. Martin Luther King the "greatest moral force" in the country, but said he does not "appreciate Dr. King telling black folks to be nonviolent while not telling white folks the same."

Gregory said the country must face the fact that America, both black and white, is the number one racist country on earth.

"The shame is that the German who killed my daddy in 1942 can come to this country and move into a white neighborhood his son can't live in," said Gregory.

"What disturbs me is that if these same social problems existed in any other country, America could solve them."

Gregory aimed his strongest diatribes against the U.S. war effort in Vietnam.

"Nobody in his right mind will ever again ask America to help get rid of communism after what we've done to Vietnam," said Gregory. "It's like destroying this university with bombs to get rid of rats and cockroaches."

"If our democracy is as good as we say it is, why do we have to run all over the world trying to ram it down everybody's throat?"

"Where were we when democracy fell in Greece?" he asked.

"Your parents are siding with the federal government against their kids and the kids are gunning for them from the right" about the Vietnam war, he said.

"If a government inspector came to your door and asked to take the family dog or cat down the street to help fight communism and perhaps he killed, your parents would fight against it."

"But the government can just send a letter asking them to send their son to Vietnam where he might be killed and they just send you off with no questions asked."

"Your parents are sick," said Gregory.

He defended black power militants Stokely Carmichael and Rapp Brown as men who "have dared to become as bitter as Patrick Henry."

He said America laughed when Khrushchev proclaimed "we will bury you."

"Rapp Brown hasn't got any armies or missiles and yet the most powerful nation on earth is afraid of him," he said. "When a whole nation hates two men (Brown and Carmichael), there's nothing wrong with those men, but that nation is insane."

Gregory mildly criticized UH basketball star Elvin Hayes for favoring Negro participation in the Olympics.

"If America needs its Negro athletes to win, Gregory said, a Negro should be placed on the Olympic Committee."

His talk was sponsored by the UH Program Council and Lecture-Artist Series.

Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, is Negro comedian allegedly involved in civil rights movement. Gregory is a loud mouth, scurrilous liar.

Attached states Gregory made speech, Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, 3/19/68, castigated American Vietnam policy, described FBI Agents and Director, FBI, in derogatory terms.

Special Agent in Charge, New Orleans, recommended Gregory be confronted by FBI Agents and admonished for his attack on the Director and FBI Agents. While we admire the spirit of Special Agent in Charge, New Orleans, and agree Gregory is a dastardly character, New Orleans, Houston, and Chicago Offices were instructed to not confront Gregory as such action could only lead to unfavorable national publicity. RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, that subject spoke at Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, on the night of March 19, 1968. This speech was given to a gathering of approximately 1200 people at McAlister Auditorium on the Tulane Campus. The title of Gregory's speech was "Civil Rights - Black Power." This speech lasted approximately two hours and concentrated on attacks against the United States Government. Gregory stated American Negroes were blameless for high crime, illegitimacy, and poor living conditions found in Negro neighborhoods. He described all such conditions as products of white racism and were forced upon the Negroes. According to Gregory, a history of violence by whites toward Negroes was the cause of urban rioting. Gregory severely criticized the United States Government. He referred to that Government as "rotten and filthy" and stated that every nation in the world was coming to hate the United States. He castigated the United States role in Viet Nam. Gregory criticized the Federal Bureau of Investigation and used scurrilous remarks to describe Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover.

Gregory stated the white population of the United States owed a very large debt to the Negro community and unless Negroes were given what they wanted, they would "burn this country down, house by house, and tear it down brick by brick."

Gregory urged all students in the audience to participate in a protest march on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, on March 23, 1968. Gregory urged all young people to work in the present "revolution" to save the country.

Gregory praised policemen and firemen, stating they were the most important people in the country. He stated that soon everyone in the country would apologize to them for their poor salaries and the disrespect shown them. Gregory believed all policemen should be paid a minimum salary of $10,000 per year.

Most of the audience appeared to be composed of university students. Gregory's presence on the Tulane Campus was without incident.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, that during his speech, Gregory characterized President Johnson with abusive remarks and described the United States Government as insane and on a destructive course. He stated the United States Government must be destroyed if it was going to destroy us (meaning the Negro race.) Gregory also strongly implied the United States Government was in fact attempting to destroy the Negro race. Gregory also stated this Government was no longer a democracy. He felt if the Government did not reform itself quickly, the country will be burned down. Gregory was given a standing ovation for approximately 10 minutes after his speech. During his speech he was interrupted by applause on numerous occasions. The audience was composed of approximately 25 percent Negroes, many of whom were from Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana, but some came from as far as Bogalusa, Louisiana.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, when Gregory spoke to the audience he directed some of his remarks at the Negroes in the audience and called them "niggers." He stated they should not be in a white college, that they should go to Negro colleges. Gregory stated "A white man is afraid of you" and that Negroes should use this fear to their advantage. Gregory stated birth control pills passed out by the United States Government in Negro communities were very dangerous and the Government knew this but was concealing that. Gregory approved of a boycott by Negro athletes stating the Negro should stop being an animal for the white people while the white people take credit for the Negroes' accomplishments. According to Gregory, any Negro soldier who fights a foreigner he does not know is a fool because he should be in Mississippi fighting "cracker rednecks." Gregory stated the Negro is echoing the words of Patrick Henry when he said "Give me liberty or give me death."

Before Gregory's appearance he spoke to a reporter from WDSU-TV, New Orleans, Louisiana. Gregory stated he intends to disrupt the forthcoming democratic convention in Chicago and hopes to have the Army called out and the police tied up coping with large numbers of demonstrators. Gregory stated that these demonstrators would be "half a million hippies." The result of this, according to Gregory, would be the United States being embarrassed abroad and cause this country to lose ten billion dollars in foreign investments. Also he felt this would make it appear the United States Government was close to collapse. The United States public would then feel the present Government was corrupt.

While in New Orleans Gregory stayed in Room 11 of the Mason Motel, on Melpomene, New Orleans, Louisiana.

On the afternoon of March 15, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit, Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department, informed that a recent article in the "Antioch Shopper", a community news sheet, North Kansas City, Missouri, indicated that Dick Gregory would speak in the Park College gymnasium, Parkville, Missouri, on the night of March 16, 1968; that there is no indicated potential for violence in connection with Gregory's scheduled appearance, but that for security reasons the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department would cover Gregory's scheduled appearance to determine whether Gregory might spend the night, after his speech, in Kansas City, Missouri. [redacted] said he had determined [redacted] through law enforcement officials at Parkville, Missouri, who had contacted officials of Park College, that Gregory's contract for appearance at the college banned any recording of Gregory's speech.

Re: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

where Gregory explained about 4:00 A.M. to return to Gregory's home in Chicago, Illinois:

[] reported that Gregory spoke at Park College from about 8:20 P.M. to 10:20 P.M., March 16, 1968. Gregory mentioned he is a presidential candidate as other candidates present only an evil choice for voters. During his speech, Gregory exhibited two books he had authored, namely, "Nigger" and "The Shadow That Scares Me", and referred to a third publication, "Sermons".

Gregory said he spends about 90 per cent of his time before similar type college audiences; that youngsters must give sanity to an insane nation, and, in effect, oppose their parents, the older generation, public leaders and government, which lie to and betray youngsters. He decried parents who protect their dogs and pets but think nothing of a government taking their children for military service and killing them. He said the fact that 18-year olds are not old enough to vote but are old enough to be drafted and killed is "insane".

Gregory said he was on the 17th day of his second 40-day fast, that he wears work clothes, has stopped cigarette smoking, will not shave or have his hair cut, and will continue his civil rights work until the Vietnam war is stopped and American soldiers come home.

Gregory's remarks were interpolated with mimicry, humor, and sarcasm. He said police and firemen are necessary for our society and for order and protection, but are paid "like dogs" and "act like dogs". He said he is not for killing or hurting anyone, and, in effect, that he is not for violence; that Negroes do not hate whites but do hate the white American system; that if Negroes continue to be insulted, the nation will have to be brought to its senses, for it is man's nature to be free, and Negroes will have equality now as they are tired of lies and empty promises.

Gregory decried the public's concern about five youths burning their draft cards, about desecration of the American flag, and fear of two "niggers", Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown. He said actually draft cards are scraps of paper, flags are rags, and Carmichael and Brown are only two niggers; that what people should be concerned about is an "insane war", what the American flag should stand for, and the fact that Brown and Carmichael speak the truth. He displayed a shopping bag, he had used in London, which bore on it a printed "British Union Jack". Gregory said if people understood what Brown and Carmichael and SNCC had been through, when 20 civil rights workers were being lost a week in the South, the people would understand that Brown and Carmichael are doing only what they must in telling the truth.

Gregory said he had seen a lesbian loosed on children in a southern jail cell across from Gregory's jail cell after arrest for peaceful civil rights activity in the South.

Dick Gregory Decries Racism Before Park College Crowd

By Nancy Milner

(A Member of The Star's Staff)

DICK GREGORY, author, comedian, lecturer and civil rights worker, stood on a makeshift stage in the center of the Park college gymnasium last night and told his mostly young, mostly white audience that he didn't care what they thought of him.

He said a lot of things that he has said before—that America is the most racist country in the world, that the Negro had a hungry stomach 20 or 30 years ago but now he has a hungry mind, and that moral pollution is a greater threat than air pollution.

Just Saying 'Nigger'

In a speech mixed with sarcasm, passion, irony and conviction, Gregory charged that the term "crime in the streets" is the new American way of saying "nigger."

"What about white crime?" he asked. "Those kids that go to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and tear up the town every year—they don't get shot at."

"And what about the crime syndicate? Is it too white for the government?"

Gregory charged that the United States was the most morally polluted, most insane nation that ever existed on the earth. Again and again, he returned to Vietnam.

"It is insane in Vietnam when we say that we have to wipe out a city to save it," he told approximately 400 persons gathered on bleachers and chairs in the gymnasium. "Who would want this country to come to their country to wipe out communism after what we've done in Vietnam?"

Negroes, Gregory said, are tired of white people talking about what they can do for them.

With, Not For

"When are the white folks going to start talking about what we can do with you?" he asked.

"Yeah, we're hard on northern white liberals, because northern white liberals have become obsolete in the Negro cause. What we need are white radicals.

"With democracy comes a lot of responsibility, and one of these days, you are going to have to stop telling us that and start listening yourselves. We're tired of this country playing games with us. We aren't asking America to change its ways, just to be honest with us."

Gregory told the crowd that he hadn't come to impress them, but only to inform, and that when he left, he couldn't care less what they thought of him.

"Some of you may walk out of here angry or upset — but understand that I didn't fly all the way to this town to make you mad. It isn't my intention to come here and try to change your views or cure your hang-ups. I only came here to inform," he said.

In one of many attacks on the administration, Gregory said that Lyndon Johnson was probably one of the sickest tyrants that ever lived since Julius Caesar.

"You young folks are fighting to survive," he said. "This country is after youth . . . you have a tremendous problem, the problem of giving sanity back to an insane nation."

The riots, he said, haven't hurt the Negro cause. They should have hurt the cause, he said, but in a country as insane as this one, they've helped.

On the lighter side, Gregory said that he had been tempted to fly to Africa to get a white heart, but pointed out that the only successful transplant that has worked involved a "black heart."

"Maybe this has proved that we've got rhythm in something other than our feet," he said.

POSSIBLE RACIAL INCIDENTS
DURING DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION INTERNATIONAL AMPHITHEATER
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
AUGUST, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated March 13, 1968.

On March 19, 1968, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory held a press conference at the Knickerbocker Hotel, 163 East Walton Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on March 19, 1968. During this press conference Gregory announced that he is planning to begin massive demonstrations commencing at the end of May and running throughout the summer in an attempt to force Chicago City Administration Officials to "bring in the Army". Gregory stated that the purpose in doing so is to disrupt the Democratic National Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago in August, 1968. Gregory indicated he wanted to "create a type of atmosphere where 'they' will either cancel the Convention or bring in the Army".

Gregory stated that he planned to lead marches 12 hours a day from the end of May to July 4. After July 4, the marches would be stepped up to 24 hours a day. Gregory further stated that he would organize 40 to 50 simultaneous non-violent demonstrations to be held in various sections of Chicago in an effort to disrupt the Democratic National Convention.

On March 28, 1968, [redacted]

furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

Richard Claxton Gregory appeared at 9:00 p.m., March 27, 1968, at Grady Gammage Hall, ASU, before a crowd estimated at 750 people, which was composed mostly of ASU students. [redacted] advised that Gregory spoke from 9:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. and was very critical of the President of the United States, Lyndon Baines Johnson, the United States involvement in Vietnam, the Executive and Legislative Branches' futile efforts to correct crime in the street and such departments' placing all the blame of such crime on Negroes. [redacted] stated that Gregory was extremely critical of parents of teenagers for permitting their sons to serve in Vietnam, and he called the Americans the Number One racist nation in the world.

b7C

[redacted] further stated that although Gregory professed to ascribe to the philosophy of non-violence, he did use several analogies in the talk, the interpretations of which were "if the white people don't come around, there would be more 'burnings to the ground'".

[redacted] stated that Gregory's attempts at humor were well received by the audience, but that his philosophy of Black Power was not enthusiastically accepted. [redacted] concluded that from 11:00 to 11:30 p.m. Gregory had a question and answer period at which time he stated that it was his intention to have demonstrations around the clock in Chicago, Illinois, from May 30, 1968, until the Democratic National Convention and the purpose of such demonstrations was to exhaust the police department which would result in the calling in of the National Guard outfits, which would cause extreme embarrassment to the United States.

On March 28, 1968, PX T-1, a reliable source of information in the past, advised that in addition to the above comments, Gregory further stated that the younger people of today should boycott the purchase of Dow Chemical domestic products, give up smoking cigarettes and the purchase of new clothes. The effects of such boycotts would arouse the manufacturers of these goods to place pressure on the government of the United States to withdraw from the Vietnam conflict.

PX T-1 stated that when Gregory was queried by a young man on whether or not he, the young man, should accept draft, Gregory advised him to be inducted and to go to Vietnam but refuse to shoot any weapons at the enemy. At this point Gregory stated that he would rather kill [redacted] than permit him to perform acts of violence in such places as Vietnam in the future.

PX T-1 advised that after the question and answer period from 11:00 to 11:30 p.m., Gregory had a private newspaper conference until midnight.

APPEARANCE OF
RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"DICK GREGORY THINKS 'SOMETHING IS WRONG'

"TEMPE--Dick Gregory, a comedian and civil rights crusader, said last night that America is depraved, corrupt, inept and the number one joke in the world today.

"Gregory, who addressed a crowd of 1,000 persons in Grady Gammage Auditorium at Arizona State University, lampooned President Johnson and this country's foreign policy.

"He also accused parents of betraying their teenagers by permitting them to serve in Vietnam.

"Although he criticized the federal government, America's handling of racial problems, and life in general, Gregory offered no solutions.

"His diction, coupled with the acoustics in the auditorium, rendered many of his comments unintelligible.

"Hundreds of persons leaned forward in their chairs to try to understand his remarks. Particularly when he used a falsetto voice for emphasis.

"'America is the most violent country in the world,' he said. 'I can't hit a white boy but I can shoot foreigners all over the world with the U.S. Army. I'm not going to be violent anywhere, anytime.'

"Gregory, who said his book 'Nigger' has sold 2 million copies, urged teen-agers to suspect their parents.

"Parents are rubber stamps for the government which drafts their sons, he said.

"'Watch out for your parents,' Gregory said. 'If the government knocked at your folks' door and asked to take their parakeet to fight Communists, they'd make a big stink. But parents don't flick an eyelash when their sons are drafted.

"'Something is wrong in this country when the life of a parakeet would be questioned, but the life of a teenager is not.'

"Gregory described President Johnson as a hopeless bumpkin stumbling around with barbecue sauce on his mouth.

"'After LBJ had an operation, he showed the barbecue sauce on his scar on national TV,' he said. 'We should thank God he didn't have a hemorrhoid operation.'

"'America becomes concerned about the increase in crime only when the Negro is mentioned as a contributor,' he said.

"'A crime in the street is a new way of saying 'nigger,'" Gregory said. 'LBJ of all people is talking about crime. If Bobby Baker had been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of LBJ, both of them would have been in jail by now.'

"He called America the number one racist nation in the world and he said Negroes and whites are to blame. Both races tend to lack compassion and understanding, he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On March 14, 1968, [redacted] East Texas State University (ETSU), Commerce Texas, advised that the university had a committee entitled "Ideas and Issues Committee", and this committee, with the approval of the Dean of Students as well as himself, could hire outside speakers for the benefit of the student body. He said that he had been advised that this committee had received a letter from the American Program Bureau, 59 Temple Place, Boston, Massachusetts, in regard to the consideration of Richard Gregory as a lecturer on the ETSU campus. He stated that he understood that Gregory was to be in the area of Commerce, Texas, about May 1, 1968, and that this had been a suggested date made by the American Program Bureau.

[redacted] both advised that there had been no commitment made to Gregory or the Program Bureau, and that actually the school officials did not expect any to be made or sent to the school officials for consideration, since this student committee was not in a majority in wanting Gregory on the campus. [redacted] said that he was leaving this matter in this status since he wanted the students to make up their own minds and did not want them to say that the university officials ruled against allowing Gregory to speak on the campus. He pointed out that he had not found it necessary to step into any such matters previously and did not think it would be necessary in this case, but that if it were necessary he would take issue. [redacted] stated that Gregory's fee for the campus appearance had been quoted at $1900.00 for the one night and that as far as he was concerned, and he understood this was the feeling of the majority of the committee, that such a fee was entirely too much for such a program when only a "handful of students would attend."

[redacted] stated that in the event anything more was heard of from the committee about Gregory he would advise but he felt that the matter was a closed issue and it had not been necessary that the university officials make an issue of it.

The Negroes will "burn this country down house by house if you whites don't stop this nonsense of insulting us."

"What we want is constitutional rights . . . We hear of civil rights legislation. This is nothing. Why don't white people live under it? We want to live under constitutional rights."

"Why isn't the FBI helping Garrison in New Orleans instead of following H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael?"

"In Greenville the FBI knew of twenty or so killings and did not do anything about it."

"When I was in custody in Birmingham, the jail was segregated and across from my cell was a group of young girls who were molested and the FBI did not do anything."

"H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael said, 'Negroes get a gun,' and the FBI got all shook."

"I will head a demonstration in Chicago from April to November that will make the Democratic Party Convention seem undemocratic as they will have to call out the Army."

"FBI Agents in Houston on March 20, 1968, tried to record my statements."

"CIA has followed Stokely Carmichael around the world and has recorded all of his speeches."

RACIAL MATTER

Reference is being made to Chicago's Memorandum dated January 11, 1968, captioned, "Richard Claxton Gregory; Racial Matter."

On March 8, 1968, page one of the "Mustang Daily", college newspaper for California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California, an article appeared captioned, "Comic - Annotator slated to appear" which indicated that Dick Gregory a comedian turned political critic, ~~who would~~ appeared on the college campus, March 29, 1968, in the Mens Gym at 8:00 p.m. The article further related that Gregory would draw a capacity audience and numerous churches and civic organizations were sending large delegations.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, on April 1, 1968, indicated that Gregory spoke at California Polytechnic College before approximately 1,500 college students, a mixture of mods, war protestors and hippies. The rally went without incident and Gregory's comments were mainly concerning civil rights problems and statements against the war in Vietnam.

In the March 30, 1968, edition of the Santa Maria Times, Santa Maria, California, an article appeared on page one entitled, "Gregory" written by George C. Flowers, Santa Maria Times Newspaper Editor related substantially the following:

Negro Comedian Dick Gregory was loudly applauded by 1,600 young people at the California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California, on Friday night, March 29, 1968, when he spoke concerning riots and violence that have helped the American Negro. He related "I would be sick if I told you I advocate violence" but further stated that "black man in Watts and in Detroit and everywhere has made some big gains since he began to riot."

Gregory related he was on his 31st day of a protest fast, but his speech lasted approximately two and a half hours during which time he defended H. Rap Brown and STOKELY Carmichael and suggested a boycott of Dow Chemical products and told the audience "half you young men here will be dead in 18 months if we don't stop the war"; rapped Bobbie Kennedy; and said that if American's problems are not solved in the next three years, "there won't be any problems."

Repeatedly he criticized America as an insane nation, and he was repeatedly applauded by the audience. The height of the insanity, Gregory said "is the war in Vietnam."

In reference to the Negroes avoiding the Olympic games, Gregory said "I wouldn't have said anything. I would have qualified, and then I would have dropped the baton."

He related, "I can't understand why white folks are dumb enough to pay me $1,500 so that I will explain black power to them. Look it up in the dictionary, that's where it will tell you what 'black' and 'power' means."

Gregory called President Johnson, "The greatest tyrant since Caesar" and was loudly applauded.

He said Americans had a double standard about violence. "Americans pay little attention to violence as long as it's white violence. But when it's black violence they get very upset."

Gregory characterized himself as a racist. He urged the white people to work among the poor white people and the black people to work with the black people. The article terminated by saying that "Gregory avoided obscenities in his public speech at Poly, but used them liberally in the semi-private press conference that followed."

The "Black Student Alliance" has not held any demonstrations or participated in any disruptive activities as of this date. Chicago T-1 is a source with whom contact has been insufficient to determine reliability, but who for a number of years has been knowledgeable in Chicago civil rights activities and with prominent leaders in that field, such as Dick Gregory, a Negro entertainer comedian and civil rights activist, who has recently threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention which will be held at Chicago, Illinois, during August of 1968. (U)

CG T-1 stated that while he believes that Gregory lacks self-discipline and organizational ability, Gregory is currently engaged in a speaking program throughout the United States at various colleges. According to CG T-1, while Gregory is not overtly recruiting individuals from these college audiences to come to Chicago and participate in demonstrations this summer, he frequently comments to the effect that he, (Gregory) will be in Chicago prior to and during the Democratic National Convention, and the implication is that others are welcome to join. (U)

Further CG T-1 noted that at these college talks Gregory emits skillful stage presence and is a spellbinder that captivates the audiences. CG T-1 noted that at one eastern college, at the conclusion of such a talk, what appeared to be a middle-class white coed, approached Gregory to thank him for his talk and that the coed appeared completely awe-struck by Gregory's comments and asked what she could do to help. CG T-1 related that while Gregory merely acknowledged her remarks and offered no specific instructions after the coed had departed he stated to the effect that he probably could have given her a bomb and told her to go blow up the police station and that she would have done same. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 stated that while Gregory has no specific plans, however, he hopes to secure large groups of individuals to demonstrate in Chicago this summer. He does evince plans of commencing with preliminary demonstrations in the latter part of May and that these demonstrations will continue to build in size through June into July, and finally they will reach their peak at the last day of the Democratic National Convention. According to CG T-1, Gregory claims that all demonstrations will be peaceful and non-violent, and will merely be along the lines of using massive numbers of pedestrians, all of whom will obey all laws including traffic regulations, to tie up the streets and sidewalks and to otherwise hinder and impede the activities of the Chicago Police Department. CG T-1 noted, however, that it was pointed out to Gregory that if the demonstrations completely comply with all regulations, they may not obtain the desired results of impeding police activities. In response to this, Gregory, in complete contradiction of the foregoing, is reported to have said that the demonstrators would then lay down in the streets and thus gain the desired results. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 further related with reference to undisciplined, disorganized thinking by Gregory, with reference to demonstrations that in some conversations Gregory spoke of sending [] away from Chicago for the summer. However, in other conversations, when discussing the problem of attracting the attention of the police, Gregory indicated that, if necessary, he would lead marches to various Chicago suburbs such as Cicero, and that [] would be at his side during these marches. ~~(U)~~

According to CG T-1, Gregory indicates that he plans to climax the summer-long Chicago demonstrations on the final day of the Democratic Convention when Lyndon B. Johnson accepts the Democratic Presidential Nomination. Reportedly the theme of this final demonstration will be "The Funeral of the Democratic Party" and the major objective of this final effort will be to embarrass the President and Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago. However, as to whether Gregory has the ability to carry out such grandiose plans, CG T-1 was uncertain in view of Gregory's lack of capacity for organization, self-discipline and administration of given programs. ~~(U)~~

In addition, CG T-1 was in receipt of information concerning [redacted], also known as [redacted], who is allegedly now in Chicago working to organize a coalition of anti-war groups to demonstrate against the Democratic National Convention in August. [redacted] is characterized by CG T-2 as presently one of the leaders of the Joint Community Union, formerly known as Jobs or Income Now, which is the community action organization in Chicago for the Students for a Democratic Society. ~~(U)~~

According to CG T-2, during the latter part of 1967, [redacted] visited North Viet Nam where he met with representatives of the National Liberation Front. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 advises that this coalition, as yet unnamed, will meet somewhere in the middle west around the latter part of March to make specific decisions concerning these demonstrations. Reportedly [redacted] feels that the disruption of the convention would not achieve widespread endorsement and the possibility of an alternate ticket, born out of a counter convention, to be called by the coalition, will be considered. ~~(U)~~

[redacted] indicates that some of his associates believe that mass demonstrations at the convention could play into President Johnson's hands and result in a blood bath. [redacted] explained that Mayor Daley of Chicago would take firm police action against the mass demonstrators and that this would reflect favorably towards the Democratic Party, in that Democrats would appear to be able to handle mobs in the streets. Further [redacted] noted that as a result of such street action the cream of the leadership of his coalition might become casualties and the anti-war movement would be crippled. ~~(U)~~

According to [] at this point only disciplined and coordinated non-violence demonstrations are planned, and there would be no laying siege to the Amphitheater Building or massive confrontations. It is planned that this march will be led by various military figures and clergymen who oppose the war in Viet Nam along with other well-known Viet Nam dissenters. Reportedly, the march would be serious, somber and restrained and the theme would be the burial of the Democratic Party as an American institution and a call to the United States for a new social and political force to replace the Democratic Party. ~~(U)~~ (U)

Gregory was observed to contact Frontier Airlines regarding the flight from Denver to Alamosa, Colorado, and then wandered about the airport for awhile prior to entering a restaurant where he was observed sitting at the counter. Gregory was not met at the Denver airport by anyone but it was observed that some young people spoke to him briefly after they apparently recognized who he was. Gregory left Denver, Colorado, via Frontier Airlines, Flight 583, which was scheduled to arrive at Alamosa, Colorado at 8:13 p.m., March 28, 1968.

On March 29, 1968, [redacted] Adams State College, Alamosa, Colorado, advised that he was in attendance at the college auditorium on the evening of March 28, 1968, when Gregory appeared before a group of approximately 1500 persons, mostly students, which audience was reserved and orderly.

[redacted] stated that Gregory went into a comedy routine for the first few minutes and then told jokes involving President Johnson. Gregory stated that America was a violent country and that the only way to solve the problems was through violence; however, he said he did not personally condone violence.

Gregory stated that a great number of the criminal activities in the United States involves whites only and mentioned the Bobby Baker incident and stated that the Government and "LBJ" knew all about it. Gregory stated that the United States was the most mixed up country on earth and mentioned that there are soldiers in Viet Nam who are not old enough to vote but old enough to die and stated that the blacks hated the whites. Gregory stated that the CIA had followed Carmichael all around the world and reported on his activities and that Carmichael and H. Rap Brown would be heroes in future history. Gregory told the audience to watch the riots on TV this summer and to have the sound of the TV turned off and then to stand behind the TV and recite the Declaration of Independence. Gregory referred to the coming political convention in Chicago and stated that an effort was being made to stop it. He stated he was serious about running for President and spoke against the United States spending money in Viet Nam when the United States has real need for this money at home.

[] stated Gregory wore a wrinkled shirt, purple trousers, and a fancy purple jacket with gold piping around the edges. He had a long beard and looked disheveled.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 4/11/68

We previously received and disseminated information indicating that Dick Gregory, Negro Comedian who has been very active in civil rights demonstrations and in demonstrations opposing U.S. participation in the Vietnam War, planned to hold a vigil in front of the White House during Easter Week.

Attached indicates Gregory currently in Oregon and due back in Chicago, Ill. 4/13/68. Reliable Chicago source stated there is some question as to whether Gregory will go through with plans for vigil at White House in view of announcement by President Johnson that he will not seek reelection.

This information has been furnished to Secret Service Headquarters and to the Inter-Division Information Unit of the Department. A copy has been sent to the Attorney General.

"Ghetto Negro Wants Rights,
Dick Gregory Says at USU

"LOGAN (AP) -- The young people have got to wake up and see what is going on in this country, if for nothing but to protest themselves, Dick Gregory told an audience of 2,500 at Utah State University Friday.

"If you kids aren't careful you are going to be in trouble,' he said, 'There are a lot of problems to be solved and nobody can solve them but you.'

"Mr. Gregory told the students that they are facing a crisis that has never been faced before by young people.

"The world has progressed so far in science it doesn't even count,' he said. 'Now it has to develop talents in fields where we can help man live together even when they hate one another.'

"The 'nigger' in the ghetto is not a fool like you,' he said, 'because we are tired of the American system playing games with us.'

"You taught me to be a white man,' he said, 'and to react the same way you react and then you yell nonviolence at me. Don't give us civil rights unless they will work. Give us the constitutional rights same as the white Americans.'

"We want our rights on the Constitution-- no more, no less.'

"The problems between the two races can never be solved until the Negro will trust a white man, said Mr. Gregory, and no 80 million dollars is going to buy this trust.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"He added that the Declaration of Independence should be changed to 'white folks' because that's the way it reads now--it doesn't include all Americans."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The March 19, 1968, issue of the "Stockton Record," a daily newspaper published at Stockton, California contains an article which reveals that Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and Civil Rights worker, would appear at the University of Pacific (UOP) Conservatory Auditorium, Stockton, California, at 8:15 PM, on March 30, 1968, and again on March 31, 1968, in the Chapel on the UOP Campus.

On April 1, 1968, [REDACTED] Chief, Campus Police, UOP, advised that Gregory spoke to a near capacity audience of over 1,000 persons, mostly of college age, on the evening of March 30, 1968, in the Conservatory Auditorium. Admission was $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for students. Gregory spoke for two hours and was warmly received by the audience.

Gregory mentioned that he was on the thirty-first day of his forty-day fast but did not appear weakened and was vigorous in his speech.

Gregory, during his speech, described Martin Luther King as the number one moral force in our country today and added that he hoped the recent violence in Memphis, Tennessee, would not affect King's work.

Gregory challenged the statement that there are communists in the Civil Rights Movement and inquired as to why the FBI and the Central Intelligence Agency had not identified them.

He criticized the double standard in the United States and said that Congress did not get upset over crime in the streets until it became crime by Negroes. He pointed out that the syndicate was ten times worse than anything else and if the Mafia was taken over by Negroes it would be stomped out immediately. He stated that Bobby Baker stole eight million dollars while working for "LBJ" yet the boss knew nothing about it. He spoke of "LBJ's" attempts to spread democracy in Southeast Asia, yet some of the biggest crooks are in control of Vietnam and why should the U. S. go all the way to Vietnam to stomp out corruption when we have not set our own house in order.

Gregory stated that the attitude of Congress is what can be done with the Negroes, not what can be done for the Negroes. He suggested that next summer when the television stations are showing cities being burned by Negro rioters, turn off the sound and read the first part of the Declaration of Independence which states that it is the duty of the citizens to revolt when they have been misused for long periods of time.

Gregory urged the white people to understand the attitude of the "Blacks" in order to understand why they riot. He told of his first meeting with Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown in the South about six years ago. He stated that these kids were obtaining their freedom house with nonviolence while the red-necked crackers shot them up and blew them up. He cited Carmichael's recent remarks relating to not wanting any whites in the Civil Rights Movement and then explained that Carmichael does not want "northern white liberals" involved in local situations in Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi, as this serves to antagonize the southern red necks when these same northern white liberals cannot guarantee civil rights to the Negroes in their own home town up north. He stated that the Negro wants help from the white radicals not the white liberals. USA

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory ridiculed Congress for passing a bill against burning draft cards within a period of a few days after one had been burned but had not been able to pass anti-lynching law after hundreds of lynchings. Gregory claimed to be opposed to violence and opposed to all war and was especially resentful of the U. S. sending troops to Vietnam to inflict freedom for a bunch of foreigners when there is no enforcement of freedom at home. He repeated that he does not agree with violence but had to admit that progress comes only after riots and as an example cited the recent hiring of thousands of Negroes by the Ford Motor Company in Detroit. He claimed they were hired only because the fires got too close to the Ford Plant.

Chief [] advised that on March 31, 1968, Gregory appeared before a group of approximately 150 students and faculty in the Morris Chapel on the UOP Campus. He gave a short speech entitled "Where's The Church, Baby?" He spoke of the failure of the church to meet its commitment and told of his hope that the church would put an end to capital punishment. He told of his disillusionment of the church at an early age because of its hypocritical attitude.

Chief [] advised there was no racial activity of any type during the time Gregory spoke in the Stockton, California, area.

Dick Gregory Says Blacks 'Cricket in Whites' Ear'

Negro comedian Dick Gregory is a hungry man.

The hunger is both physical, resulting from a 40-day self-imposed fast in protest to the Vietnam War, and psychological—a burning appetite to insure equal rights to his fellow Negroes in this country.

Both were displayed here Saturday night when the thin, bearded comedian delivered an emotional 2½-hour lecture that brought an applauding audience in University of the Pacific's Conservatory Auditorium to its feet.

WEAKENED VOICE

"I noticed LBJ left the country and was blessed by the Pope—Now we can't get out, and who's going to bless us?" he chided in an obviously weakened voice.

Then followed the customary jabs at the Establishment:

"Hey, this is a private school, isn't it? That means even Ronald Reagan can't threaten you."

"I'm tempted to fly to South Africa and get me a white heart," he proclaimed. "But, you know, I hate the thought that you white folks'll start assumin' that we gonna start givin' you spare parts."

Gregory said he'd prefer seeing integration where it shows. "Like I'd like to see a white cat get a black foot."

An urgent surge of frustration flowed from Gregory's speech. He damned United States involvement in Vietnam, crime in the streets, and government neglect of domestic issues.

NO BUILDING

On Vietnam: "It's as if I called in napalm on a building to get rid of the rats and roaches. Ain't no rats and roaches left, but there ain't no building either. . . . Now tell me, what other country in the world is going to ask the U.S. to help them achieve a democracy after seeing how we're doing it in Vietnam?"

On race riots: "Crime in the streets has become America's new way of saying 'nigger.' . . . People call on me to come and say something to stop a riot. Well, I didn't heat 'em up, and I don't know a way to cool 'em off."

On government assistance: "If welfare bothers you so much, then stop callin' it that. Call it foreign aid, 'cause that don't seem to bother you at all."

A self-declared candidate for the presidency of the United States, Gregory stated his aims are "totally non-violent."

He crowned the incumbent "The slickest tyrant that walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar."

Gregory declared his allegiance to black leaders Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael, and H. Rapp Brown.

Unperturbed by the varying views they represent, Gregory cited Dr. King as a "misunderstood man" to whom the country owes a debt of gratitude for keeping the lid on a dangerously boiling vat of violence.

MILITANT VIEWS

The militant views of Brown and Carmichael were dismissed by Gregory as "completely understandable." He noted their tireless efforts on behalf of the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC), prior to their present preaching of the "get a gun" philosophy.

"Carmichael and Brown," advised Gregory, "have dared to become as bitter as Patrick Henry."

"And you know what, baby," Gregory shook his head incredulously, "Stokely, he ain't even got one missile. And Rapp Brown, well, he don't even own a canoe."

"But you white folks know we'll burn this country down house by house, brick by brick—that's what they're talking about," he lamented. "We got to give sanity back to an insane nation."

The lengthy lecture led Gregory to the final observation:

"The white folks in this country is the lion, and the black folks is the cricket—and we're gonna jump in your ear every time we get the chance."

The following article appeared in the April 1,
1968, issue of the "Fresno Bee" daily newspaper:

Dick Gregory Shows 3 Faces In CC Talk

President Johnson "is the slickest tyrant since Julius Caesar," a man who has become rich in public office and who presides over a "sick, insane nation" in danger of take-over by a "Nazi-Facist" element, says Dick Gregory, the nonviolent but militant civil rights crusader.

However, Johnson's decision not to run may signal an end to an "era of political muscle" and a new period of statesmanship in America, says Dick Gregory, the presidential candidate.

"But we're going to have to watch LBJ — if he leaves the country next week, I'm going to say, 'Bye, you-all!'" says Dick Gregory, the comedian.

Gregory, 35, a former night club comic who has become a preacher for the rights of American minorities and against what he considers to be the sins of the country, socked it to an audience of a thousand persons at Fresno City College last night in a two-hour sample of his new, stiff line.

Wide-Ranging Speech

Wearing a dark-green jump suit and appearing with a beard, which he said will remain until America makes peace in Vietnam, Gregory spoke here on the 32nd day of his second 40-day fast in protest of the war. He did not look weak, and in fact used energy enough for two well-fed men in a speech that ranged from off-hand gags to fire-and-brimstone pulpit oratory.

And while he still says some very funny things, Gregory appears to be in dead earnest about his principal theme: America is in bad trouble, sinking fast, and it is up to the youth of the country to pull it out.

Most of what he had to say centered on racism and the situation of the black man in this country, but he also had a word for the Mexican-American, the Indian and "the poor white hill-billy."

One of the blacks' biggest problems has been in remaining too humble in the face of white repression, Gregory said. "Black people should adopt a policy of being totally militant to the system," he declared. "Nonviolence is my own personal hangup. — I won't preach nonviolence, because all that means is black folks aren't supposed to hit white folks."

Before settling into the serious substance of his message, Gregory offered some material like that in his old routines.

He noted that the only successful heart-transplant to date involved a black heart (Clive Haupt's, donated to Dr. Philip Blaiberg) in a white man.

"That's the only thing wrong with white folks—they just need a change of heart." After that drew heavy applause, Gregory added: "But the last thing we want white folks to assume is that we're going to be your spare parts."

Speaking as a presidential candidate, which he has declared he seriously is, Gregory said one of the first things he would do is set up a $50 billion, white-folks "rest plan"—in order to open up jobs for blacks. But he predicted he would incur the wrath of blacks, who would demand to know why he was giving whites "all those checks while they ain't doing nothing but having all those babies."

Most of the balance of his talk was without levity. Much of his comment touched on American violence. "There's no way to discuss America today without talking of violence. America is a very violent nation."

Whites will not understand the powder-keg of the ghetto until they venture from their "lily-white suburbs" and see some of the "mean, evil" Negroes who "don't give a damn about dying," Gregory said in warning about chances of summer violence.

Speaking of the President's riot commission report, Gregory said he thought the $80 billion proposed for urban ailments "is not going to solve the problem." First, he said, "we've got to get black folks to trust this country."

On crime, Gregory recalled congressional cheers when Johnson called for control of "crime in the streets." White crime or white violence doesn't upset the nation, he said, but when the crime is black, "the country goes crazy."

He warned of the far-right "Minute Men" whose dynamite he claimed may blow up white suburbs, and of the American penchant for guns that sees "grown men go hunting for little-bitty rabbits with a shotgun."

He called college- and teen-aged youth "the No. 1 moral force" in the nation, but cautioned that "the system is getting ready to wipe out young folks" by measures such as elimination of deferments from military service for graduate students.

The job of youth, Gregory declared, is to "give sanity back to a nation gone stone mad."

Before his lecture in the City College gymnasium, Gregory met briefly with reporters. Appearing minutes after President Johnson's disclosure he would not seek re-election, Gregory said he was "caught by surprise" by the announcement.

"But I think we have to give the credit to the young kids — I think it's a tremendous victory for peaceful but militant protest."

Commenting on the changed election picture, Gregory said he could not support "any politician," including the announced candidates. America needs "a statesman" which is what he declares he would be if elected.

Asked about his reactions to the riot commission report, Gregory said he was surprised "it was this honest" regarding racism, but added he was disappointed who they put the blame on. Rather than white racism, he stated, the finger should point to "politicians" who have sworn to uphold the constitution.

Turning to implications of Memphis rioting last week, Gregory said it was "very important" the disturbance was checked in one day. He added that police now seem to understand the difference between dealing with "a hoodlum, a thug, and a looter, and with a revolter."

"A lot of things are not going to get out of hand because of advanced police training," he declared.

Will the country solve its racial problems, or will the end be revolution? Said Gregory:

"I have a firm belief in my heart we've gone beyond the point of no return, unless we get a shift in the wind. Tonight may be that shift in the wind, with the President stepping down. . . I think if we don't solve the problems confronting the country in the next three years, that America won't exist — it will be torn apart from the inside."

During his speech, Gregory concentrated on criticizing the current Government administration and the treatment of minority groups.

The following article appeared in the April 2, 1968, issue of the "Vallejo Times-Herald" newspaper:

SPEAKS IN VALLEJO

Dick Gregory Hits Moral Pollution

The major problem confronting America today is "moral pollution" and it is up to the younger generation to solve this problem created by their elders, Dick Gregory told a crowd of 900 in Vallejo Monday night.

Speaking at Hogan High School, Gregory, an independent candidate for president who has been mentioned as the possible standard bearer for the new Peace and Freedom Party, said: "The number one problem confronting this country is not the problem of air pollution, but moral pollution. I say to you youngsters, you got to solve the problems the old, morally corrupt generation has presented."

Turning to the Democratic and Republican parties, Gregory said they won't let you vote at 18, but make you wait until you're 21 when you are "thoroughly morally corrupted."

"That's why the Peace and Freedom Party has it all baby, they're the only way out," Gregory told the crowd. The Peace and Freedom Party is currently circulating an 18-year-old initiative ballot measure.

America from its "insanity," Gregory said. "What's wrong with an 18-year-old saying to his country, damn it, if I'm too young to vote, then I should be too young to die."

STAYS ON FAST

Although in the 33rd day of a 40-day fast in protest of the Vietnam war, Gregory entertained and confronted the audience for two and a half hours, interspersing criticisms of America with cutting wit.

He opened his talk by saying: "I just finished crying about LBJ being out of work," but minutes later added if he were elected president, he would "bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ over there."

Condemning all aspects of the "establishment," Gregory told the audience: "The biggest job you youngsters have is to give sanity back to the insane nation. The Senate and House debate four months over a clean meat bill. Is clean meat debateable?"

Turning to the failure of Congress to pass the anti-rat bill, Gregory said: "You wiped out the buffalo but you can't get rid of the rat."

U.S. POLICY HIT

Attacking U.S. policy in Vietnam, Gregory said if you believe what you read in the newspaper, the Viet Cong Tet offensive "didn't hurt us. We won." But wasn't LBJ surprised when he tried to call the American Embassy and a Viet Cong answered, Gregory said.

Recalling President Johnson's speech Sunday night, Gregory asked: "How do you de-escalate the war cutting back in the bombing and calling up the reserves?" He answered by saying: "When they shot down two $6 million planes, LBJ decided it's cheaper to lose boys rather than the planes."

With an audience of about 50 per cent black, Gregory spent much of his speech on race problems in America.

He advised young black people, when riots again are televised during the summer, to call their parents to the television, turn down the sound, and read the Declaration of Independence. The section Gregory said to read was:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men.

That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it."

Gregory continued by saying the Black man has not received these unalienable rights during his 300 years in America. "If you think the civil rights bill is progress, you white people ought to live under it. We want the Constitution."

The problem with America, it refuses to face up to racial violence and it keeps passing the buck, Gregory said. "Someday we will have to admit America is the number one racist country on earth," he said. "If these problems existed in any other country on earth, we could solve them."

TOO MANY GUNS

"One day you young kids are going to ask the question — if democracy is as good as you (adults) tell us it is, why are we running around the world trying to ram it down people's throats with a gun?"

Further commenting on violence, Gregory said he was committed to non-violence, but America today is a "violent country."

"I don't go around preaching non-violence because it is the white folks who own the army, planes, and police," Gregory said. "How in the hell are you going to ask a nigger to be non-violent?"

Gregory cited Black Power committed to non-violence, but leaders Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown of examples of two young men who were non-violent six years ago during the civil rights movement in the south, but today "are telling the truth" and have scared the most mighty nation on earth to death."

Commenting on the Black Power speeches of Carmichael and Brown, Gregory said: "When a whole nation can hate two men for telling the truth, there's something wrong with the nation, not the two men!"

Gregory concluded his speech by saying we no longer need liberals, but radicals. Seeing the hope of the country in the young, he concluded: "It's a sick country. It's yours, you youngsters, to straighten up or tear down."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

An article appearing in the March 25, 1968, issue of "The Sacramento Bee" newspaper revealed that Gregory was scheduled to appear at American River College (ARC), Sacramento, California, on April 2, 1968.

On April 3, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past appeared at ARC as scheduled and spoke before a crowd of approximately 1,700 persons, most of whom were of college age.

Gregory reviewed the history of the Negro race from the days of slavery to the present so-called Civil Rights legislation. He claimed to be an adherent of nonviolence but has nothing but respect for Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown and invited the white radical students to join the Black minority cause. He also praised Martin Luther King and claimed there would be more severe rioting and bloodshed if it were not for the nonviolent attitude of King.

Gregory also criticized Senator Robert Kennedy and stated that when Kennedy was a statesman about eight years ago, he was a highly respected national leader but now that he is in politics, he "stinks."

Gregory complimented the students throughout the country for their continuous protest against the war situation, the draft situation and certain policies laid down by the Johnson Administration. He gave credit to the student protesters for forcing President Johnson's decision in not accepting the nomination as a candidate during the coming national elections. He urged the students to continue their violent and nonviolent actions against the "rotten establishment." He claimed that the riots which are bound to occur during the coming summer will make last year's riots appear to be insufficient.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The source advised that no incidents occurred in connection with the appearance of Gregory at ARC.

The following articles appeared in the April 3, 1968, issue of "The Sacramento Bee" newspaper and the April 5, 1968, issue of "The Beaver," ARC newspaper, respectively:

'We Don't Hate You'

Gregory Says Whites Have 'Stinking System'

By Art McGinn

Negro comedian Dick Gregory, with wit as grim as the ghetto itself, last night tried to explain to about 1,700 students, mostly white, what it is like to be black in "white America."

"We don't hate you," he told a standing-room-only crowd at American River College. "We hate your stinking white system, and everything it stands for."

Cites Examples

As an example of the "system," Gregory said:

"If a German soldier had shot my father dead in World War II, he could come to this country today — right now — and live in a neighborhood that my father, who would have died fighting for his country, could never have moved into."

He gave another example:

"A Negro named Charles

Drew gave the world blood plasma. But he bled to death in a hospital where they wouldn't give him blood plasma, his own invention, because he had black skin."

35th Day Of Fast

Gregory, on the 35th day of a 40-day anti-Vietnam fast but showing no signs of it in a 2½-hour speech in the Student Center, said the racism and rampant materialism of "the system" have made this country "the most morally polluted, corrupt and insane nation on the face of the earth today."

Interrupted by applause several times, Gregory chided the recent report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorder, which recommended a crash $80 billion program to alleviate riot conditions in the ghettos.

"Baby, you ain't gonna buy this one," Gregory said. "It doesn't cost one nickel to enforce the U.S. Constitution and the U.S. Bill of Rights."

Citing a string of what he called "double-standard practices against Negroes and other minority groups," he charged:

"It's the insults that are driving us crazy."

"And if this nation doesn't stop insulting us, we'll burn this nation down house by house, brick by brick. And don't tell us education is our problem — that's a cheap white cop-out."

(U)

Tired Of System

"We are tired of this whole vast system playing games with us. We are tired of a nation that tells us to be 'non violent' when you — the whites — own all the gas, the police, the CIA and the napalm."

Gregory, noting he is opposed to violence, said "We are going to take your own violence and make you destroy yourselves with it."

Calls It Youth's Job

Gregory said he spent 98 per cent of his lecturing time on college campuses, because the young persons of the nation "have the job of giving sanity back to an insane nation!"

He said they will discover the "No. 1 and the No. 2 men" in the country are "farmers and cops."

"You will find they are both very important, and that if you pay them enough — maybe even overpay them — they can be pretty decent fellows," he said.

"We're tired of your insults . . . Baby, we will burn this nation down house by house and brick by brick if you don't quit insultin' us!" This is the cry of angry frustration, the cry of a man who feels the United States is not living up to the guarantees of the Constitution, a man who is going to do something about it if things are not changed soon.

Whether or not the hundreds of people who crowded into the Student Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday agreed with Dick Gregory, they listened; and when, two hours and 20 minutes later, the Negro leader concluded his speech, they gave him a standing ovation.

"The number one problem in this country," said Gregory, "is moral pollution." And the former comedian implored the young people in the audience to help him eliminate the problem.

He condemned the hypocrisy of the United States for insisting the South Vietnamese government eliminate the corruption in its ranks when America has not cleaned up crime syndicates in her own cities.

He deplored the fact that this is a country where freedom supposedly exists yet where southern Negroes, among them Stokeley Carmichael and Rapp Brown, both one-time advocates of non-violence, pulled guard duty on freedom houses to keep them from being burned by white southerners. And where, only six years ago, as many as 20 civil rights workers were murdered or disappeared within a week's time.

He also told of being locked up in the Birmingham, Ala. jail after a demonstration and having to watch as jail officials allowed lesbians to enter the cell directly across from his and molest the little girls, some no more than 4 years old, who had been among those arrested.

In order to focus attention on the "insanity" of the present system that has allowed so many injustices to occur, non-violent demonstrations have been planned to begin next month in Chicago. The veteran protester stated, "After the Democratic Party announced it would hold its convention in Chicago, I sent letters to the president, party chairman, the mayor and the city council expressing my objection to the selection of Chicago as the site for the convention inasmuch as Chicago has not even tried to solve its problems of racial injustice and economic deprivation. Unless something is done soon, I will begin demonstrations the last week of May. These peaceful non-violent demonstrations will begin on a 12 hour a day schedule and be increased to 24 hours a day by July 4 until dozens of demonstrations will be conducted in different parts of the city simultaneously and continuously."

The purpose of these marches, he said, is to tie up the police force and hopefully force the government to call out the National Guard. "If the National Guard is required to maintain peace and order in Chicago, this summer, the United States will have to face the world-wide shame of a democratic government forced to hold a democratic convention we would recognize the situation as evidence of a tumbling government."

In spite of the violence and injustice he has seen, Gregory says, "I am committed to non-violence, just to myself." But he does not oppose the violent actions of others.

Gregory Hits Moral Pollution

He sees the United States as a country that glorifies violence, where, if you watch Matt Dillon, you learn that it is "a virtue to shoot straight." The civil rights activist pointed out that, "We are sick and tired of you telling us to be non-violent when white folks have all the guns."

On the subject of politics, the write-in presidential hopeful praised young people for opposing the Vietnam war. "You made LBJ quit, baby . . . All you had was young, innocent right, and he had to go . . . It's the greatest victory in the history of the world for non-violent right."

The former comedian also expressed disillusionment with Robert Kennedy because he had come out in support of President Johnson prior to the New Hampshire primary. "He ain't to be believed no more."

Senator Eugene McCarthy fared better in the Negro activist's evaluation. Gregory commended the Democratic nomination hopeful for challenging the president's war policy, but criticized him for not taking a stand on civil rights issues.

As for why he is seeking the presidency, Gregory stated, "I'm a candidate because a lot of people don't want to vote for the lesser of two evils; I'm giving them a choice."

Poverty programs alone will not help, he feels. And poverty is not what is making Negroes riot. "Insults are what's driving us crazy . . . It won't cost this country one nickel to implement this constitution . . . We ain't never going to solve this problem 'til we can trust you."

Although he was in the 35th day of his 40 day Vietnam protest fast, Gregory seemed almost tireless. At times he stood talking quietly, almost whispering, but in other instances, he would nearly begin to dance and would shout into the microphone.

In summary, Dick Gregory is a revolutionary. He is out to destroy not democracy, he feels, but the moral pollution that keeps this country from being a democracy.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On April 4, 1968, Harold T. Kulbach, Chief of Police, Merced, California, advised Special Agent  that on the evening of April 3, 1968, Richard Claxton Gregory spoke at the Merced County Fairgrounds Pavilion. His appearance was sponsored by the Associated Students of Merced College, a faculty approved organization at Merced College, Merced, California.

The meeting was attended by between 200 and 300 persons. Gregory was in the final stages of a forty-day fast and appeared unsteady on his feet as he delivered his speech. Gregory discussed the Civil Rights problem in the U. S.; rioting by the Negro; and crime on the streets. He also denounced President Johnson, Senator Robert Kennedy and Senator Eugene McCarthy.

The audience at this meeting was composed mainly of Negroes but there were a large number of whites present. No disturbance resulted from his speech even though between 50 and 75 persons left the meeting while Gregory was speaking.

The following article appeared in the April 4, 1968, issue of the "Merced Sun-Star" newspaper:

Gregory Addresses 250 at Pavilion

By DORIS PIRES

The fireman and the cop are the best friends you have," Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, presidential candidate and civil rights activist, told the approximately 250 people who gathered at the Fairgrounds Pavilion Wednesday evening.

Gregory, whose appearance here was sponsored by the Associated Students of Merced College, said society has treated both the fireman and policeman like dirt.

"If you want to get rid of crime in the streets," he said, "give dignity and respect back to the policeman, pay him what he's worth. Then you'll have no more problem. Ain't no man going to do something in front of a man that has dignity."

"Garbage collectors can go on strike," Gregory said, "and get higher pay. 'One of these days' all the firemen and cops are going to wake up and decide not to go to work. Believe me, when you get robbed, raped and your house burns down, you're going to see that they get decent wages."

Gregory pointed out that young people, as well as adults think it is terrible that our young men must put on a uniform and go to Vietnam to face death.

But, he added, when he dons his uniform each day and kisses his children good-bye, the policeman knows that it may be for the last time.

As for police brutality, Gregory said, "you treat a nigger like a dog and he acts like a dog."

At the end of the 35th day of a 40-day fast in protest of the war, Gregory appeared weak. His knees buckled almost constantly during the three hours he spoke, giving the appearance of a bobbing and weaving fighter. At times he seemed to forget what it was he wanted to say.

Yet, whether crooning softly, "that's what we're talking about, baby," or booming sonorously from the Declaration of Independence, "all men are created equal, with certain inalienable rights... and when these rights are denied for a long period of time, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it and institute a new form of Government," Gregory never lost his audience.

Of course, Gregory said, the white fathers of this country did not riot over the same things the black people riot over. "They got up tight over a tea tax! Now you know, we aren't going to riot over a Lipton's tea bag!"

One of the problems in the United States today which bothers him most, Gregory said, is that of moral pollution.

The American attitude toward crime and violence is difficult to understand, he said, in fact, "it is insane."

Crime in the streets is another term for the problem of what to do about the Negro, Gregory said. But almost no attention is paid to white crime.

"We support one of the biggest crime syndicates in the world," he said. "Bobby Baker stole $8 million while he was working for LBJ but we're supposed to believe LBJ never saw any of it or even knew it was going on.

"I'll bet you if Bobby Baker was working for Adam Clayton Powell, they'd both be in jail!"

Another example of American insanity, Gregory said, is James Hoffa and Cassius Clay. Clay is fighting induction into the Army, he said, and was stripped of his heavyweight boxing crown before the outcome of that trial was known. "But Jimmy Hoffa remained president of the Teamsters' Union right up until he went to jail! That's what we're talking about, baby, justice."

Gregory insists he is serious about being a presidential candidate.

He denounced both senators Eugene McCarthy and Bobby Kennedy although he said McCarthy was the most honest of the two. "He attacked a tower with a toothpick," Gregory said, "and he knocked it down. Then Bobby out, LBJs, LBJ and says he'll run."

He warned his audience against Kennedy because he is a politician. "Besides that, he looks good," Gregory said. "We saw through LBJ because he didn't look so good, so we could see what he was doing, but watch out for Bobby... he's pretty."

Perhaps the most obvious example of America's insanity, Gregory said, is its reaction to Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown.

"Krushchev comes over here and says he will bury us and we say 'Come on, baby,' but Rap and Stokely have scared this nation half out of its mind. That's insane."

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as
Dick Gregory

On [redacted] a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a projected itinerary for a speaking tour by RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has been arrested on various occasions as a result of his civil rights activities. One talk appearing on this itinerary was shown as scheduled for April 9, 1968, at Olympic College, Bremerton, Washington. The itinerary also listed a talk to be made at Central Washington State College, Ellensburg, Washington, the same date. b7D

On April 11, 1968, [redacted] Olympic College, said that in January, 1968, an effort was made to obtain the services of GREGORY as a speaker at the college, but no agreement with respect to financial arrangements could be made and no firm commitment was ever made. GREGORY did not and is not in the future scheduled to appear at Olympic College. b6 b7C

On April 11, 1968, Sgt. [redacted] Ellensburg, Washington, Police Department, said he had attended an affair at Central Washington State College (CWSC) in Ellensburg on the evening of April 10, 1968, at which GREGORY appeared as a symposium speaker. b6 b7C

[redacted] estimated the audience at the affair, sponsored by the Student Government Association, at about 750-900, of which some 50 were Negroes. Of the latter, more than half appeared to be persons from out of town, or, at least, non-students. There were no demonstrations or disorder of any kind; however, in the text of his speech, GREGORY at one point addressed himself to "any FBI or CIA Agents in the audience" with the admonition to "mark in their book that one policeman's life will be taken for every black person's life lost." He stressed that politicians are responsible for much of the current disorder, remarking "they promise much but do not fulfill their promises." b6 b7C

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY derided the Civil Rights Bill as too slow, and insisted Negroes want all their rights and privileges now. He stressed that on the same day he had heard of the death of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. he also received notice of the affirmation by the Washington State Supreme Court of a 90-day jail sentence which had been imposed upon him by the State of Washington in the past as a result of his involvement there in Indian "fishing rights" demonstrations. He said he would "do his 90 days" quietly, but that the 90 days would probably be something the people of Washington would never forget, hinting that his friends might engage in civil disobedience during his jail term. He inferred this coming summer might be a most difficult time for any persons wishing to visit Washington as tourists.

GREGORY alluded to the assassination of KING as probably "the work of Government Agents," and placed the deaths of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and of MALCOLM X in this same category.

[] said GREGORY had stayed in Ellensburg at a local motel and was accompanied by a light skinned Negro woman who registered separately as [] [] N.W., Washington, D. C. He neither made nor received any telephone calls.

WASH

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

An article covering the talk of GREGORY at CWSC appeared in the April 11, 1968, issue of the Yakima Herald Republic, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Yakima, Washington, as follows:

Gregory blisters politicians

ELLENSBURG — Negro comedian Dick Gregory was deadly serious in his address to a Central Washington State College audience here last night.

America has got to stop worrying about the methods of Dr. Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown, and start talking about their common purpose, he said.

That purpose is the realization of the principles of the U.S. Constitution for black America, he said. "It's not the white racist who allows injustice to exist in this country, it's the politician who swears in his oath of office to uphold the Constitution and then doesn't."

Gregory said he will return to Washington State this summer to serve a 90-day jail sentence for violating state fishing laws while staging an Indian fish-in on the Nisqually River last year. That protest was in support of the Indian's right to fish off the reservations without restrictions.

"For the first time, maybe my Indian brothers will get the kind of attention they deserve," he said. "I'm going to do them 90 days with pride. It will be 90 days the state will never forget."

GREGORY spoke on April 11, 1968, at Western Washington State College (WWSC), Bellingham, Washington, and the following article covering this appeared in the April 12, 1968, issue of the Bellingham Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Bellingham, Washington:

Gregory Tells College Students They Have Job to Do on Rights

By HUNTLY GORDON
Of The Bellingham Herald
"You young kids got a job to do," Negro comedian Dick Gregory told an audience of about 1,200 Western Washington State College students Thursday afternoon.

Gregory, a civil rights leader and announced presidential candidate, appeared at Carver Gymnasium on the 44th day of a 47-day fast.

His fast, a demonstration against the war in Vietnam, may "continue 'til election day in November", he told an audience from which he elicited occasional applause from small pickets of listeners.

WRONG EMPHASIS

"I spend 92 per cent of my time on college campuses," he said, and hoped they could find the answer to the problem of why men don't put emphasis on how fast man can eradicate man's inhumanity to man rather than how fast he can travel from point to point.

Referring to the State Supreme Court's refusal to strike down a 90-day jail sentence, he said that he would be returning to the state soon to serve the sentence, but warned about the consequences.

"You don't have a Ku Klux Klan in white sheets up here. Your clan wears black sheets and calls itself the Supreme Court," and added, "When I get through with this state this summer, Whitey will be dead or as American as anybody."

Speaking of the Civil Rights bill passed Wednesday, Gregory said: "We don't want a rights bill, what we want is the rights guaranteed in the Constitution."

INSTALLMENT PLAN

Noting that provisions of the bill don't go into effect until 1970, he added: "We don't want our rights on the installment plan."

Repeatedly insisting that the white man "is playing games with us" and "that we're tired of games," he launched into a discussion of non-violence.

"What is non-violence?" he asked. "To some it's turn both cheeks, then swing. To others, it's not hitting first. To others it's not getting hurt," he said.

In referring to the late Martin Luther King Jr., he said that non-violence is a method — and only a method — but the purpose is equal rights. Change in method doesn't mean a change in purpose.

UP TO HISTORY

"History will decide which method is best," he said.

Turning to the American Indian, he said that the highest rate of suicide in the nation and the tuberculosis rate is among Indians.

"As long as he's peaceful, no one gives a damn," he added. "I hope we'll live long enough to be as afraid of injustice as we are of communism," he declared.

He told the students: "Don't let them (older people) tell you that you're weak. You made the number one man-quit. You've got a thing going."

Referring to the civil rights movement, he said that it no longer needs northern white liberals, it needs white radicals.

"Before you come South, take a nigger home and bug your mom and daddy. We're tired of your picking on our redneck cracker," he said.

In other parts of his speech, he said it is "more honorable to go to jail than to go to Canada," to oppose the draft law; that Negroes should have "qualified, gone to Mexico and dropped the baton" in the Olympics, rather than refused to participate early; and that "money won't buy the Negro's trust."

Saying that a statesman doesn't have to solicit votes, so he wouldn't discuss his presidential candidacy, he said he opposes Sen. Robert F. Kennedy because "he's lied to the world" when he said he hadn't entered the race because he thought it would split the Democratic party.

And of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Gregory said he still likes him and "he hasn't lied to us yet."

He closed by inviting students down to Tacoma while he's serving his sentence for "the action."

Gregory was on campus to keynote the Associated Students nominating convention Thursday night.

S.C.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

With reference to GREGORY's talk at WWSC, [redacted] Security Officer, WWSC, who attended the affair, offered the following supplementary remarks on April 11, 1968:

b7C

GREGORY said nothing in the course of his talk about disrupting the Democratic National Convention as he has in the past threatened to do. He talked a good bit about the Indians in the State of Washington and how they have suffered. He referred derisively to President JOHNSON on several occasions, and described him as the "slickest politician since Caesar;" said he originally had a rather high opinion of ROBERT F. KENNEDY, but this was before he became "a politician." He now holds him in low esteem. L 4.

GREGORY stated he had met JAMES GARRISON, the New Orleans Prosecuting Attorney, and remarked that they both know something the general public doesn't know--that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was sent to Russia by the FBI to see if the U-2 airplane made contrails at 27,000 feet.

GREGORY read from a paper he held in his hand an article pertaining to the shooting of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., this being to the effect that on a direct line of fire from the window from which the fatal shot was fired to where KING was standing was a tree, but this had been split and bent over, and "only the United States Government would be that thorough and have the foresight to move a tree from the line of fire." GREGORY said the Government also was involved in the shooting of MEDGAR EVANS.

With reference to the 90-day jail sentence imposed on GREGORY by the State of Washington for his actions in connection with the Indian fishing rights matter in that state, subject said he did not intend to appeal the Washington State Supreme Court affirmation of the sentence, but expects to start serving it on May 20, 1968.

At a press conference following his talk, [redacted] said GREGORY was asked whether he is still planning on disrupting the Democratic National Convention, and he replied "No, I don't have to now; you saw what happened in Chicago."

[redacted] said there were no disturbances, demonstrations, or disorder of any kind incidental to subject's appearance in Bellingham. He said following his appearance

GREGORY was to be taken to Vancouver, B. C., Canada, airport where he had reservations on a flight to Seattle, Washington.

A source in Seattle, Washington, on April 11, 1968, advised that subject had reservations at the Hilton Inn at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport for the night of April 11-12, 1968; and [] also had a separate reservation there for the same night. b6 b7C

A second source in Seattle advised that subject arrived in Seattle at 11:13 PM aboard United Air Lines (UAL) Flight #223 on the night of April 11, 1968, and departed Seattle on the morning of April 12, 1968, at 6:20 AM aboard UAL Flight #222 en route Salt Lake City via Portland, Oregon, and Boise, Idaho.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The "Bellingham Herald", issue of April 12, 1968, carried an item pertinent to GREGORY's imminent incarceration and this is reproduced below.

Group Plans
For Gregory

OLYMPIA (AP) — A group supporting Negro comedian Dick Gregory for President plans a sit-in outside the Thurston County jail while he serves his 90-day jail sentence for illegal fishing, Gregory's attorney said Thursday night. WA SH

Jack Tanner of Tacoma told the Capital City Press Club the demonstration would be staged by the Peace and Freedom Party, which has nominated Gregory for President in the California primary.

Gregory announced at Central Washington State College in Ellensburg Wednesday night that he would serve his sentence "with pride." The comic's appeal on a conviction arising out of demonstrations on behalf of Indian fishing rights was turned down last week by the State Supreme Court.

Tanner said Gregory did not plan to surrender until after he had asked the supreme court for a rehearing, which he has until May 4 to do. However, Gregory, who was in Seattle overnight Wednesday, said he would be prepared to start his sentence May 20. He plans to ask for an extension of the May 4 date.

A characterization of the Peace and Freedom Party is in the appendix.

APPENDIXTHE PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY OF WASHINGTON

The records of the Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington, indicate that the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) of Washington is a duly constituted minority political party in statutory conformity with the laws of the State of Washington. As a result of a nominating convention held in Seattle, Washington, on September 20, 1966, 276 registered voters qualified as delegates.

A press release issued by the PFP from its office, 512 Wellington Avenue, Seattle, Washington, on September 26, 1966, states the Party's platform is based on opposition to U.S. intervention in the war in Vietnam and declared "that the war is immoral, brutal, and illegal," and asked that American troops be withdrawn. It expressed concern about the grave effects of this war at home; and that preoccupation of the government and the American people with the war in Vietnam is causing the civil rights movement, which the Party supports, to meet with increasing resistance.

On August 24, 1967, a source advised that many communists attended the nominating convention of the PFP upon the urging and insistence of Communist Party leaders and qualified as delegates.

This same source also advised that at the PFP Political Issues Conference held in Seattle on May 7, 1967, Communist Party leaders participated and submitted position papers. A larger number of Communist Party members than at the nominating convention participated and many were elected to Congressional District Committees and representation on the PFP State Committee.

The above source advised on August 24, 1967, that at a meeting of the PFP held in Seattle on August 21, 1967, delegates were selected to attend a conference in Chicago, Illinois.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 16, 1968. ZIL

On April 19, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an organization known as Politics For Peace is sponsoring a speech by Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, and critic of the United States Vietnam war policy, at the Orchard Junior High School, Skokie, Illinois, on April 28, 1968, at 2:30 PM. Gregory's topic is listed as "Moral Pollution in the United States."

This source stated that Politics For Peace is a continuation of the National Conference for New Politics which was held in Chicago over the Labor Day weekend of 1967. This organization is running a campaign to elect peace candidates for the 13th Congressional District in the Democratic primary to be held in Illinois on June 11, 1968.

This source further advised that there are seating arrangements at the Orchard Junior High School to accommodate 400 people, however, approximately 600 are expected to attend Gregory's appearance.

The above information is being furnished the United States Attorney, Chicago, Illinois, United States Secret Service, Chicago, Illinois, and 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency. It and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages B3292-B3293. Congressman Rosenthal, (D) New York, extended his remarks concerning civil strife and stated "If our knowledge and understanding of the frustration, despair, and rage in our ghettos is limited, we must acknowledge a grave responsibility to give our full attention to those black Americans who can reach us with their words. Dick Gregory has shown us that he can communicate with white America. In an address before Yale College's senior class dinner last winter, he tells it very much like it is, and in exceptionally moving terms." The address was reprinted in the Washington Post on April 14, 1968. Mr. Rosenthal also inserted it in the Record. Gregory in relating the events of school integration in the South stated "You're not only being attacked by the mob, but by the police, - - -. Then you realize today is your turn to die, and you stop being so scared and you start relating with reality and you look around and you see the FBI taking pictures that will never show. RACIAL MATTER

The information below was provided on April 22, 1968 by a source who was in a position to be well informed and who has furnished reliable information in the past.

During the evening of April 9, 1968 at a private residence at 3606 N.E. Garfield Avenue, Portland, Oregon, about 50 persons gathered for a meeting of Black Student Union (BSU) members. Persons attending, all non-Caucasian, were mainly college students in the Portland area.

At 11:45 p.m. Dick Gregory, the nationally known Negro comedian, appeared at the residence. He said that he had been in Atlanta, Georgia in the day for the funeral of Martin Luther King and had flown directly to Portland for a scheduled public appearance in the evening at the University of Portland.

In addressing the BSU members, Gregory said that he does not usually talk to gatherings of Black students. Then commenting upon the death of Doctor King, he said: "This is it for this country. I am going to stick around until I see it fall then I am going to leave. I hate this country". He said that his purpose in appearing at colleges is to encourage militancy and revolution among the students. He noted that he is successful in this even among White students. Gregory stated that he is a "write-in" candidate for President of the United States and that after the election he is going to travel to 20 countries to see if they recognize him as a "President-in-exile." Persons present in the group asked Gregory questions about what they could do as students to help the cause of destruction in this country. Gregory said that he would not say anything that would cause him to be guilty of conspiracy, but he replied, "Keep on doing what you're doing". He noted that in Chicago, for example, there is a gas station situated by a freeway and that a pipe to one of the gas storage tanks could easily be broken permitting gas to flow over the freeway and when it was lit, all traffic on the freeway would be stopped. During the course of his talk, Gregory indicated he is opposed to racial violence, but it is the only way for Negroes to gain their manhood.

The above mentioned source advised that he has no further details relative to Gregory's comments during the BSU meeting.

ReSClet and letterhead memorandum (LHM) both dated 4-19-68.

Fourteen pages of referenced LHM consist of copies of newspaper articles relating to public appearances by Gregory in your territory. The practice of submitting verbatim accounts of newspaper articles in letterhead memoranda is undesirable and should be avoided in the future. In this connection, you are referred to the FBI Handbook, Part III, page 154e, which states that pertinent data appearing in newspapers or publications should be concisely summarized in letterhead memoranda. B

Referenced LHM has been classified "~~Confidential~~" (U) because of data received from [redacted] concerning Gregory's appearance at American River College, Sacramento, California, on 4-2-68. As you are aware, Gregory on this occasion appeared before approximately 1,700 persons. It is felt that the possibility of disclosing the identity of this informant on the basis of information furnished is extremely remote and such a classification is, therefore, not considered warranted. Accordingly, Bureau copies of the LHM have been declassified and both Sacramento and Chicago should take similar action. b7D

Re Springfield airtel to Bureau dated 3-7-68.

On 3-12-68, [redacted] Eastern Illinois University (EIU), Charleston, Illinois, advised that inasmuch as Charleston, Illinois, is a small, rural community, he expected no racial demonstrations or problems of any kind in connection with GREGORY's speech on 5-6-68.

On 3-12-68, [redacted] Security Officer, EIU, stated that he had no reason to believe there would be any demonstrations connected with GREGORY's speech. He advised that as a matter of course and in addition to his being in attendance himself, he is planning to have GREGORY's speech recorded. He offered to discreetly make a copy of the recording available to the FBI. He related that although there would be no display of force by police officers, his officers, city police officers, sheriff's deputies and State Police would be in an area adjacent to the campus in the event of any possibly disturbances.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY,
ALSO KNOWN AS

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 24, 1968.

On April 28, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory spoke before approximately 160 teen-agers, described as hippies, at Orchard Junior High School, Skokie, Illinois, that date. Gregory's speech was sponsored by an organization known as Politics For Peace which is a continuation of the National Conference for New Politics which was held in Chicago over the Labor Day weekend, 1967. The turnout at Gregory's speech was considered disappointing to the sponsors inasmuch as over 600 individuals were expected to be in attendance.

During the speech Gregory advised his audience that the Negroes of this country were going to "burn down this country brick by brick" if America did not wake up to its racism. Gregory was very critical of civil rights legislation which has been passed by Congress in recent years. He stated that the only good thing about this year's civil rights bill is that it was tied in with anti-riot legislation. Gregory stated, "This is good because it will force militant Negroes to stop talking, go underground and start doing something."

Gregory was also critical of "white liberals" and referred to them as obsolete. In reference to this, Gregory stated, "Liberals are the kind of people who will talk to you, they might even do something for you, but they always act as if they were doing you a big favor."

Gregory referred to Skokie, Illinois, as an anti-Negro area. He contended that Skokie was not only anti-Negro, but also populated by many crime syndicate figures. Gregory stated, "In this town you won't let a Negro live next to you, but you have syndicate hoods living all over. They are the filthiest snakes that crawl on this earth."

RACIAL MATTER

Sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

Source 1 on April 15, 1968, indicated that a rally which was being sponsored by the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) and the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) (see appendix) will be held at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California, on April 16, 1968. The purpose of this rally is to raise funds in memory of Bobby Hutton, who was recently shot and killed by members of the Oakland, California, Police Department. Hutton was a male Negro member of the BPPSD.

The PFP is a legitimate registered political party in the State of California.

Source 1 indicated that the rally would feature numerous well-known Black Nationalists and would include Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian, who is running for President of the United States.

Source 2 on April 17, 1968, related that a rally was held at the Kaleidoscope Club located at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California. This rally was sponsored by numerous Black Nationalist organizations in Los Angeles, California. There were approximately 500 persons who attended the rally which went without incident. The featured speakers included Dick Gregory and Bobby Seale, who is connected with the BPPSD.

On April 18, 1968, a third source advised that on Tuesday, April 16, 1968, at 8:00 p.m., a rally was held at the Kaleidoscope Club located at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California. The rally was sponsored by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the BPPSD, and the PFP. Between 400 to 500 persons attended this rally and of these, approximately 40 per cent were Negro.

Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian, was one of several featured speakers and he ridiculed the white race and urged that black men find white girls to love, as all he had ever seen in his life were white people making love. He criticized President Johnson, Robert Kennedy, and both major political parties in the United States.

Gregory Rally
Ventura College
Ventura, California

In the April 11, 1968, edition of the "Press Courier", a daily newspaper in Oxnard, California, an article appeared on Page 1 entitled "Gregory To Speak At Ventura College". This article indicated that Dick Gregory, a Negro civil rights leader, comedian, and author, would speak at Ventura College on April 17, 1968, in the college gymnasium. The article related that Gregory would draw an exceptionally large crowd and many groups were coming from outside the Ventura area.

On April 18, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Ventura Police Department, Ventura, California, advised that Dick Gregory was the featured speaker at a rally held at Ventura College gym, Ventura, California, on April 17, 1968. There were approximately 800 people in attendance who were mostly of the young "hippie type" and indicated there were few Negroes in the audience. Gregory criticized everything that was white and stressed how the Negroes had been suppressed by the white majority. This rally went without incident and no disturbances were reported and no arrests were made.

"Martin Luther King was our man and in the ghetto when somebody does in your man, you do something."

He criticized the United States as a sick insane country where a man who preaches nothing but good and love can be hated. He said of the civil rights bill passed by Congress after Martin Luther King's assassination, "You can take it and tear it up". "We don't want no special nothing for us. We want our rights under the same piece of paper by which we pay our taxes, the Constitution." He further related that "We'll burn this country down house by house, brick by brick, until you quit insulting us."

In his speech, Gregory criticized the war in Vietnam, President Johnson, poverty, and the white racist structure.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, and BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, Chairman, in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO TSE-TUNG of Communist China and black militant writers.

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A second source advised that in early 1967, SEALE, NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols."

BOBBY GEORGE SEALE was one of the persons arrested by the Sacramento, California Police Department on May 2, 1967, when members of the BPPSD invaded the California State Legislative Assembly in Sacramento while in session, carrying loaded guns to protest restrictions on the carrying of guns.

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The first source advised that the headquarters office of the BPPSD at 5624 Grove Street, Oakland, California, is closed and that no membership meetings have been held since August, 1967.

The November 4, 1967, issue of "The Sun Reporter," a San Francisco, California Negro community newspaper, states that a HUEY PERCY NEWTON defense fund has been established and that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) through the national offices have pledged their complete and continuous support to the defense of HUEY PERCY NEWTON.

"Dick" Gregory, famed comedian and civil rights leader will speak tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Freeborn Hall. Gregory is sponsored by Student Forums. Gregory has been mentioned as a write-in candidate for President of the United States. He has come into the news recently for his hunger strikes against the war in Vietnam. Gregory has been arrested many times for his civil rights activities.

Gregory is a man with a message... a message of freedom and equality not only for the Negro but the entire human race. He has spent more time in southern jails, marched in more demonstrations, prevented more racial violence and worked harder for the rights of the Negro than any other entertainer in America. His autobiography, "Nigger" has become a best seller and his new book "Sermons" for Doubleday, looks to be an even bigger success.

But more than a commentator, more than an author, more than a comedian, he is a soldier in a war against hate and bigotry. His weapons include a complete personal dedication of his talent and a razor sharp sense of humor. His home is in five suitcases, a garment bag and a tape recorder. He lives en route, stopping to play countless benefits, deliver church sermons, lobby in Washington and speak at colleges and universities all over the country. Named as the man most hated by the Ku Klux Klan, he quips, "They're so out of style, I think they're the only people in the country who aren't using colored sheets." A dynamic and communicative man, his message is vital to the fight for equality in this country and his experience is first-hand.

Dick Gregory, in addition to being the great leader in the Negro's fight for equality is a top star of television, stage and motion pictures. He has toured the continent, become an international leader, starred on Broadway and on the major television shows, and made a spectacular motion picture debut in "Sweet Love, Bitter."

Gregory Places Society's Hopes In Hands Of Young During UCD Speech

DAVIS — Dick Gregory, civil rights leader, presidential candidate, author and comedian, last night placed the hopes of the Negro people and American society in the hands of the college student.

Gregory, who recently halted a 47-day fast in opposition to the war in Vietnam, was the guest of Student Forums on the Davis campus of the University of California.

"This generation of college youth," the 36-year-old entertainer remarked, "is the greatest in history, for you are willing to march, to demonstrate and to oppose the status quo for equality and right."

Cautions Youth

He cautioned youth to beware of "slick politicians and hackneyed explanations" for major events.

"The assassination of Martin Luther King," he stressed, "must be understood for what it is . . . the killing of an American by an American, not as King, a Negro, having been killed by a racist cracker."

"You young people feel the pain of the death of King," he remarked, "while the older generations feel the shame."

Tired Of Insults

Black people are tired of being insulted, Gregory continued, and of having to take a secondary position in society.

"Why is it?" he asked, "that a German who killed my father in World War II, making me fatherless for 26 years and my mother a widow, can come to America in 1968 and buy a home us black people cannot own?"

The black people were offended when President Johnson told King's widow he could not attend the funeral because he was too busy with a meeting with Gen. Westmoreland.

"Can this be right," he asked, "that a man with so much love in his heart, who felt so strongly toward equality and right, can be gunned down in the streets by hate, and then to be ignored for a meeting with a man of war as is Westmoreland?"

Gregory called society "sick" if it thinks a Negro soldier can be trained to kill a Viet Cong sniper at 500 yards, a man he does not know, "than return to his Negro community and not fight to liberate his mammy."

"The real problems in the world are in America," Gregory charged. "One has only to go 500 miles in any direction to find them."

He predicted that if any country in the world suffered from the social ills that exist in the United States, "We would surely be able to solve them."

Applause from more than 2,500 persons, capped with a standing ovation, greeted Gregory when he concluded, "America was mighty when she was right!"

Gregory wit lashes at politicians, injustices

By Jan Ritter

As a UCD audience convulsed with laughter, comedian Dick Gregory proved in Davis last night he's the world's funniest "36 year old non-violent vegetarian nigger."

Slim-built and slightly bearded, Gregory is a civil rights riot — pun intended — who fights his cause with a rambling and brilliant wit, instead of a gas bomb.

Yet, he can slash through gales of belly laughs, and seriously comment on the power of young people, and the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Gregory is campaigning for the presidency as a write in candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party. Speaking at the UCD sponsored student forum, he apologized for being out of campaign buttons but distributed hundreds of chartruese and orange bumper stickers. An estimated 3,500 persons were on hand for the talk.

"If elected president, the first thing I would do is paint the White House black, and the second thing would be to bring our boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ over there with nothing but barbecue sauce," said the candidate.

Gregory considers himself a statesman, as opposed to a politician.

"If you want a politician then vote for LBJ," said Gregory. He added his opinion of politicians saying 98 per cent are lowest only to the American crime syndicate.

Gregory urged his audience not to let "those slick politicians fool you ... LBJ the Hawk, Sen. Eugene McCarthy the Dove and Sen. Robert Kennedy the Chicken."

President Lyndon Johnson, often the basis for Gregory's jokes, was referred to as the "slickest thing walking this earth since Julius Caesar."

Another politician getting jabs from Gregory was California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"I dig Reagan. Are you aware that Reagan spelled backwards is nagaer," he chided.

"If Bobby Baker had been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of LBJ, both would be in jail today," said Gregory.

On the same vein, Gregory spoke of Cassius Clay former world boxing champion who lost his title because he refused induction in the Selective Service system. He called Clay, who has taken the name Mohammed Ali as a member of the Black Muslims, the "only man I know who got a divorce because his wife's dresses were too short."

"Clay lost his championship title, yet you allowed Jimmy Hoffa to remain teamster president while he was in jail appealing his case," Gregory said.

The Negro comedian, who said he spends 93 per cent of his time speaking at colleges and universities, made reference to the Negro boycott of the summer Olympics in Mexico City. He said he opposed the boycott at this stage . . . "they should have worked out and gone to Mexico city first."

Gregory said he was close to sports and was the third fastest trackman among the small colleges in 1954.

"I guess its the racism in me," he quipped.

Dressed in green work overalls, pink shirt and blue work jacket with bead pendant around his neck, Gregory explained he has extended his fast, which was supposed to end on Easter Sunday, to election day November 5. Besides his diet of liquids, the peace candidate said he will wear only work clothes, he will not shave or get a haircut nor will he buy a new car or purchase a pack of cigarettes until the war in Vietnam is ended.

"If you young people agree with me, just stop smoking and send an empty cigarette package to the manufacturer with a short note saying you will not buy, and will encourage your friends not to buy, any more cigarettes until the war has ended. Then watch and see how much power you young people have," he said.

"Speaking of the power of young people in today's society, Gregory attributed it to making "that man (LBJ) quit his job."

Gregory said he has much concern for the burden of the young folk today.

"I wish you young people could make America as afraid of injustices as she is of communism . . . You youngsters must understand this country is sick. Black folks are saying we want you (white people) to stop playing games with us.

"We (black people) are trying to say to this country, just stop insulting us . . . White people have rights under the constitution of the United States but black people have rights under civil rights legislation. That's the same as segregation," he exclaimed.

Gregory made reference to the civil rights bill which President Johnson signed last week saying it only covers 80 per cent of open housing and does not come into full affect until 1970.

"If I were draft age then I would call my draft board right now and tell them you can't have me until 1970, and then you can only have 80 per cent," he said.

He said the same bill provides life in the penitentiary for killing a civil rights worker "and everyone here knows that, just means seven years in jail."

Gregory said the one good thing in the measure is the anti-riot clause. "All you cats who were talking about doing something after Dr. King's death are going to have to shut up now or go to jail."

"You young folks always will feel the pain of Dr. King's murder. Older Americans will feel the shame," Gregory said.

"This is a strange country with a strange atmosphere where men of peace can be hated and shot down in the streets while men of war like Gen. William Westmoreland are loved."

Gregory said it was hard to explain reaction in the black ghettos after King's assassination because "black people are ignorant and close to nature and black and whites don't think alike."

"This country hasn't woke up yet. Everyone talks about Dr. King's non-violence but nobody wants to talk about his purpose which was equal justice. This is the same purpose the black militants have, the same purpose of H. Rap Brown and Stokley Carmichael, only their approach is different. Each one has his own method of trying to get equal justice," explained Gregory.

"Black soldiers enlist in the military five times more frequently than whites. This shows blacks love to kill for freedom... After you train this black cat to kill and use napalm then you expect him to come home and not kill you for the same type of freedom."

Gregory spoke of the inequities of our selective service system. He said it rejected men who had killed previously because the government preferred to train men how to kill, in other words the government does not want experienced men.

On the lighter side, Gregory talked about the recent medical advances in transplants.

"One thing I don't want is for white people to forget that black people also need spare parts. However, what I don't want to see is a white cat with a black foot.

On the heart transplants... "there's nothing wrong with white folks that a change of heart wouldn't help."

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Dick Gregory, Negro entertainer, and civil rights activist, in a press conference on April 15, 1968, advised he was cancelling all previous arrangements to demonstrate against the Democratic National Convention scheduled for late August, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois.

Gregory stated that in view of the disturbances and violence which occurred in Chicago following the murder of Martin Luther King, he did not believe nonviolent marches could be held in Chicago. He also stated that as a citizen he did not want to be responsible for the possible death of anyone who might participate in such demonstrations.

An article in the "Chicago Tribune," a major Chicago Newspaper, dated April 16, 1968, cites that Dick Gregory called off plans for a civil rights protest here this summer and warned Negroes to "put aside emotionalism" arising from the death of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Continuing, Gregory said at his press conference which was held in the Knickerbocker Hotel "a peace march in the wake of frustration of Doctor King's death could easily top off major rioting; I cannot be responsible for leading upset Negroes and whites thru this city."

Gregory originally notified Mayor Daley and the City Council that he was going to stage daily marches of 12 hours each beginning in May in protest against holding the Democratic Party's National Convention in Chicago, August 26, 1968. The marches were to be an effort to switch the convention to another city and "embarrass Chicago into improving housing and economic conditions for Negroes."

Gregory said "but the attitude of the Negro community must change before we can resume peaceful nonviolence in the name of human rights."

Gregory emphasized that white politicians must recognize the "despair of ghetto Negroes following the death of King."

"While little has been done to improve conditions here, it must be conceded" Gregory said "the attitude of police and fire departments has broadened considerably since the peak period of civil rights protests 18 months ago."

The article cited that Gregory considered the passage of the Federal open housing bill a "step in the right direction" which should be supplemented by renewed interest and economic assistance from the white business community. "Taking proper steps at the proper time can do much to ease tensions and eliminate hostilities."

He said he notified numerous civil rights organizations across the country to "stay away from Chicago this summer and work rationally, not emotionally, for civil rights." He said that only a tightly controlled well-organized group could handle a peace march here without bloodshed.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

He said he would march peacefully in organized protests planned here by the Southern Christian Leadership conference "but I cannot in good conscience lead them." Gregory also said "I used to demonstrate emotionally and it worked but I am afraid of that now."

Gregory described his chances for election as a write-in candidate for president as "about equal to the chances for becoming Pope."

Gregory indicated that he would continue campaigning and urging white leaders to pursue "statesmanlike-unpolitical" policies towards minorities. He will continue an all-liquid diet begun last November in protest against the war in Viet Nam until the November elections.

He said "My purpose is to demonstrate the kind of dedication and self-sacrifice needed to preserve our democracy."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
also known as
Dick Gregory

On May 7, 1968, RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY spoke at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, in conjunction with the Student Convocation Lecture Series - 1968.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that GREGORY spoke in the college gymnasium and that 700 - 800 people attended. The source advised that there were between 25 - 50 Negroes present and that there were few, if any, outsiders present.

Source advised there was no disorder of any type and the speech was humorous, but lacking in depth. The general text was based on the effect college students can have on the economy in their prospective influence as leaders. GREGORY stated students could best demonstrate against the war in Vietnam, not by carrying signs, but by economic effects such as (1) stop smoking so taxes will not go to the Government; (2) stop buying clothes; (3) stop buying new cars; (4) don't buy products of the Dow Chemical Company; and (5) stop shaving.

GREGORY made no threats and did not encourage rioting, but said that July and August is the riot season. GREGORY's statement was not militant as indicated when he stated that he had planned to be in Chicago for the National Convention, but now has changed his plans. GREGORY stated that if the U. S. would live by the Constitution

Chief of Police, HAROLD TINDER, Monmouth Police Department, Monmouth, Illinois, advised there was no problem in conjunction with GREGORY's speech, and that he had his entire Department available in the event of any problem.

TINDER advised that officers were utilized to direct traffic and this was the extent of their utilization.

U. S. Secret Service and 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois, advised of above information.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
ALSO KNOWN AS
DICK GREGORY
SPEECH ON MAY 6, 1968
CHARLESTON, ILLINOIS

✓ [redacted] Security Officer, Eastern Illinois University (EIU), Charleston, Illinois, advised on May 7, 1968, that Gregory spoke on the subject of civil rights - black power, from 8:10 P.M. till 10:00 P.M. on May 6, 1968, to an audience of about 2200 students and residents of the local community in the Lantz Gymnasium on the EIU Campus.

b7C

Prior to Gregory's speech; Dr. Quincy V. Doundna, President of EIU, announced to the audience that ~~there had been an anonymous phone call received that evening, concerning a bomb in the building.~~ Doundna expressed his disbelief that a bomb was planted and stated he was going to stay and hear the speech. The event continued without further incident.

In his speech, Gregory referred to himself as a "36 year old Uncle Tom Nigger". In commenting on the war in Viet Nam, Gregory stated "any black cat who goes to war for America got to be crazy to free some foreign people when their mommy and papa haven't yet been liberated". He expressed opposition to the new civil rights legislation stating that the Civil Rights Bill was "good only for 80% and not until 1970".

After the speech, Gregory informally spoke to a small group of students, mostly colored, in the lounge of the Lantz Gymnasium and left Charleston, Illinois, about 12:05 A.M. There were no racial demonstrations of any kind.

The April 30, 1968, issue of "Northern Iowan," student newspaper at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI), Cedar Falls, Iowa, carried an article on page five, stating Dick Gregory is scheduled to speak in the gymnasium on Friday, May 3, 1968. The article describes Gregory as "the man most hated by the Ku Klux Klan," and said he would be a speaker on the Controversial Speakers Program of UNI.

On May 6, 1968, [redacted] Security Office, UNI, stated he had been with Dick Gregory at the Controversial Speakers Program on May 3, 1968. He said he would estimate about 4,500 to 5,000 persons attended Gregory's talk, and said no incidents occurred, nor was there any problem arising from Gregory's remarks or presence at UNI.

He said a number of Negro residents from Waterloo, Iowa, located adjacent to Cedar Falls, Iowa, had attended the talk in the gymnasium, which was held from about 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, May 3, 1968. He said that Waterloo Negroes had invited Gregory to attend a luncheon and give a short talk in Waterloo, and tried to make arrangements with Gregory for this second appearance before Gregory arrived in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Gregory reportedly declined to make a second appearance at Waterloo, unless the group wished to pay him $1,000.00 for that appearance and talk.

[redacted] said Gregory arrived in Cedar Falls, Iowa, by automobile, and is believed to have been driven from Mankato, Minnesota, to Iowa. He left the Cedar Falls - Waterloo area on May 3, 1968, in mid-afternoon by Ozark Air Lines en route to Chicago, Illinois, and his home.

b7C

[redacted] stated that the "Northern Iowan" newspaper at UNI, issue of May 7, 1968, carried a long article on Gregory's comments on May 3, 1968. He said that the newspaper article is an accurate summary of Gregory's comments during his talk at UNI.

Over 5,000 Hear Gregory Criticize LBJ, Rights Bill

by IOWAN Staff Writer

More than 5,000 persons Friday jammed the inside, corridors and area in front of the Men's Gym where speakers had been set up to hear the comedian and civil rights leader Dick Gregory criticize the new Civil Rights Bill, LBJ and American white society in general.

The over-capacity crowd consisted primarily of UNI students and faculty with a number of people from the Waterloo-Cedar Falls community including a large delegation from Waterloo's East High, a predominately Negro school.

Prior to Gregory's speech, Dr. Edward Thorne, head of the speech department and a member of the Controversial Speakers Committee, told the audience that committee chairman Jim Heller would be absent from the talk because he was being detained by the Armed Forces Induction Center in Des Moines "because he is a member of the Controversial Speakers Committee." (See last story).

DWIGHT BACKMAN, Jr., in speech, introduced Gregory as his "black beautiful brother" and said that a 10-minute conversation with Gregory would end the racial strife in this country.

The bearded Gregory had just finished a 47-day fast in protest of the Vietnam war. In his two-hour talk interspersed with humor to emphasize his points, Gregory told the audience other ways in which he protested included wearing only work clothes, in order to stifle the clothing industry; not smoking (saying taxes from cigarettes go for buying weapons and bombs); refusing to be shaved or get a haircut, thus rattling the barbers of the country; and refusing to buy many other American products.

An attache case on the stage next to Gregory's chair carried a sticker proclaiming "Dick Gregory For President." Gregory has announced himself as an independent candidate for the presidency.

He TOLD THE audience a common question he had encountered in his lecturing was "What would be the first thing you would do if you were elected president?" He simply said that he would "paint the White House black" and then "bring the soldiers back home from Vietnam after sending LBJ over there with a barbeque grill."

In a most serious manner he told the audience that the present educational system is "anemic" whites as well as blacks. The corruption of the system has gotten to the black people, but now with such things as the draft law prohibiting graduate deferments, it is getting white students, too, he said.

"THE MAJOR problems confronting Americans today can only be solved by you, the young people," Gregory told students.

The older generation made the problems and then passed the burden to the younger generation for their sins."

"Moral pollution is the country's greatest problem and young people must take responsibility for it. You must take responsibility for the future of this country," Gregory told the students.

"I hope you will be strong young men and women, student leaders, and change the times."

He said the major problem of America's future is "the spending of 80 billion dollars, but creating an atmosphere of fear by freezing the national group in this country so black people trust the whites."

The problems could be solved "if politicians would obey their oaths of office and uphold the Constitution," Gregory pointed out.

Concerning the new Civil Rights Bill, he explained that he felt it was a bit unfair in idea. "The whites get judged under the Constitution while blacks have to be judged under Civil Rights legislation."

"We don't want the Civil Rights bill—we want civil rights under the same sheet of paper we pay our taxes—under the same one black boys are drafted," Gregory said.

"THE CIVIL Rights Bill is just a new form of segregation. We can't wait a graded segregation. We're fighting for liberation and an end to segregation. That's what we're going to get."

Gregory went on to say, "I think the black cat is insane to go to war, after the Civil Rights Bill was passed I would have to call the War Department and say, 'Don't call me 'til 1970 and then call only 80 percent of me.'"

Gregory refers to similar stipulations in the recently passed bill.

TOUCHING BRIEFLY on the area of housing, Gregory asked, "Why should a Negro go to Vietnam to free the Vietnamese from tyranny and give them a new home when back home he himself won't be able to get a home except on some long, complicated installment plan?"

Gregory also expressed the opinion that he felt the anti-riot legislation in the bill to be "ridiculous" since all it accomplishes is to prohibit anyone from talking about rioting.

"The way to do it now," he said, "is not to talk about it, but just go out and do it."

He said the anti-riot sections do not eliminate persons who incite riots but merely push them underground, and indicated that there persons are much more dangerous underground.

"WHITE KIDS HAVE been going to Fort Lauderdale, tearing up the town every year for ten years. Better not try it now," he said, pointing out that the anti-riot bill now covered such things.

Gregory expressed the feeling that "America is a country prone to killing." He cited the assassination of Martin Luther King as "an American killed by an American," and told students particularly that what happened to Dr. King affected them more than it did the older generation.

"You feel the pain," he said. "Older folks only feel shame."

Gregory criticized the current government and administration under Lyndon Johnson severely throughout his speech.

"IF OUR DEMOCRACY is as good as they tell us it is, why are we running all over the world trying to force it down people's throats with guns? If we make it work right, they'll steal it from us."

Gregory admitted being non-violent and made a humorous apology for Negro reaction and behavior after the assassination of Dr. King.

"They know the accepted riot season is July to August," he said.

Gregory also mentioned the high re-enlistment rate in the Armed Forces among Negroes and deplored the fact that the government was teaching them to kill.

"YOU BETTER teach the police—they need a lot more training. It is one thing to deal with a 13-year-old throwing fire bombs at a tank and quite another to deal with a trained killer who comes back from Vietnam, an expert sniper at 500 yards."

Gregory said that Dr. King did not die for non-violence as most news media have said he did.

"He died for equal justice for all," Gregory said. "Non-violence was only his method."

GREGORY TOLD the audience that the Negro is "tired of playing games."

"Crime in the streets, which all the politicians say they are going to eliminate, actually refers to the Negro."

"Why not knock out the white crime syndicate. That would be an accomplishment!"

The way things are today, Gregory said, "I would just as soon live under a dictatorship with whites and blacks both together underground singing 'We Shall Overcome.'"

"Twenty or thirty years ago the Negro had a hungry stomach and didn't want to learn except how to fill himself. Today he has a hungry mind and wants to get his share of knowledge."

GREGORY CONCLUDED by saying that the mistake arose when everyone was so busy learning how to make a living, that they forgot to find out how to live.

The former nightclub and television entertainer was the fourth person to appear in this year's Controversial Speakers Series.

The information herein supplements that contained in the memorandum under this caption dated April 25, 1968, at Seattle.

On May 14, 1968, [REDACTED], Assistant Thurston County Prosecutor, Olympia, Washington, advised that GREGORY's attorney has filed a petition for a rehearing by the Washington State Supreme Court of the sentence outstanding against subject which the Supreme Court earlier had affirmed and which was scheduled to begin on May 20, 1968. [REDACTED] said this action will delay the start of subject's sentence until action on the new petition is taken by the Supreme Court. No tentative date for this has as yet been set.

An article titled "Black Power Leaders May Visit for GREGORY Sit-In," in the May 10, 1968, issue of "The Bremerton Sun," a daily newspaper of general circulation published at Bremerton, Washington, quoted JACK TANNER, identified as subject's attorney, as stating:

"Black Power advocates H. RAP BROWN and STOKELY CARMICHAEL and the Rev. RALPH ABERNATHY just may show up in Washington State in a protest demonstration against the jailing of Negro DICK GREGORY.

"He knows them all and I wouldn't be surprised if they weren't included in demonstrations that are being planned," GREGORY's lawyer, JACK TANNER of Tacoma, said here yesterday....

"TANNER has petitioned for a rehearing of the case but did not express much hope it would be granted....

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"In the meantime demonstrations are planned, TANNER said, by members of the Peace and Freedom movement, of which GREGORY is to be the presidential candidate this year.

"I understand they have already sent telegrams around the country urging a boycott of Washington products, apples and Rainier and Olympia Beer, he said.

"The Peace and Freedom movement is no small thing, he said. There are 106,000 registered members in California alone.

"Delegations are going to come up and help him serve time, stay with in sympathy, TANNER said.

"And knowing how GREGORY's friends BROWN, CARMICHAEL and the Rev. Mr. ABERNATHY operate, he said, he expects them to sit-in.

"As for the case, it does not make any sense to him GREGORY could be convicted of violation of fishing laws when he contends that any fish he handled were dead. They were cold storage fish, so how could somebody be convicted of catching a dead fish?"

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on May 13, 1968 Richard Gregory would speak at the Student Center, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota on the night of May 13, 1968 at 8:00 p.m.

This source advised on May 14, 1968 that he attended the talk by Gregory which was attended by an estimated 1400 to 1500 people, mostly students at the University of North Dakota. The audience consisted predominantly of white students. There were no incidents as a result of the speech. He advised that an account of the speech in the Grand Forks Herald, a daily newspaper published at Grand Forks, North Dakota, summed up the speech by Gregory. Source stated that Gregory remained in Grand Forks overnight and left via Northwest Airlines at approximately 7:00 a.m. May 14, 1968. It is noted a Northwest Orient Airlines flight schedule shows they have a plane leaving Grand Forks, North Dakota at 7:25 a.m. for Fargo, North Dakota and Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The article appearing in the Grand Forks Herald in its issue of May 14, 1968, is as follows:

"Gregory Hits N.D. Politicians

"Negro comedian and civil rights worker Dick Gregory Monday night blasted the actions of some North Dakota politicians who have attempted to keep American Communist Party boss Gus Hall from speaking at the University of North Dakota.

"Gregory addressed an overflow crowd of 1,400 in the University Center ballroom and almost immediately became involved in the statewide controversy concerning Hall and the question of his scheduled speaking engagement.

"Talks on Freedom

"Gregory talked about freedom of expression in the U.S. Constitution.

"'You kids are getting it first hand here,' he said. 'You tell those old fools (some state politicians) that they better do what the Constitution says. Even a communist can speak here,' Gregory said.

"'Why do we have to go around shoving democracy down people's throats?'

"He talked about the plight of the Indian in America and the Indian in North Dakota, pointing out that the highest suicide rate in the nation among the young occurs on Indian reservations. So does the highest rate of tuberculosis, he added.

"Given Standing Ovation

"'If the Indians could upset the politicians as much as Gus Hall did, the Indians would be in good shape,' shouted Gregory. A standing ovation followed.

"Gregory estimated that he spends 98 per cent of his time on college campuses.

"'If we solve the great problems in our country,' he said 'we'll solve them through you. You must solve problems you didn't even create . . . they won't be here when you leave.'

"Says He's Non-violent

"Gregory called the civil rights bill just part of the game 'white America' has been playing with the Negro for 400 years, and 'now we are going to stop playing this game,' he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"He asked the audience why they thought Negroes should be non-violent.

"'I'm non-violent,' he said, 'but I'd be out of my mind to go around preaching it in a country where Matt Dillon comes into the room every week.'

"Some of his other comments were:

"--'The biggest breakthrough in the civil rights was in Texas last year. We got our first colored hurricane - Beulah.'

"--'The only heart transplant now working is a black heart. . .but we don't want it to work too good. The last thing we want is you white folks thinkin' we're going to be your spare parts.'

"--'The first thing I would do if elected president would be to bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ with nothing but his barbecue gun. And I'd have Eartha Kitt call him every morning saying 'We're working on peace feelers, baby.'"

"--'If the problems here are not solved in three years, America will not stand.'

"--'We don't want you to do a damn thing but get out of the way of that United States Constitution. We don't want integration, we want liberation.'

"--'Progress is Americans getting killed by Americans. I'd much rather see American cities go up in flames than bomb cities around the world . . .maybe then they'd wake up.'

"--'We never draft murderers into going to Vietnam. You've got to be a good Christian to make the best killer.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"--'When we see that the Constitution works right, that's the day we can bring our guns home.'

"--LBJ is the biggest tyrant to walk the face of the earth since Julius Caesar.'

"--'Those black athletes should have qualified for the Olympic team, gone to Mexico City and then dropped the baton.'

"--'First you have to create an atmosphere for Negroes to be able to live and cut all those cats loose. If you don't do that, you can take that $80 billion appropriation and buy the biggest guns you can find cause you're going to need them'".

Dick Gregory, comedian and military leader, will speak from 8 to 9 p.m., February 20 in the Grand Ballroom. His speech during the first half hour will be a comedy reflection the racial situation. The second half hour will be more serious, as Mr. Gregory will speak on advocating black power.

At Yale University in a speech similar to the one he plans to give at the University, Mr. Gregory received a standing ovation.

After appearing at the University of Florida at Gainesville, a student said, "Dick Gregory was good. I was expecially impressed with his cordiality towards us."

At Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, students said, "Dick Gregory is an outstanding performer. The speech was both interesting and informative and was ended with a standing ovation. Every aspect of his visit was enjoyable. It was a pleasure to have him visit our campus."

Dick Gregory is a commentator, an author and a comedian. In addition to being a leader in the Negro fight for equality, he has appeared on the stage, on television and in motion pictures. He has made national as well as international tours, and is presently touring the country visiting college campuses.

He advised that the program went quietly with no incidents.

On February 23, 1968, Donald Brechler, Chief of Police, Defiance, Ohio, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory spoke before a small almost all-white audience at Defiance College on the evening of February 21, 1968. He stated that Gregory made jokes about the Vietnam war, the selective service system and government operations in general, but gave no serious discussions about black power. Chief Brechler stated there were no incidents of any nature connected with the visit of Gregory.

On March 27, 1968, [redacted] University of Toledo, Toledo, Ohio, advised that Richard Gregory spoke there before an audience of approximately 3000 persons, mostly students the night of March 26, 1968, without incident.

The following article appeared in "The Times", Toledo Ohio daily newspaper on March 27, 1968:

Negro comedian Dick Gregory, sporting a beard and a blue denim work jacket, urged University of Toledo students Tuesday night to stop smoking and buying new cars in an effort to halt the Vietnam war.

"By doing this you will avoid payment of taxes" which finance the conflict, Gregory told a student group.

Gregory, in the 28th day of a 40-day fast to protest the war, also said the Government is being embarrassed by students who are protesting inadequate draft laws.

He said the recent lifting of deferments for some graduate students and other young persons was proof of this.

"You young white kids are so honest and embarrassing to the country that they are fixing to give you all to the Viet Cong," he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

He added that the fate of the country rests in the hands of today's youth.

"Youth can save this country if it hasn't already gone beyond the point of no return morally," he concluded.

On March 27, 1968, a Confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that several members of the Peace Action Council of Toledo a local group engaged in opposing the war in Vietnam had planned to hold a small reception for Gregory following his appearance at the University of Toledo, but their plans failed to materialize and the reception was never held. ~~(S)~~ (U)

On May 6, 1968

[redacted] Ohio, a [redacted] Ohio, advised that he was present on the night of May 4, 1968, at Seiberling Gymnasium on the Heidelberg Campus when Richard C. Gregory, a Negro comedian was the principle speaker before approximately 300 students and local citizens. Also appearing with Gregory was the Mitchell Negro Trio, a vocal group. Re Bureau letter to Chicago dated 4/23/68 instructing Chicago to develop counterintelligence measures to neutralize GREGORY noting he has traveled all over the country preaching black nationalist extremism, hatred and violence.

Concerning GREGORY it may be noted that an article appeared in the Tuesday, 5/21/68 edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times", newspaper of general circulation in Chicago, in "Kap's Column" (IRV KUPCINET, Chicago newspaper columnist and TV personality), which states "Dick Gregory calls a temporary halt to his write-in campaign for President next week when he reports to the state of Washington to serve that 90-day sentence for civil disobedience".

It is also noted that the 5/14/68 edition of the "Chicago Daily News", also a daily newspaper of general circulation, reported the Illinois Appellate Court upheld a 1966 conviction of comedian GREGORY on charges of battery and resisting a police officer during a 1965 civil rights demonstration. GREGORY in his appeal charged he was denied a fair trial because of a "systematic exclusion of Negroes from the jury". The Appellate Court in ruling on his appeal, said GREGORY failed to prove the charges.

GREGORY had been fined $200 for each of 2 counts of battery and $500 on each of 2 counts of resisting arrest and was ordered to serve 5 months in the County Jail. 100-440423

GREGORY quoted passages from history books and the Bible to justify the actions of his black brothers today. He was not recruiting and his remarks, though shaded with bitterness, were not inflammatory. GREGORY severely criticized President JOHNSON and indicated that the United States was without a leader at this time. GREGORY attempted to get the message across to the students that there is a problem and although they did not create the problem, they will have to be the ones to solve it. Gregory's Comments After Show Reveal Bizarre Political Views

by Brent Carson

tary will then take power. In response to Dick Gregory's performance, many Heidelberg students have, at least temporarily, found a new hero with whom they can identify. Mr. Gregory's flashy lapel buttons are even rivaling the Senator McCarthy buttons in popularity. Before allowing ourselves to be carried away in the "Gregory dictator for President" movement, perhaps we should have a closer examination of his beliefs. Following the program Mr. Gregory, the Mitchell Trio, and a small group of students were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colbert. At that time "Candidate" Gregory gave some enlightening projections of what the future will hold for our country. First, he stated that the Democratic Convention will be bombed on the second day of its meeting this summer. Mr. Gregory also prophesied that there will never be another Presidential election. He believes that on the next election day, riots will break out across the nation (including Tiffin), and stop people from going to the polls. According to his predictions, the military will then take power. Through this chain of events Mr. Gregory believes that the nation's twenty richest families will exert the pressure needed to put himself in as President of the United States. As President, Mr. Gregory said that he would be the closest thing this nation has had to a dictator. For example, since Mr. Gregory is a vegetarian, the whole country would have to give up eating meat. On the subject of Civil Rights, Mr. Gregory believes that any white person who would not sell his house to a Negro should be shot. For those students wearing the "Gregory for President" badges as a joke—the joke has lost its humor. In regards to those people who are wearing the badges in a serious vein—I feel that Mr. Gregory's statements portray his illogical thinking. Dick Gregory ended his performance by praising our generation. I, too, praise our generation's actions and will continue to praise them so long as we remain intelligent enough to refute the illogic of such men as Dick Gregory.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, Also Known As

A source advised on May 27, 1968 that RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY appeared at a regularly scheduled student assembly program held at Murphy Auditorium, Morgan State College (MSC), Baltimore, Maryland on May 16, 1968. The Cultural Arts Council was the sponsoring organization and about 700 students were in attendance.

GREGORY is a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has been arrested on numerous occasions relative to his civil rights activities.

The source advised that GREGORY was the main speaker at the regularly scheduled assembly program. GREGORY's speech was along his usual pattern, giving emphasis on white racism in America. He did not talk on any one subject but used profanity throughout the program. After the regularly scheduled assembly, a smaller group of about 50 to 75 students assembled in the Student Union Building where GREGORY answered questions. GREGORY left the MSC Campus about 5:30 P.M. No incidents were reported.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
also known as
Dick Gregory
Speech at Eastern Illinois University
Charleston, Illinois
May 6, 1968

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided a tape recording of captioned speech. The following excerpts and summary are set forth after a review of this tape by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

The first 20 - 25 minutes of GREGORY's speech was purely humorous in nature and dealt only with joke telling and the like.

As the speech progressed, GREGORY stated that he likes the anti-riot portion of the new Civil Rights Bill because "all you radical whites and militant blacks are going to have to keep your damn mouths shut now and just go on and do what you have to do, because if you talk about it any more you can get busted under that new anti-riot section. I'm damn sick and tired of hearing you all talk about it anyway, just go on and do it." (applause) GREGORY said this type legislation would "force people under ground." He went on, "everytime a nigger rises up and says what he's going to do, the FBI can tap his phone." GREGORY further stated this portion of the new Civil Rights Bill is unconstitutional but he hopes no one will attack it.

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY went on to say America is heading for a dictatorship, stating that the possibility exists that the November, 1968, elections will be thrown out because of riots in major cities. This he said would lead to a military take-over. He stated further, "I wouldn't mind living under dictatorship. I'd love it, because then me and the white folks would all be going underground singing 'We Shall Overcome' and 'What We Going To Do With All Them Soldiers.'" GREGORY made the statement, "I am non-violent" and said that America is sending black boys into the Army to learn how to be killers and some day "they'll come back to the United States and we'll regret it." GREGORY went on to say America is more concerned with "black crime in the streets" than it is with the crime syndicate. He said further that when Washington, D. C. tells Saigon to clean up its corruption, Saigon should say, "When you clean up Chicago, we'll clean up Saigon."

GREGORY described President Lyndon B. Johnson as "probably the slickist tyrant that has walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar." He said, "Had Bobby Baker been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of L.B.J. they'd both (Powell and Baker) be in jail tonight."

GREGORY went on to cover such topics as the 1968 Summer Olympics, American history, white christianity, lowering the voting age, education, income taxes and discrimination in housing. Pertaining to the housing issue he said, "I was 10 years old then and had a German kill my Daddy in '42. I am 36 years old tonight, Baby. How would you talk, if that same German that killed your Daddy in 1942 can come to your Daddy's country and live in a neighborhood you couldn't live in. Baby, we'll burn this damn country down to the ground house by house and brick by brick." (applause)

GREGORY further stated, "The biggest threat to communism is for a democratic society to make our constitution work right Baby, that's all. You don't need no tanks to wipe out communism."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY went on to talk about what changes the younger generation could make in American society and advocated, among other things, economic boycotts. Specifically, he advised, "Please understand your power; and for you new young voters with this new political year coming up please don't get caught in the same trick we (GREGORY's generation) got caught in." He continued, "We need statesmen with guts, not politicians with money." Referring again to the younger generation, he said, "You will solve the problems in the next three years, or the problems will solve you."

Concerning the problems that face the country today, GREGORY asked, "Can America, for a few minutes, quit playing games with us?" Also in his position as a presidential candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party, GREGORY listed his priorities as to what he would do if elected and the first would be to "Paint the White House black," and secondly, "Bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send L.B.J. with nothing but a barbecue gun." Further, concerning the war, GREGORY stated, "Any black cat that goes to war for America has got to be insane." He asserted that, "It would be a cold day in Hell before white Americans would go to Vietnam and fight, only to come home and live under the Civil Rights Bill." He also stated that the Declaration of Independence should contain a statement, "For Whites Only."

He continued by saying, "I think I see progress myself. Dr. Martin Luther King got killed in America by an American, I'd rather see America tear up America than tear up a foreign country. I see progress because maybe this will wake us up."

GREGORY's speech concluded with a few words concerning the books he has authored.

On April 27, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an organization at Marshall University, Huntington, W. Va., known as IMPACT, scheduled a series of speakers for the week of April 24 through 27, 1968. The source stated that the Co-ordinator for IMPACT is [redacted] a Marshall University Student, and the Honorary Chairman of IMPACT is Doctor Stewart H. Smith, President of Marshall University. The source stated that five speakers were scheduled to speak with the keynote speaker on April 24, 1968, being Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. W. Va.

The source stated that two speakers were scheduled to speak on April 27, 1968, with the first speaker on that date being Allen Ginsberg, whose topic is to be "Free Expression in America: Fact or Fiction," and the second speaker on April 27, 1968, is to be Dick Gregory, whose topic is to be "Black Power: Revolution or Evolution."

On April 29, 1968, the source advised that Allen Ginsberg and Dick Gregory appeared as scheduled on April 27, 1968, with an estimated audience of between 600 to 700 persons. The source stated that these two speeches were recorded on a tape recorder. The source stated that portions of the tape recording are somewhat unintelligible due to Dick Gregory moving away from his speaker's microphone, voice inflection, and outside crowd noises.

On May 20, 1968, the source stated that he had not had an opportunity to have the tape recording of Gregory's speech transcribed and he made available the recorded speech of Gregory, which is substantially verbatim as follows:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I would like to say thank you very much and just to say good evening.

"You know, when they told me I was going to Huntington, West Virginia, I didn't see anything wrong with that at first. But when they mentioned changin my airline, I got a little suspicious. In all honesty, I did get a little suspicious. And then I still didn't, you know, like really slip off until I called Piedmont Airlines and said, 'What time is your next flight to Huntington?' and the voice said, 'What time can you get here?' At that point, I should have known something, you know? Old stupid me. I just kept thinking, well it sounds normal. You know, I've been on a lot of airlines that, you know, get in a little trouble but Piedmont is the first airline I've been on that looked like it was going to wreck and the stewardess kept serving coffee.

" I just finished a 47-day fast and, you know, a lot of people ask, 'How did you feel on the fast; what's the worst thing about the fast?' And I'd like to inform you that if you ever plan to go on one the worst part about any fast is the dumb stupid questions the eaters keep asking you. Like after 54 days without eatin: 'How do you feel now?' and when you say 'hungry,' you know, they're surprised!

"Let me read a hate letter I got. I always get hate mail, it usually starts out, you nigger this, you nigger that. Can you imagine someone being cold-blooded enough knowin you haven't ate in 46 days? You go to the mailbox and you pull this letter out: 'Dear Mr. Gregory, This is to inform you that yesterday for dinner I had fried chicken with gravy.' That's the first time I realized there's a black cat out there somewhere who hates me. We know you white folks eat a lot of fried chicken but we do know who eat it with gravy. 'Mashed potatoes smothered in butter.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Well, that could go either way. It was this next item that lets you know who it was, 'black-eyed peas with grilled onions.' Now dig, now he tries to fake me out and make me think he's white. 'Jello topped with whipped cream.'

"Well, we have problems. I was sittin on the plane today and there was a white cat sittin next to me and he decided to strike up a conversation and he did it the usual way, you know. 'Wake up, boy.' When you on Piedmont Airlines, you wake up boy. And he wasn't talkin about nothin, but he asked me about black power. I didn't know white folks was still asking about black power, but I didn't explain to him what it was. I just gave him an example of black power and I tried to express to him how all of the heart transplants that had been performed, the only ones that worked is the one with the black heart. Matter of fact, they worked a little too good. But I've always felt that there's nothin wrong with white folks that a change of heart wouldn't help. But I think the heart transplant was too good, not that I didn't want it to work, but I didn't want it to work too good. The last thing us black folks want is when you white folks start assuming we gonna be your spare parts. You know there's a lot of people against heart transplants, religious folks what have you. I'm against heart transplants, but it had nothin to do with religion. I'm against any transplant you can hide. I would love to see a white cat get a colored foot, then let him take that to the beach with him.

"You know, the fact that I'm a presidential candidate, I have a lot of people ask me, 'If you were elected President, like what is the first thing you would do?' Seems like a very stupid question 'cause the whole world knows the first thing I'd do if elected President, would be to paint the White House black. Second thing I'd

"do would be to bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ. I'd send LBJ to Vietnam with nothin but a barbecue cup; have Eartha Kitt call him up every morning and say, 'We're working on de-feller (sic), baby.' The next thing I would do, a lot of people ask, they say, 'Greg, what segment of the people do you think you would have the most problems from if you were elected President?' And, in all honesty, I must say I think I'd have the most problems from the colored folks 'cause you see I do know how black folks would react to some of the things I'd do, and the first things I would immediately do after taking office would be to wipe out the poverty program and set up a fifty billion dollar a year white folks rest program. Yes, I'd take all the good jobs away from you white folks and put you on my rest program and I'd give my black brother a good job for the first time in his life. And I'd guarantee you in about six months, when the black folks really realized I was payin you white folks to rest, there would be a hugh march in Washington. I can just see them standing out in front of my mansion now screaming, 'Nigger! What's wrong with you? We got all these white folks out here not working, sitting on their ass, getting these checks, having all them babies.'

"I really must say to you, it's a pleasure to be here. I guess I spend about ninety-eight per cent of my time on college campuses. The reason I spend so much time on college campuses today is because you young folks have a difficult task of solving the problems. I say difficult task because the problems that this country is confronted with and the problems that you have to solve are problems you didn't even create. These problems were here when you got here. Sometime I meet a lot of young bigots, but they better wake up and realize they ain't doing nothin new. Almost all these conditions was here, but you will have to create an atmosphere to solve these problems. The reason I say you young folks is on the spot like you've never been on the spot before is because if you don't solve the problems "in the next three years, the problems will solve you and we have never been confronted with this type of ultimatum before. And it's groovy because now even the bigot that wants to be a groovy bigot he has to join us and solve the problem so five years from now there will be someone around here for him to hate. So, I figure youngsters not only have a problem to solve but it's so difficult because of the very things that's goin on. For instance, what I mean, is we have a civil rights bill that was pushed through and there was a lot of groovy white folks that didn't want that bill pushed through and for the first time bigots was walking around hand in hand together for different reasons. But we didn't want no civil rights bill neither. We're tired of this damn country playing games with us. We want our rights under the same piece of paper we pay our income tax by. We want our rights under that same piece of paper that draft black folks in the army. And we want you to realize right now you white and black folks, that don't do us no personal small favors, baby. This is what we're sayin. We want America to go on alert to realize we don't want nothin but the Constitution, baby. Which means white America has a right to call me a nigger. You just exercise your freedom of speech, but you'd better not never, never in your life, spit on me is what we said. In the Constitution, white America has a right to dislike me because I'm black, that's freedom of expression, but you better never, never burn a cross on my front lawn, that's what we said. And we hope this country understands what we are trying to say real good. We are going after that Constitution, the Constitution that gives you a lot of rights. And all those people talking about an atmosphere of love and all that, that's the Bible. We don't want the Bible, baby. We are talking about the United States Constitution, no more and no less and we're tired of games and if you read that civil rights bill you know they were playing a lot of games with us on that because eighty per cent of the housing never comes really into effect until 1970.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I wish I were the type of nigger that believed in going to war for this country, and when I say nigger I mean any black man that is silly enough to go to fight for this country all over the world and shoot at people he never met to free some foreigner when his own mammy needs liberation in America, is a nigger. I sure wish I was that type because I sure would call up the State Department and put them on alert, that baby, I don't mind fighting wars for you, but since the civil rights bill didn't pass, don't call me until 1970. Then when you call me, don't expect but eighty per cent of me, and if I live in a slum flat dwelling, don't expect none of me.

"Now you got to understand. First let me explain to you my position. I am a 36 year old Uncle Tom nigger and I will be as good a nigger as this country will let me be comfortable being and when this country makes me uncomfortable I will do everything I can to make America uncomfortable. But now, when it treats me, like don't bug me, I'll try to behave myself and I say that in good faith. Being a 36 year old Uncle Tom nigger, I'm the type of cat who will try to apologize to all white folks for black folks behavior after Martin Luther King was killed. I thought it was just very awful that them black folks did act like that. They know damn good and well that the accepted riot season in America is in July and August. And I'm sayin how you good white folks felt. It just broke my heart too. Niggers gettin so you can't trust them no more. They're gettin so uppity. I know you white folks, I know you got upset. To you I say please accept my humble apologies, and it just really upset me when those niggers in Washington, D.C., had nerve enough to mess up the cherry blossom season. The bad part about their behavior is that even the police department had accepted the riot season and they usually sneak out and take their "vacation in the spring. They had to come back home. And all them tanks, them tanks they been buyin for us this summer, they hadn't even unwrapped them yet.

"Now, I must say I was disappointed in you white folks. All year long I been readin about that new Chemical Mace that you have, the new thing that was going to control all riots, and I was tryin to tell white folks you got to get something else 'cause Mace don't do no good if you really want to throw a brick. So I say that if white America will kind of band together with the rest of us Toms and kinda guarantee that no more black leaders get shot in the spring, we can almost guarantee you that we can teach black folks how to behave. This country wants to kill any more leaders, try to do it in July because during the accepted riot season niggers are going to riot whether you do something to them or not. We get scared not to have a riot now because you expect it and if we disappoint you, then we'd find it would really upset you. Again I'd like to say I'd like to apologize for reacting.

"I had a black detective come by my house in Chicago and ask me if I'd come out and help cool down the brothers and I said, 'No, I just come out of the house during racial disturbances.' And he says, 'Well this is the black folks.' I said, 'They're reacting to Doctor Martin Luther King,' and I said, 'I don't think that's racial. I think you'd have the same reaction in America only in a different neighborhood had a Baptist killed the Pope.' And he said to me what so many of you have been reading in the newspapers, that the black folks are just hurting themselves and he said, 'You read in the papers that 500 colored folks have no place to live now.' That's true, but they should have wrote the whole story. 500 black folks got burned out but it was three million rats that didn't have no place to live. They'd have to move to the white policeman's 'cause rats aren't prejudiced. They kinda like livin with the colored folks better 'cause we cook a little bit more food. But when the rats ain't got no home, we say, 'We have rats. We will travel.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Now I explained my type of religion and you know my record. I got shot in Watts tryin to keep the colored folks cool so you can call me anytime black folks react. I would like to see them kept in their place, but now I got a condition on how you can call me. I'm sure those of you that's informed and those of you that's not informed better get informed that for every one white boy that re-enlists in the United States Army there's five black boys. I'm sure you can read this because it's been publicized a whole lot. Now you white folks go on record as really speaking out for non-violent niggers. But for some reason you better wake up or check with your State Department and realize that we aren't non-violent. And the record in the army shows it. For everyone of you white boys that re-up, there's five black boys, so you should understand real quick that black folks speak out for killin for freedom. We're better murderers than you white folks are, and I say that in faith. And when that black cat whom you taught with your tax money—you taught him how to drop Napalm indiscriminately, you taught him how to just blow up villages and knock planes out of the sky and blow up railroad embankments and just wipe out whole towns for freedom—and you're silly enough to believe that this black cat will go all over the world being your hired murderer killing foreigners to liberate foreigners and when he come back home this time, he's not going to do the same thing to liberate his mammy, then you are out of your mind. So when your black murderer come back home, starts burnin down your neighborhoods, and blowin up your schools, and knockin your planes out of the sky, don't call me. This is what I'm sayin. And when you call me, the first thing I'm gonna ask you is, 'Is he a veteran?' Because if he's your murderer, I won't have nothin to do with him. If he's just some old silly nigger just killin on his own that hasn't been trained—And also tell your police department they better get a lot of good training because it's one thing shooting a 16 year old black cat throwing a brick at a tank. It's

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"another thing dealing with one of them old black guerrillas you've made. One of them black snipers that been knocking Viet Cong out of the trees from 500 yards back.

"And, so I say you youngsters have a tremendous job to do, a big job. A big job that us poor old moral corrupt Americans could do, but you're facin it in the face. Now you can go home and talk to your mama and you can talk to your daddy, black kids and white kids, you gotta talk. Okay, they'll talk to you, but don't let them put you in no trick, hear? Because it's a mischange(sic) in attitudes in this country today. And there was a time when a white man was the only man that could get mad. But I want to tell you niggers is mad too, baby, and we ain't puttin up with no more of this nonsense and we hope that America can become as afraid and as scared of injustices as she has become afraid of communism. And this is what we tryin to say and maybe you can wipe out these injustices like you're tryin to go all over the world and wipe out communism. But I say you young kids carry the burden. What happened to Doctor Martin Luther King, you young folks will feel this much more than older Americans because you young kids feel the pain of what happened. Most older Americans will only feel the shame of what happened. That's why we got across those civil rights bills because America got embarrassed around the world because Doctor King was killed, so they gave us that little old piece of paper.

"And so I say you youngsters have many, many problems, but I think we got to realize that there's some progress that's being made. I look at what happened to Doctor Martin Luther King and we try to say in America that Doctor Martin Luther King got killed in the South by a red neck cracker racist. No! No! Doctor Martin Luther King got killed in America by an American. You don't have to say no more.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"One thing about them Nazis, we never tried to say what town he came from. We says you're Nazis and that's all we have to say about America. And let's get groovy now because I feel had Hitler made enough mistakes and killed enough Germans he might of woke up the rest of them Nazis. But I say to you in all honesty what's happening in America now is progress to me because I'd rather see Americans killing Americans than killing foreigners. I'd rather see Americans burn the whole damn country down than burn foreign countries down. In my little sickness, I'd rather see my daughter kill my wife than kill your wife. I'd rather see my son kill me than kill you. I'd rather have my kids burn down my house than burn down your house because I feel I'm responsible for that mess at home. Well, I feel the same way about America. I feel that I'm responsible for this mess and I'd rather see New York, Chicago, and California get together and bomb the hell out of Massachusetts. And see Massachusetts, New York, Chicago, and California get together and bomb the hell out of New York, and maybe what's happening in this country will wake us up to see the sickness that this society is coming to. Maybe, and I say maybe, for you young folks see, because somewhere down the line we are to change.

"Now let me try to explain black folks to you for those of you that need some explaining. For those of you that just don't understand black folks reaction today, just say, 'Niggers is crazy.' That's all, you don't have to say no more, 'cause we are crazy for that United States Constitution. But you see I hate to admit this but I have to admit it. That one of the things, that the reason we can't seem to think alike is because black folks and white folks don't think alike and all the old bigots have been saying that for years. I want to confirm it for you. Black folks and white folks do not think alike. Now, I didn't realize that until I read the American history book, and when I read your American history book, I got the sneakin suspicion that black folks and white folks did not "think alike. Because here's a white man telling niggers that we got to be non-violent and we got to do this and that and I pick up the damned history book and I read that George Washington and that band of white farmers he had tore up the colonies, whipped the hell out of the British, called it a Revolutionary War. I say, 'What was they fightin over?' He says, 'tea.' And I kept sayin, 'Oh, no, you white folks ain't goin to fight over no damn tea and then tell a nigger he got to behave.' But I went all the way through and that's what your white ancestors went to war over, Lipton tea bags. And then you are silly and sick enough to tell black folks to behave and still run this old filthy book out in my neighborhood bragging about how you whooped the British. And, I tell you I give you the benefit of the doubt. I tried to be over fair. I got all my little black kids, I dirtied them up, put grease on them, tried to make them look as much like a nigger as I could make them look. And I hung a Lipton tea bag next to each one of them and I said, 'Greg, which one of them things is worth killin for? Them tea bags or them little black kids?' You know, them little black kids won out every time. Every time they won out. And I just tried to think. 'No! White folks back home don't think that much different. Let me see something else now.' And I just tried to see if I could fight over tea and I made me a big old tea bag. I took me a big old white sheet and I sowed about twelve of them together and I bought 500 pounds of tea and I put it all in that big white sheet. And I told my wife, 'Hit me with that tea,' and flip, she hit me with 500 pounds of tea. I still couldn't get mad enough. So, you know you never realize how much different white folks think than black folks, till you read this American history book. Boy, this is beautiful here, 'Give me liberty or give me death.' Who said that? Rap Brown! What did Patrick Henry say? Oh, Patrick Henry spoke of peace. He spoke of loving our British brother. Only niggers like Stokely and them would talk about doing somebody in. Oh, yes, this old great white apostle of love talked of getting some Americans together and goin to Boston to help

"the British unload the tea. 'Let's get there quick because 't h e m old niggers might try to throw it in the water.' Patrick Henry talked about we shall overcome. And the British felt the same way about George Washington and Thomas Jefferson as Americans feel about Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael today. Tell you one thing, if all of us out here could freeze ourselves to death and wake up a hundred years from now, you'd be surprised whose birthdays we'd be gettin out of school on.

"You know Rap Brown made a speech last year in East St. Louis, Illinois, where he said, 'Get a gun nigger and watch the police.' And the press got to calling me and said, 'Greg, we know you're non-violent How do you feel about Rap Brown and Carmichael sayin for colored folks to get a gun and watch the police?' And I said, 'Let me get my history book and I'll show you the original statement.' One thing I hate about black militant cats, they ain't got nothing original they're coming out of this old American history book. Oh, here it is right here. During the time when the British was the police, Paul Revere rode through white communities saying, 'Get a gun white folks, the British are coming.' Maybe we should all just read this American history book. It's probably the dirtiest, filthiest piece of literature put on the market. Oh, the first page is beautiful. I love the first page of the American history book. It just brings tears to my eyes. It says here was a white European society which broke the shackles from the King and Queen and find freedom. He would want to find him a new land where he could worship his own God, have freedom of expression and freedom of religion. Can't nobody say there's anything wrong with that page one of the American history book. But, I say to you don't turn the page 'cause it gets dirty from that part on. So, on his way over here to find freedom, he stole us. That's a hell of a prayer meetin you're going to. The more you read this book, the dirtier it gets. Page 51 just really touched me. Not only did he steal

"us, but he came to these shores and discovered a country that was already occupied. And one day you sit down and ask yourself how do you do that. How do you discover something that's already discovered. Like me and my old lady walkin' out here tonight. You and your lady are sittin' in your brand new automobile and my lady says, 'I sure would like to have that brand new automobile to pray in.' And I say, 'Well, let's discover it.' So I walked up to you and said, 'Get out of that damn car, me and my old lady just discovered it.' And, I'd bet you'd be as surprised as the Indians was.

"And, so we say to you youngsters, you have a tremendous job and sort of a very complex job. When Doctor King was killed, I heard all the radio and television. I couldn't believe that American had really missed the boat. Everybody kept saying that black folks should be non-violent because Doctor Martin Luther King would have wanted this. And I can't believe that during that time I listened to the commentators I never heard nobody mention Doctor Martin Luther King's purpose which was equal justice for all. Everybody talked about his method, which was non-violent, and we don't want to know about methods. We want to know about the purpose. Everybody has different methods of doing things, but it was the purpose that we was unified on. Doctor King, Rap Brown, Stokely Carmichael, Malcolm X, and all the organizations have the same purpose and I think if America is sincere then she should implement Doctor Martin Luther King's purpose and we'll all blame it on non-violence, if through non-violence we gained our Constitutional rights. But I think if I am non-violent as an individualist. I don't go around preaching it to people. I think America is a very violent country. Matt Dillon comes into your home once a week teaching you it's a virtue to shoot straight. The United States Constitution says you have a right to bear arms and protect yourself and your property.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"So America is a very violent country. But, I choose to be non-violent as an individualist. I'm a vegetarian. I don't believe animals was put here for us to eat. But, baby, I would never knock a steak off your plate. That's your hang-up. Like being a vegetarian is my hang-up, bein non-violent is my hang-up. I would love to see the world one day committed to non-violence and I'd also love to see the world one day committed to vegetarianism.

"And so I say if America is sincere about respect she has for non-violence, then why don't America rush up to the Indian reservation and get my red brother off of there and give him his full Constitutional rights. Because you can't get no more non-violent than an Indian today. So what we're tryin to say is we hope America quits playing games with us because if we can justify men 13,000 miles away from our shores tonight dropping bombs and things trying to liberate foreigners and give them a better way of life/ than our own red brother can get in America, then we're thinkin in vain. But we got enough sense to know that if that Indian wants a better way of life in the morning, he goin to have to come off that reservation in Arizona and get up on the viaduct Monday morning and check white folks driving down the expressway and start shooting at them. Pow! And yelling, 'Red Power' and 'Whitey go home!' And if that Indian behaves like that Monday, Oh, the whole country would be shocked. LBJ would be on television saying that 'the red boys at it again. I just sent my number one specialist of Indian Affairs up to that Indian reservation' and Huntley and Brinkley and the Cronkites and ABC will all be up on the Indian reservation and next Sunday, you'll sit at home and watch "Meet the Press" and they'll be talkin to some old Uncle Tom Tom Indian.

"And so I say for you young folks' sake, it's a sad commentary in this country when we have to admit that it seems that the only thing that stirs this country up is violence. The Mexican American, he hasn't been violent, but nobody cares about him. So I say somewhere down the line you youngsters have to solve problems and I figure the problems can be solved non-violently. I don't believe that's the American way of solving problems, but I think it's the best way and I think you young white kids in America have proved it and the great thing about your actions is that Doctor Martin Luther King did have the consolation of seeing one non-violent victory and black folks would have nothin to do with that and you young white kids across this country decided that you didn't like LBJ's action and you got out and you marched and you swallowed tear gas and you swallowed Mace and you kept marchin and you kept marchin and you made LBJ quit his job. Not one shot was fired. But you youngsters have got to understand you have a lot of power. You have a lot of power to do a lot of things. And we say we hope young folks black and white in this country will use your power to help us get our things and we are tryin to ask this country will she just quit playin games with us.

"LBJ gave his State of the Union message last January at a time when the Senate and Congress couldn't agree with the President on nothin till LBJ in his State of the Union message mentioned crime in the streets. The whole Senate chamber stood up and clapped and screamed and hollered and made little animal sounds for five minutes. Why? Because crime in the streets has become America's new way of sayin, 'Nigger.' Now, I'm not sick enough to stand here and tell you that America shouldn't deal with black crime and black violence, but what I am trying to say, what day will you become as afraid of white crime and white violence as this country is afraid of black crime and black violence. This is what we're sayin. We think that America should work hard and we don't mind the President talkin about doin away with crime in the streets. But, we say what day will

"you demand your President to say, 'Not only if elected will I wipe out crime in the streets but I'll also wipe out the crime syndicate, or is that too white for you? That's what we're sayin. The crime syndicate in America is the lowest form of humanity second only to about 99 per cent of your politicians. And we say to America if black folks took over the crime syndicate tonight, you'd see to it it would be wiped out by next Wednesday. We say we're tired of playin games. LBJ out of all the people in the world to talk about crime in the streets, he is not one of them. LBJ went to Congress at 26 years old, a poor humble Baptist school teacher. Tonight, LBJ is a multimillionaire and you don't want to know where that money came from. Well, we say to you, if LBJ was black, you'd want to know. Bobby Baker worked for LBJ. Old Bobby boy stole eight million dollars while he was working for the boss. LBJ didn't know nothin about it. The FBI and LBJ is not the dumbest guys walkin the face of the earth. Matter of fact, LBJ is probably the slickest coward that's walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar. You not only want to believe that LBJ didn't get none of that money; he didn't know nothin about it neither. But what we're sayin to you is had Bobby boy been working for Adam Clayton Powell, both of them would be in jail tonight. That's what we're sayin.

"So, we're sayin we're just tired of this country playing games. We know if America finds out that poor black folks got some dynamite in the black community, he will run your soldiers in to take it from us. We say groovy. You've been acting like that for 400 years, but we wonder when you're going to take that dynamite away from them Minutemen. One day when you whites realize that Minutemen are not goin to kill black folks but kill white folks, I bet you take it away from them then. You couldn't give a Minuteman a million dollars and a tank and

"pay him to go to Harlem tonight. All that dynamite the Minutemen have buried out in your little lilly white neighborhoods, if it ever blows up accidentally, one day, it ain't goin to do nothin but wipe out blocks of white folks.

"You got to understand while you're playin games with us, you're playing games with yourselves, too. And the big game you see is all these white folks that went out and got a nigger gun. They never had a gun in their house. Now they're upset. Bring it home. 'Listen, honey, let me show you how to use it.' If you know one of these white folks, tell them Brother Greg says if they got one of these nigger guns in their house, they better quit cheatin on their old lady now 'cause she might find out about it. You also got them little old radical white sons and daughters comin home for the vacation period and ask for the car. Best be a little careful how you get it because you might wake someone while he's asleep at night. And some white folks live so far away from black folks, they don't need guns. They need missiles.

"And, we're sayin we're tired of this country playin games with us.

"Muhammad Ali, can't nobody remember nothin but Cassius Clay. But had he changed his name to a good nigger name like Jack O. Jones, Oh, yeah, he wouldn't had no problems then. Yes, Jack old boy, yes. I want to tell you somethin else that word's goin to get you in a lot of trouble, too, boy. We're tired of that word. That's what you call us niggers. You call us boy. You've got to realize white men call us boy not because they mean to be derogatory. They got doubts about their own manhood, but my brother's not aware of that.

"And so we said, you know like the games got to stop. Muhammad Ali, what did he do? He said, 'I'm not goin to war and I'm goin to stay here and I'm goin to stand trial.' And we said that was very honorable. A 100,000 white kids didn't want to go to war and they split to Canada, but that don't seem to bother you. I'm not sayin goin to Canada is dishonorable but if you've got to take your choice of which is most honorable, the most ethical, the most legal, to tell America you're not going to war and I'm standing trial and let's say I go to jail. I say what Muhammad Ali did was the most honorable. And, what happened to him? A bunch of syndicate trampy hoodlums that controlled boxing decided to strip him of his title. One of the cleanest men on the face of the earth. You know damn good and well Muhammad Ali can't be different the way this white press hates him. If they can get anything on him, you know they'd print it. One of the cleanest men in the world. The only cat I know who got divorced from his wife because the dresses was too short. We got upset over that because we remember Jimmy Hoffa, elected President of the Teamsters Union, until you put him in jail. Teamsters is a million people, $600 million dollars. You can trust old white Jimmy Hoffa until he went to jail, but Muhammad Ali, who ain't dependant to nobody, had to be stripped. We're tired of these games.

"And I must say to you that I got to criticize black folks and it's hard to do that. I guess that's the racism in me. Yeah, I found out one day I was a racist. I kind of suspected it because I've been watching white folks all my life. And I asked myself one day a simple question, I said, 'Greg, if you ever lose your black wife in the morning to another man and you had the choice of losing your wife to a black cat or white cat, which one would you pick?' And you think I didn't find my racism. I hurried up to pick the black cat under the false pretenses that I didn't want to lose my wife to a white boy because I didn't want my black friends laughing at me. I don't care what you hide or nothin, that's the way it is.

"And, so I guess there's a racism in me that makes me hate to admit that I think black folks was wrong when they decided to boycott the Olympic games. I think them niggers should of kept their mouth shut and went on and qualified for the Olympics and went to Mexico City, then dropped the baton. Just a nice little way of telling America we ain't goin be your gladiators no more. This is what we're sayin. We're tired of playin games. And for the people that's upset over black folks not going to the Olympics, we hope you get as upset over the fact that you never would of won an Olympic game without the black athletes. But it don't upset you, the fact that you've never had a black man on the Olympic board. This is what we're tryin to say. We're tired of playin games.

"And a lot of people wonder about how effective that black boycott will be. And let me say one thing to you. We don't control white neighborhoods and we don't never want to control them and we just gettin on our neighborhoods and will you believe one thing? If we truly decide that black athletes ain't goin to the Olympics, we ain't goin. You understand that?

"And, so what we're tryin to say is can we have these games? And one of the groovy things about black folks boycotting the Olympics for the first time in the history of the summer Olympics is America will go to the Olympic games under the true spirit of the Olympics which the Olympics was set up way back in Rome. And the true spirit of the games was not to win, but the brotherhood of competition. When black cats decide they're not goin, you can believe you're goin to go under the true spirit of the Olympics. And so we're sayin that if this country can quit playin games with us. You know what we're tryin to say is we hope you young folks can be just a little bit more honest.

"We ain't asking you to make any changes. And instead of gettin the civil rights bill pushed through the other day, I wished this country would have gave us another bill. I wish this country would have put a bill in law that says all black male baby boys at five years old have to go to a Government camp and stay for a year. That's the type of law I wish they'd had gave us, which was simple. All black male babies born at five years old go to a Government camp and stay from five to six. And also, they stipulate in the law that these little black baby boys for that whole year just sleep six hours a day and the other 18 hours, the Government will teach 'em just one very important thing from five to six, 18 hours, just stand in front of them, just brainwash them, document it: 'Nigger, don't ever date a white lady; don't never goin to have anything to do with a white lady.' In this country, nothin upsets us no more than seein a nigger with a white broad. If you don't believe me, you're dishonest with yourselves. Man, you ought to shake clean and sky write it in the air: 'Nigger, don't go with this white lady.' You can't believe that!

"And so I say maybe, I'm not sayin niggers gonna behave but you're gettin out of hand. But maybe if you start out bein honest with us, that might be half the problem. See, I went to the movie when I was four years old. Somewhere down the line, Whitey got to get enough sense to say they want white ladies. We're not just born wantin them. Must be somethin you're doin. We just ain't got no magnetic brain and I need to get attracted to you. One thing, if you realize this old stupid society of yours, you ain't got enough sense knowin not to want me to have that's all. Now you want to make me forget that you made me want her. Go check your movie house, and see who you got makin love. I went to the movie when I was four "years old. I went to the movie every night 'cause it was during the Depression. It was always warmer in the movies than it was at home. And you didn't have to pay to go to the movies when I was a kid until you were 12 years old, as long as you was with an adult. And my mother didn't take me to the movies every night, but I went every night because I always could get an adult because I had a switchblade. Anytime I couldn't get in by myself with my mama, I just get some adult goin in and take my switchblade, stick it in his butt, and say, 'I'm just tellin you to get past that door.' So, every night I went to the movies, four years old. And who do I see making love? Ava Gardner and Humphrey Bogart. By the time I'm eight years old, I've been goin to the movies for four years, makin love with them white broads. And I get to thinkin, I say, 'You know, my mommy and daddy ain't never made love. I ain't seen no white folks in the bed.' You did a good job of brainwashing me. The same thing you didn't want me to do. There was a kid eight years old sittin in the movie. I nudged my little black friend. I says, 'Man, I sure be glad when I grow up 'cause I can get me one of those white broads.' He says, 'What you going to do with her?' I say, 'The same thing as Humphrey Bogart.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Now I want to tell you that I do want a white woman and I'm gonna get me a white woman. You brainwashed me and the madder it makes you the more I'm gonna get. Because you made the damn stupid mistake of bringing your movies into my black community and I sure mean nothin but white ladies making love and any time you should meet a black woman it was Beulah and you know damn good and well I wasn't going to make no love to Beulah.

"We say maybe if you can get honest you know! If you can't get honest, maybe you should take that white lady and stick her on the moon somewhere 'cause we're gonna deal with you. You can believe that.

"In white universities all over this country, if a black cat brings a white broad back to the dormitory, the house mother takes it upon her own to write that white lady's mother: 'Dear used-to-be white folks,' We are very sorry to inform you that your girl, your daughter, is dating a whatsamacallit, a thing, you know, a colored.

"Now we're not sayin that we want you to stop behaving like that. You've been acting like that for a hundred years. We're just sayin can you get a little bit more honest with it? Can you write that black cat's parents too? 'Cause there's a whole lot of niggers that don't want their kids with white girls.

"So we say to you, you youngsters got a big job. We've been telling you in this country that the number one problem confronting America today is the problem of air pollution. The number one problem confronting this country today is the problem of moral pollution. It is the most morally polluted insane nation on the face of this earth and it's left up to you young kids.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"You know what scares me the most about America? Not the social conditions, they don't bother me at all. What scares me the most about this country is that if the same social conditions that exist in America right this hour existed in any other country on the face of this earth we could solve it. Now is there any young black kids that think this system is just after black folks? You better forget it. And you white kids that think it's just after you, ah! This system's after young folks. And if you white folks don't believe it then you go back and reread that new draft law they just made law two months ago. The one that wiped out graduate school you know what that is don't you? You young hip white kids get to asking too many embarrassing questions. You want too much freedom for everybody. Now they have to give you to the Viet Cong to stop you from being so sassy. Yeah, well you youngsters got the problems. And there's not no help from us old immoral cats. I mean as good as I found I ain't no good to you. I just finished cheating on my income tax. I'm patriotic though. I was whistling the Star Spangled Banner: 'Oh Internal Revenue I hope you don't see.'

"Let me show you how many problems you've got and what you're dealing with. Every now and then I read this Bible. But when I read the Bible, baby, I've read everything else I can get my hands on including the telephone book. I used to love the Bible, you know I'm an ex-Baptist. I don't know about the white Baptists 'cause I could never get in your church. But southern Baptists that's about as extreme as you can go, baby. Oh we just go to church and whoop and holler. We have a thing goin on Sunday. And I used to love the Bible until one day I was readin some of them white folks literature and I read where, I couldn't "believe it, white missionaries went to Africa and Africans owned the land and the missionaries had the Bible and the white missionaries left and the white missionaries had the land and the Africans had the Bible. So I said, 'Let me hurry up and put this book down' because I wouldn't want to create ill will among the races because I just might take that Bible in a white hotel one day and when I leave--white folks own the Bible and I own the hotel. Ever hear of those old strange Bible stories that come back from the front line? Every soldier that comes back from every war says, 'You know I always carry a little Bible, a little Gideon Bible, right over my heart. Had it not been for that Bible that bullet would have gone clean through me. They wiped out the whole battalion and I just got that rip in my Bible. Thank God.' That's one thing about our Army we've Christian soldiers which means Marines that pray. And so I got so tired of hearing them stories I decided to carry a bullet over my heart, and it's a good thing too 'cause the Shriners will have its convention in Chicago and you know you white kids get a bad rap for tearing up Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. You want to see a town tore up? Follow your daddy this summer to the Shriners convention. And this summer in Chicago they was just havin a ball, man. They was up in the Hilton Hotel, 27 floors and I was just walkin down the street minding my own business, downtown Chicago minding my own business, singing my little tune: 'Oh Jesus I want to be with you, Lord. Oh Jesus I want to be with you, Lord.' You know I thought white folks said all niggers have rhythm? I usually try to develop mine. It isn't good though, but I try 'cause I knew they wasn't lying on this one, you know. And

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I was walking downtown singin my little Jesus song and looked up and I see the Shriners had this big party and somebody got mad in the hotel and they picked up this Gideon Bible and they threw it at one of the Shriners and he ducked and this Gideon Bible came out the window, right through the window, and sailed 27 floors. And I seen this thing coming through the air and it didn't scare me. I just kept singing: 'Oh Jesus I wonder what that is Lord. I don't want to be with you too soon Lord.' And that Gideon Bible hit me right in the chest and I want to tell you if it had not been for that bullet that Bible would have gone clean through me.

"This Bible, its really taught me a lot of things, white christianity, you know because there's a lot of people in America that believe that black folks is the dirtiest, well you know the little games you hear, your mom and dad tell you. Well let me tell you something, wait, I'm not sayin we're not dirty and ornery and low down and all that, but I will say this here, that all bad habits that black folks got if you do any studyng of them at all, you'd find out that they're European bad habits, white European bad habits. We have no African bad habits. We learned our bad habits. We do not know what the Africans do in the bushes after dark. We know what you do in the bushes and whether you like it or not we do the same thing. Oh I never will forget. I was so upset when this white christian told me that Africans was bad folks. I said, 'Tell me about my ancestors.' He said, 'They're immoral, they're just bad, they're savages.' That's what he said. Because they eat folks they're cannibals and then I got confirmed. I went to see a Tarzan movie and I got to lookin at those niggers. I didn't have "enough sense to know them was California niggers and I was just upset over my ancestors that was savage enough to go around eating folks and I rushed into that white christian church to pray for them savages. And I said, 'Oh white christian Jesus please forgive my black heathen ancestors for being savages, for being cannibals, Lord.' That's the only mistake I made. I went into this white christian church on the first Sunday, communion Sunday, and this white minister heard me praying for them savages and he said 'Boy, that's a good prayer. Most of you black folks ought to be praying for them savages and cannibals. I sure appreciate that, boy.' I said, 'Thank you Mr. White Minister. I was going to leave now.' He says, 'No, we'd like you to share communion with us.' I said, 'Communion? What's that?' He said, 'Open your mouth.' I said, 'Yes sir.' He said, 'This is his body and this is his blood.' I said, 'I can't believe that in this white christian society you're all cannibals every Sunday.'

You know I'd like for you youngsters to do me a favor. When you go to the library tomorrow or next week, I'd like for you to copy down the Declaration of Independence and keep it in your pocket and never be caught without it. And this summer when the riot season opens up again I'd like for you to do me this favor. Now I would never be sick enough to stand here and ask you to justify violence or a riot but when them niggers start burning towns there's a favor I'd like you all to do me. Get your television set and just put it right in the middle of the house and run and get your mama and your daddy. And you black folks get your aunts and your uncles and old ignorant niggers that think worse than the Ku Klux Klan, please get them too.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"And if you can get your grandma and grandpa, all of you, that would be groovy. Bring them down and let them see them niggers burning and Huntley and Brinkley be doin their commentaries. And here's what I'd like you to do for me. After you put them right down in front of the television, your grandpa put him under it, I'd like for you to just reach up and take the knob and turn the sound down so you just can't get anything with it. You can just see 'em. And get it down real low and pull out your Declaration of Independence and move way back behind your parents and read it as loud as you can: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal and endowed by the Creator with certain unalienable rights and when these rights are destroyed over long periods of time it is your duty to destroy all violations of that government.'

"I know them old ignorant parents of yours is goin to believe that was a note Stokely Carmichael wrote to Malcolm X. But with a minimum amount of persuasion you can convince 'em that that was a reading from the Declaration of Independence.

"Now the problem is this. We need to have a huge march with the young, a huge white march on Washington to show colored folks that white folks ain't racists? I think that's irrelevant. I think we ought to have a huge white march on Washington and get them to get that Declaration of Independence and change it so it will read white only. 'Cause you see there are a lot of black folks, that's ignorant enough to believe that Thomas Jefferson and Paine and Washington were cats that meant that to qualify for all Americans. We didn't know that they was just for white folks. So maybe if you could change it for us

"we would read it and we'd know we ain't suppose to have no country. Just you white folks is supposed to have a country with tea. That was a groovy war. In 1968, 85 per cent of Americans don't even drink tea.

"And so I'd say you youngsters have a lot of problems. You know whenever I read the Bible, I love to read that Biblical predication where it says it will come to pass the time when the parents will turn against their own kids. You know I'd never thought I'd see the day in America when we would surpass that Biblical predication, but we have. There will come a time in America that your parents and I never thought I'd see the day, when parents in America would side with the Federal government against their own kids and their kids happen to be right. And I say to you what's wrong with an 18-year-old American sayin, 'Damnit if at 18 years old I'm too young to vote, I should be too young to die.'

"And so I say somewhere down the line you young kids got a heck of a job. One day you got to ask yourself if democracy is as good as we say it is, why are we running all over the world trying to ram it down people's throats with guns? One day when you, youngsters make democracy work right for the first time, that's the day we can bring the guns home. Because anything good we don't have to force on people, they will steal it.

"If you want to force communism not just underground but out of the world, you force democracy to work to the nth degree and communism will not have a leg to stand on. But baby, if you think you goin run all over the world with this old half-time democracy that you got in America your guns ain't big enough to stop communism.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Twenty or 30 years ago, black folks and white folks used to talk to one and other, but they wasn't talking about nothing. No. I imagine your parents tell you now. I imagine folks my mama used to work for are still telling their kids: 'I don't know what's wrong with those colored folks, especially Richard. His mama was so nice.' They didn't know my mama was born. They was talkin to my mama but my mama didn't like it. My mama didn't even like those jobs. She stole everything she could. My mama worked for some rich white folks. Go to Africa to do that big game hunting. My mama stole a whole bear. I didn't know my mama could steal like that. She hated them white folks so bad she just chopped up the whole bear. And I wanted to let you white folks in on something. You think them black folks ate lunch out of a good old shopping bag? You better check on it. Just 'cause them old niggers like you, just 'cause they're tomin and acting ignorant around you sayin what you want to hear. Check that Baptist songbook out: 'You got shoes, I got shoes, all God's children got shoes.' Once we get to heaven, what's you got to do is go there if you got to die. They said way back then they had to kill you. No baby, they're just talking. Thirty years ago it was hard to get a black man to sit down and listen to you 'cause 20 to 30 years ago black folks in this country had an empty stomach. Today black folks in this country got a full stomach but a hungry mind. And I'm just sayin one thing. A hungry mind won't tolerate the same things an empty stomach does. Empty stomachs deal on smell and hungry minds deal on sounds and this country don't sound right to us, that's all.

"Three years ago five white boys burned up their draft cards. Within two weeks' time the Congress had pushed through an anti-draft

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"card burning bill, but we can't get an anti-lynching bill pushed through in a hundred years of American history. America just told me she thinks more of a piece of cardboard than she thinks of my black mammy. I'll bring her to her knees for that.

"Twenty or thirty years ago, white folks told black folks the problem with you niggers is education and we had black folks thick enough to believe that. You still have niggers who believe that. Education is not our problem. You're in Vietnam tonight with 688,000 red-blooded Americans with their life to free that Vietnamese and not one white or black American has ever questioned Vietnamese educational standards. That's what we're sayin. We don't question that bond of educational standards and if you want to liberate him, you better not question mine.

"Just stop one day and think how many millions of people would be dead today on the face of the earth if it were not for blood plasma. Are you aware of the fact that an American Negro by the name of Charlie Drew invented blood plasma? Don't take my word for it. Check it out in your libraries. Charlie Drew, American Negro, invented blood plasma. Charlie Drew bled to death in an Atlanta, Georgia, hospital waiting room after an automobile accident because they didn't accept niggers. Oh, never tell us about education, never. A blackman that had the wisdom and knowledge and the education that 'ur supposed to demand, enough of it to give blood plasma to the world, died from the lack of his own invention 'cause his face was black.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Why don't you get demonstratin and go on down into the black ghetto and pull your brother up by his boot straps? You say, 'Why don't you give him some boots?'

"And all of these people that talk about morality, you've all got to go and build up your morals. No we ain't got to go do nothin. White folkds tell you that black women in America got 20 per cent illegitimate babies. They ain't lying. We have fun ghettos. White women in America had two per cent illegitimate babies. Well let's get the record straight. Don't you never forget it. If we ever get our hands on your white folks abortion credit cards we will show you how to lie.

"All you fools that run around talking about, 'I wonder why they keep having all them babies; they can't take care of them. They'll end up on relief or welfare or ADC.' We figure relief, welfare and ADC upsets you. Then call it foreign aid. That word don't bother you. And all them babies we have down in that ghetto, we're gonna keep havin, but we'll make a deal with you. The day this dirty, stinkin white system learns how to hire black boys and give us good jobs like it gives you white boys so we can afford all these whores and prostitutes like you, we'll quit having all those babies. Before you come back to us with your old holier than thou stuff, you forget we know about whores 'cause it's my sister. And when she do come back home and talk she tells on you. So we got the same problems. We're both dirty, stinkin and immoral. We got a way we speak dirty. We talk about we don't want these dirty ignorant niggers living next door to us. The property depreciates. Customers always act surprised when you tell them 'What do you mean, Ralph Bunche?'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Black folks got to admit we're playing games with these white folks too. You've got to admit that most niggers you know is dirty and stinkin and will depreciate property. But America better understand one thing. She's dirty herself. And one good thing about Hitler is with all of his insanity and sickness they say when he went out to inspect his Nazis concentration camps and smelled them dirty, stinkin Jews, he had enough scruples about himself to realize that that wasn't Judaism he was smelling, that was pure Nazism. And one day you will have to get honest enough with yourself. So when you're sayin 'These dirty niggers,' you'll realize that's America you looking at and that odor you smell was that democracy. And one day when you sweeten up democracy, we'll sweeten up niggers.

"Some of these old racist red-neck crackers I've run across, I could nail 'em to a bullpen. That's why I travel and eat Limburger cheese. I get on a plane; a cracker don't want to sit next to me, but he ain't got no place else. I just stop for lunch--Limburger cheese. He says, 'What is that I smell?' I says, 'Ignorant niggers.'

"And so in closing, let me say to you we don't want no more games. We don't want no civil rights legislation and we don't want no fair housing bills. How come I need a fair housing bill to live next door to you? What kind of animal are you? That old red-neck white Russian cracker broad that came to my country, Stalin's daughter, a known communist and a known Russian. You don't make her get no fair housing bill to live next door to you. How come I got to get one? Those Russian exchange students you bring over here, you're supposed to be scared of the communists.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"You bring them Russian exchange students over here. They don't want to be citizens; gonna go back to Moscow after they finish their education; might drop a bomb on your mama's house in ten years. You don't make them old white Russian exchange students get no fair housing bill to live near where they want to live. How come we need it?

"If I was in Vietnam tonight and the Viet Cong killed me dead, this old insane nation would give my black woman $10,000 as a token of its appreciation. Your husband died upholdin the beliefs of this country and my black woman couldn't take that $10,000 and buy her house in any neighborhood she wanted to buy one in. Maybe I got killed shooting at the wrong cats. Maybe you better understand these insults, we're tired of them.

"Black folks in America die six years younger than white folks. I got six black kids at home. Whenever they sit at the dinner table at the same time I got to go through the pain and misery of looking at 36 dead years that you white folks don't have to listen to. And for the benefit of you CIA and FBI Agents that usually follow me around on lectures, put this in your book and wire it back to Washington quick. You'll get those 36 dead years out of my house only over my dead body. Don't you never forget that.

"I'm sayin we're tired of being insulted. Did you ever stop to realize what black folks have to go through? It's in our head. At night, I go to bed and try to go to sleep and then I got to realize that during World War II a German killed my daddy. 1942, that German killed my daddy. I was ten years old then. In 1968, I'll be 36 years old this year.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Insults? Not only was that German killing my daddy make me go 26 years without a daddy, which ain't bad though, you expect daddies to get killed during a war, but the insult is that the same German that killed my daddy in 1942 can come to my daddy's country tonight and live in the neighborhood my daddy's boy can't live in. Man, we will burn this country down house by house.

"And we don't give a damn about this country's attitude because the problem with black folks today is they're thinking too white. You see we do know that if we took this country away from you tonight and put white folks in the same situation for ten years this country has had us in for 100 years you would burn it down to the ground, baby. We know, we don't have to ask you. Look what you're doing in Vietnam. You're burnin Vietnam down to the ground to free a foreigner. We know what you'd do to free your mammy. We don't have to ask you what your behavior would be. So I say to you young folks, I spend 98 percent of my time on college campuses. Why? Because you young kids is the most moral, ethical force that ever lived in the history of this country. And why? I'll tell you why. You're so morally committed. It's possible for Dick Gregory to go back into his hotel, get in bed, go to sleep, the hotel catch fire and I burn to death. That is possible. But it is not possible for Dick Gregory to walk into a hotel that's on fire with intentions of going to sleep. And this hotel's on fire, youngsters, and there are those of you who are not aware of it. I tell you to go to sleep!

"And I hope you youngsters don't make the mistakes that we made when you study in these colleges and universities ahead of you. We were so busy going to college and universities to learn how to make a living we forgot to learn

"how to live. I promise you if you waste your four years at this or any other institution just learning how to make a living you haven't got a guarantee you can get a job or keep one after you get out. But if you spend these four beautiful years at this or any other institution learning how to live, I guarantee you makin a living will be the easiest thing for you on the face of this earth.

"So the challenge is yours. Solving these problems will not be hard. We've got our heads straight and we've located it. So can't nobody say we don't know where it is. So this is what we're sayin.

"I just came off a 47 day fast. I went on the first 40 day fast last Thanksgiving to New Years. I started the fast off with nothing but distilled water. I started off weighing 152 pounds. I ended weighing 97 pounds. I never went through such misery and torture in my life. Now for me, 36 years old, I'm too old to get drafted and with my political beliefs if I tried to volunteer for the Army, the government would burn my draft card. But I went on that 40 day fast to say to you young folks that there is some older immoral Americans like myself that really appreciate what you're doing and it's just not small talk. I'm sayin thanks to you and don't stop. Just keep doing it.

"I started the second fast Ash Wednesday and was supposed to come off of it Good Friday. But now I intend to keep this fast on now all the way through 'til November 5, Election Day. Now I'm on distilled water, and I'll take nothin but juices and liquids in hopes that you young kids that just started votin don't get caught in that old political trick.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Especially that old Bobby Kennedy trick. I hope you will demand that who you vote for will be a politician second and a statesman first.

"In 1964, I couldn't vote because I would never stoop so low as to vote for the lesser of two evils. And that's why I'm a candidate for the Presidency today. To allow people that would never stoop to vote for the lesser of two evils, I'm gonna give them something to vote for if they got any sense. But I'll tell you one thing. Had in 1964, I'd been dirty enough to stoop to vote for the lesser of two evils, you can damn sure betcha that it would have been for Brother Barry Goldwater 'cause the only thing wrong with Goldwater in 1964 was that he dared to be the most honest of the two candidates. I mean I could of stomached Bobby Kennedy had he just been honest with the young folks and just told you pointblank that 'LBJ is a hawk; McCarthy is a dove; and I'm a chicken.' Had he just been honest enough to tell you that he was scared of messin up his political chances so he didn't want to buck LBJ. So after McCarthy went out there and took him on and the effect of what you young kids had been doing showed tco and Bobby stood up and said, 'So I admit I was wrong and I was a chicken, but now I realize my daddy's richer than McCarthy. We can buy more votes than he can and I got more money than him. I might look a little bit better than him and I talk stranger than he talks and I think I can appeal to more stupid Americans.' He wasn't even that honest with you. What did he say? 'The only reason I didn't come into the race was 'cause I didn't want to split the Democratic Party.' A five-year-old maladjusted baby got enough sense to know if he had the opportunity to split the moon and become President, he'd split the sun to make sure he'd get it.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"In this country you're too young to vote so that the Democrats and Republicans don't have to listen to you. But I guarantee you one thing if you're sincere about ending that war in Vietnam. If enough of you young kids stop getting a haircut, although you can't vote, the barbers will have to come out in the streets and demonstrate, they vote. Enough of you young folks decide you're not going to shave 'til that war's over in Vietnam, I guarantee you one thing. Some old gal, 75 years old, don't care nothin about Vietnam but she owns 15,000 shares of Gillette Blue Blades, she got to get in a picket line. Enough of you young kids decide you're not going to wear nothin but work clothes 'til that war's over in Vietnam. Baby, you're going to upset the garment industry. And when you get this garment industry on your side, talk about ending the war! You'd be surprised how much power you have in your hands, non-violent power. If you use it you can do anything you want to do. It's a groovy thing you young kids demonstrating against Dow Chemical and sayin, 'We don't want you to make no more Napalm' but Dow Chemical makes about 200 other products for the house. Those little old tissue papers you wipe your eyeglasses with, that's Dow Chemical. The same one that makes the Napalm bomb. That Dial soap you kids washin up with Dial soap so you can rush out and demonstrate against Dow Chemical. You tell Dow Chemical that if they don't hurry up and quit making Napalm you ain't gonna buy any more Dial soap, baby. You'd be surprised how quick they'd get out of the Napalm business."

"Now let me drop this on you for what it is worth. If you really want the war to end, you really don't want to play no games, you take what you have to do. Now I've been smoking cigarettes since I was 13 years old."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I quit six months ago when I read an article in the paper where the Federal government said it was going to supply the local law enforcement agencies with all of the Mace they needed to stop peace demonstrations. So that kind of upset me and I went home and I did my homework and I checked it out and I found out that every time I buy a pack of cigarettes I pay eight cents Federal tax immediately. At the end of the year, the cigarette industry gives the government two billion dollars. At that point, I decided I would never catch cancer and buy Mace and Napalm at the same time.

"If you youngsters want to end that war in Vietnam, you see up until six months ago I was smoking three to four packs of cigarettes a day. You want to end that war in Vietnam? When you smoke that last cigarette outta your pack, you take that empty pack and you mail it into the cigarette company and you put a little note with it: 'Dear Cigarette Industry, I'm not gonna smoke or buy another cigarette and I'm gonna entice my friends not to smoke or buy another cigarette 'til the war's over in Vietnam. Not to mention what it's gonna do for my chest.' I guarantee you when that cigarette industry realizes that the Vietnamese getting free means that they might have to go bankrupt they will hurry up, fly to Washington, D. C., kick LBJ's door in, and smack that barbeque sauce off his mouth. I guarantee you that within six weeks' time the boys will be coming home from Vietnam.

Let's also understand you not only have the power to shape your future, it's bigger than that, you have the power to shape the future and the destiny of the entire world. And I get around the world and there's a whole lot of young folks even in communist countries

"that would love to follow your lead because your makin a lot of noise and it's gettin out. I mean more news is getting out of the country on how beautiful you are than is getting in here to you.

"So I say to you; oh, before I run I want to remind you about my two books. The first book is Nigger . This book has really come in handy for me. I never will forget I was demonstratin once and a sheriff came up and slapped me down and picked me up and looked me in the eye and said, "How you doin, Nigger?" I said, 'Niggers doin all right.' And it is, four million copies. The height of my ambition is to put Nigger in every home. So for those of you that use the word nigger I want you to always know that you'll be advertising my book.

"This is my new book that's been out for about two months. It is a very important book, probably one of the most important books on the market today. It's called The Shadow That Scares You. I'm not asking you to buy this one. Go to the library and check this one out. Read it; dig it; steal it.

"So again I say it was a pleasure to be here. I wish I didn't have to fly back to New York.

"I don't know, but they tell me there was rumors out that Dick Gregory was arrested. I hope that if the police arrested any colored cat today they thought it was me. Please go back to the station and when he tells you 'I ain't Dick Gregory,' be cool. I hope you all let him go.

"And again I say to you youngsters, stay as pure as you are because you put a lot of trust in old immoral cats like me but for

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"the first time I got something morally pure to see and look at that I never had before in this country. And I say to all of you, thank you and may God bless you. Just look around. Look at the crowd that's here. This is Saturday, we're usually out shooting marbles or raisin hell or something. What did you come here for? You come to hear a message and you got it, right? Okay, look at the old people, the elderly people, they're out cookin usually somewhere but they're here too. You know why? Because they wanted to hear the message and they got the message. So go home and think about it. Good-bye."

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein supplements that in the memorandum under this title dated June 27, 1968:

A Special Agent of the FBI observed approximately forty to fifty individuals participating in a non-violent march around the Thurston County Courthouse, across from the State Capitol grounds, Olympia, Washington, for approximately one hour during the early afternoon of June 29, 1968. Persons in the march carried signs protesting the incarceration of RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY. No disturbance was noted.

b7c

[redacted] further advised that on the evening of June 28, 1968, a sit-in on the Capitol grounds by a number of Indians was terminated by Washington State Patrol Troopers through dismantling of three tepees and four tents belonging to the Indians. The arrests of nine persons followed as a result of resisting police officers during the dismantling. Eight of those arrested were juveniles. The sit-in was mainly in protest of rights of Indians, along with a protest of GREGORY's sentencing and jailing.

An item in the June 29, 1968 issue of the Seattle Times, a Seattle newspaper of general circulation, under the caption "Protests Continue in Olympia," stated with respect to the dismantling of the tents which had been erected on the Capitol grounds:

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Earlier, State Patrol Chief WILL BACHOFNER said that if police had not removed the encampment Friday night, 'it would have been moved by the citizens of the town' ". .

The June 30, 1968 issue of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, a Seattle newspaper of general circulation, carried an article under the title, "GREGORY Invites EVANS to Jail," in which GREGORY is said to have transmitted a letter by way of his wife to Governor DAN EVANS of Washington State inviting EVANS to visit him in his jail cell "or I'll have no alternative but to lead demonstrations against you at the Republican National Convention in Miami." The article continues:

"I hope you will find time to come over during your lunch hour one day to discuss with me the problems of Indians and other minority groups," GREGORY said.

"GREGORY, who has gone without food and taken only distilled water since he entered his cell June 7, told EVANS he intends to serve his full 90-day sentence and 'continue my fast until I am released to demonstrate to the world the problems confronted by my Indian brothers' ". .

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein is supplementary to that contained in memoranda under this title dated at Seattle, Washington, July 2, 1968, and prior thereto.

A news article in the July 17, 1968, issue of the Seattle Post Intelligencer, a Seattle, Washington, morning paper of general circulation, in an article captioned "Gregory Freed as 'Trusty' for Last 15 Days," reflects that GREGORY had been released from Thurston County Jail, Olympia, Washington, on July 16, 1968, as a "trusty-at-large" by order of Superior Court Judge HEWITT A. HENRY. GREGORY is quoted as saying his eating would be resumed gradually under the direction of a doctor, and that he intended to spend at least several days in the State of Washington, living with [redacted] in his Tacoma, Washington, home [redacted]

On July 17, 1968, [redacted] County Jail, said the release order on GREGORY is tantamount to an unconditional discharge, although, technically, he is still "serving" the remaining portion of his sentence. There are no apparent restrictions on any travel GREGORY wishes to undertake.

At a press conference held by GREGORY on July 17, 1968, at Tacoma, he stated he would continue his efforts in behalf of the American Indian, this being, in his opinion, the number one problem facing the American people today. GREGORY placed this even ahead of the "black man's struggles," and said he hoped the Indians would not get as militant as the Negroes.

GREGORY did not enlarge on any immediate plans. He dismissed the possibility of his participation in a demonstration against Washington Governor DAN EVANS at the Republican National Convention. He stated this was a personal issue between himself and EVANS. He further advised that from what he has seen in the State of Washington, this state is ahead of other states in solving racial problems. He stated he is the Presidential candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party. His plans for the future include a world tour to visit North Korea and talk to the crew of the Pueblo. He also said he plans to visit North Vietnam, Russia, and Red China.

14th June, 1968

John Collins,

The wife of Mr. Dick Gregory telephoned me yesterday to tell me that her husband has been sentenced to imprisonment for 90 days, in connection with his part in the negro Civil Rights Movement. Mr. Gregory had undertaken to take part in a Concert, to be given at the Albert Hall on June 26th, on behalf of the International Defence and Aid Fund for Southern Africa. I would be immensely grateful if you should feel able to intervene, and to obtain for Mr. Gregory either a remission of his prison sentence or his pardon so that he might be able to fulfil his promise of coming to London; I would suggest that such an intervention might be justified on the ground that the majority of British people would find it difficult to understand how your country, which they regard as one devoted to freedom, should imprison a man committed to non-violence, whose only offence would seem to be a desire to obtain for the negroes of the United States of America their freedom and just rights.

Please forgive me for making such an unusual request. But I did not wish to have to disappoint so many people who will have looked forward to Mr. Gregory's appearance on the platform at the Albert Hall on June 26th. His name, as you may have seen, has already been publicly announced as one of the artists to be giving their services free on this special occasion.

with best wishes
John Collins

The Ambassador to the United States of America,

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 1, 1968, Dick Gregory appeared on the Jerry Williams television program, Station WBZ, Boston, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., and on the Jerry Williams radio show on the same station from 10:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. on the same date. Both programs are talk shows which encourage telephonic questions from the public at large.

On the morning show Gregory appeared with Jules Feifer (phonetic), a well known cartoonist, and on the evening show with James Farmer, former Chairman of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), who was in telephonic contact with the program from New York City.

Gregory's remarks generally criticized the United States as being a racist country which had no right to be engaged in the war in Vietnam. He discussed his write-in candidacy for President in the coming election and his book "Write Me In" which has just been published and which explains in detail his candidacy and his program for solving United States problems.

Gregory was wearing coveralls and a self-conferred peace medal, and stated he would not shave nor wear conventional dress until the war in Vietnam has ended. He discussed his recent conviction of ninety days in jail in the State of Washington in connection with his protest concerning unjust laws of that State against American Indians there.

He stated that he is on the ballot in the State of Pennsylvania representing the Peace and Freedom Party, and in the near future he expects to go to California to address the Peace and Freedom Party there in the hope of getting on the ballot in that State representing that party. He stated that by getting on the ballot in several states he hopes to demand equal time on television as other presidential candidates.

Gregory stated that he has instituted court action to force the administration to brief him in the same manner as the other six white presidential candidates. He stated that the administration has refused to offer him Secret Service protection as it has the other presidential candidates including Harold Stassen whose Secret Service protection unit constitutes his largest crowd.

Gregory described himself as a integrationist and not a black nationalist, but stated he was in sympathy with the black nationalists because, as things are at the present time, the Constitution is not working to bridge the gap between whites and blacks, and, if it comes to the point where he believes no further progress can be made towards integration, then he will join with the black nationalists.

Gregory stated that he expects to get the most write-in votes of any of the presidential candidates, in which case he will consider himself elected President of the United States in exile and will set up his office in Washington, D. C.

Gregory stated that in this capacity he expects to handle grievances against the United States Government by people who were not successful in originally referring these grievances to the administration in power.

Gregory made the comment that he believes that Chicago will be the most violent city in the nation this summer mainly because the Democratic National Convention is being held there. He stated that he had hoped that "We could slip through the summer without violence", but that it does not look as though this will happen.

Gregory stated that since his request to be briefed as a presidential candidate has been refused by the administration, he feels compelled to make a world tour of his own to obtain the necessary information.

On August 2, 1968, the records of the United States District Court, Washington, D. C., revealed that Gregory instituted an action entitled "Dick Gregory vs. Dean Rusk; et al" subsequently filed by the Clerk of the Court on May 23, 1968 as Civil Action Number 1243-68.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, Gregory, has been discriminated against as a presidential candidate by the said defendants on the basis of race.

The relief sought by the plaintiff, identified as Dick Gregory, 1451 55th Street, Chicago, Illinois, is by way of a complaint for injunction against defendants who are identified as:

Lyndon Baines Johnson, President of United States.

Dean Rusk, Secretary of State.

Nicholas deB Katzenbach, Under Secretary of State.

The nature of the relief sought is by way of a preliminary and permanent injunction whereby the plaintiff requests the court to issue an order:

(A) Enjoining defendants from refusing any information made available to the "preferred six" other candidates for President on equal terms with equal privileges; or

(B) In the alternative directing defendants to cease forthwith from making available in any way any said information to said "preferred six" and

(C) Granting such other further relief as the court deems just.

On August 19, 1968, [redacted]
Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] Airlines, advised that some time ago she had discussed with Dick Gregory his travel plans for a world tour. They worked out a tentative itinerary, and tentative fares for the tour. However, no definite plans were made and no bookings were arranged for him.
Since that time she has not had further contact with Dick Gregory and does not know whether he intends to leave the United States on a world tour and further does not know whether Gregory intends to utilize the services of Pakistan Airlines on such a tour.

On August 19, 1968, Dick Gregory was contacted under a suitable pretext at his residence, 1451 East 55th Street, Chicago, Illinois. Gregory advised that he was leaving Chicago that day, but only briefly, and would return the following day.
Gregory said that he intended to be in and out of Chicago during the next few days, but expected to be at his Chicago apartment later this week.

On August 22, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had learned in recent conversation with Dick Gregory that Gregory was scheduled to make a speech on the night of August 19, 1968, at Valparaiso, Indiana, and on Tuesday, August 20, 1968, Gregory was planning to go to Manhattan, Kansas, to speak to the National Student Association.
Gregory now plans to travel to Seattle, Washington, during the first week of September, 1968, to participate in a "rock band music festival", which is being held to raise funds for Indians contending with local authorities over fishing rights. This source said at the present time it appeared that Gregory would not be leaving the United States during the next few weeks. Source noted that in the past Gregory has said that he was planning a world tour to begin in late August; however, it appears that the plans for a world tour have been postponed or even possibly canceled by Gregory.

On August 22, 1968, a second source, an agency which conducts security investigations in the Chicago area, advised it had no information concerning Gregory's plans for the near future other than he was thought to still be planning foreign travel, the dates of which are unknown.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 23, 1968, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory arrived in Pittsburgh via air at approximately 9:00 AM on August 23, 1968, in furtherance of his candidacy for the Presidency. Gregory held a press conference at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, downtown Pittsburgh, in which he predicted, "a lot of awful things will happen in Chicago" during the Democratic Convention and stated that the racial situation will not improve because "the Negro sees he can get too many gains by being unsmooth."

b7C

[redacted] said Gregory departed Pittsburgh via air at approximately 11:00 AM on August 23, 1968, enroute to Philadelphia, Pa.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 27, 1968, that during the above conference, which was attended by approximately 50 persons, Gregory stated that he was a statesman and not a politician and that his candidacy offers an alternative to the two party system. In referring to George Wallace, Gregory said he is the best possible candidate since everyone knows how Wallace thinks.

Gregory said that his campaign is an independent effort and that he has refused to accept five million dollars which has been offered to him because to do so would compromise his independence. He declared that the news media has given him very little coverage because he is a peaceful man and he stated that if he threw a brick or two he would be on the front page of "Time Magazine."

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Source advised that Gregory, in referring to the Czechoslovakian Situation, said that he wished the United States would be as peaceful in Vietnam as the Russians were in Prague. Gregory said he has not been given a briefing by the State Department regarding Czechoslovakia and that he intends to file suit. He said he had written a letter to Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations requesting information regarding the Czechoslovakian Situation and U Thant had replied that no information could be furnished to Gregory inasmuch as he is a Presidential candidate.

According to the source, Gregory predicted that President Lyndon B. Johnson will again be a Presidential candidate and that his running mate for the Vice-Presidency will be Mayor Carl Stokes of Cleveland, Ohio. He said that such a ticket would be a sure winner.

Gregory said that he feels his chances for becoming President are not impossible and that he may be the only candidate left. He said that the situation in Chicago is not good and that Mayor Richard J. Daley's attitude toward the Yippies and Hippies will create a great deal of trouble. In this regard, Gregory said that the blacks will not be the ones to destroy Chicago and that none of his "group" will participate in the demonstrations which have been planned.

In referring to gun control, Gregory stated that if the police shot a white youngster, gun control would probably result immediately and police would not even be allowed to carry night sticks.

Source said that Gregory stated that the riots have helped the Negro cause, but lamented the fact that a negative force has been the only thing to bring about positive reactions. He said that the country is sick and insane and that one of the first things he will do if he is elected President, will be to eliminate all civil rights legislation because if the Constitution is adhered to, there is no need for such legislation.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Prior to the termination of the conference, Gregory indicated that he was on his way to Philadelphia to attend a rally, but that he planned to return to Pittsburgh sometime before the November elections.

The Pittsburgh Police Department is cognizant of the above. The U. S. Attorney's Office and Army Intelligence, Pittsburgh, Pa., have been apprised of the above information.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 20, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory is scheduled to address a session of the National Students Association (NSA) at 11:00 PM this date. Source noted that the 21st annual Congress of NSA is currently meeting on the campus of Kansas State University (KSU), Manhattan, Kansas. He said the NSA agenda indicates Gregory's topic will be a "special presentation on the nature of racism in America."

On August 21, 1968, Bill Colvin, editor of the "Manhattan Mercury", daily newspaper, Manhattan, Kansas, advised that in an after midnight speech today Gregory addressed an audience of some 1,000 students and spectators at Williams Auditorium, Umberger Hall, on the campus of KSU. He said the speech lasted over two hours and was made during bursts of cheering and applause from NSA delegates, who were urged by Gregory to unravel the nation's political dilemma and create a government where "our leaders can be honest" and "the black folks can trust the white folks". Gregory also said "this government has become a slick bag of tricks run by no-good politicians, and unless you young kids do something about it this nation is going to burn". Other comments by Gregory were that "Our leaders have not been able to take out cities from control of crime syndicates, and yet, they demand the poor and powerless to obey laws. They day America starts dealing out law and justice instead of law and order, we might not even need cops", and "you young kids cannot be slaves to money anymore, you cannot be slaves to education anymore. If you have to get kicked out of these ratty colleges just because you are searching for the truth then go, because they are going to kick you if you stay".

Colvin said he understood Gregory arrived in Manhattan, Kansas, shortly before his speech and departed immediately thereafter enroute to Kansas City, Missouri, even though the hour was late. He said Gregory's transportation was a vehicle obtained from Hertz Rent-a-Car in Kansas City, Missouri.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
AUGUST, 1968

On August 29, 1968, at 7:20 p.m. a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that a group of approximately two thousand to two thousand five hundred demonstrators were beginning to leave the Grant Park area in downtown Chicago following a speech by Dick Gregory, Negro entertainer and civil rights activist. Gregory invited the entire group to his residence on Chicago's south side. The group was to be his guests and Gregory said he would tell police he was walking to his home with friends. This group intends to proceed to the amphitheater where the National Democratic Convention was being held and Gregory stated in the park that he would go through police barricades if necessary. This group is accompanied by a number of police and a contingent of the Illinois National Guard has also been observed in the area. The group included demonstrators against the war in Viet Nam, and many "hippies". Only a few of the demonstrators were Negroes. (U)

At 8:00 p.m. on August 29, 1968, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that a group of demonstrators, about two thousand in number, were proceeding south from Grant Park on Michigan Avenue. This group was strung out on many blocks, but its leaders were then at 16th Street and Michigan Avenue. The crowd was moving slowly and in small groups. Dick Gregory is leading this march and other leaders with him include members of the Wisconsin and California regular delegations to the National Democratic Convention. It is the definite intention (U) of this group to proceed to the amphitheater, where the convention is in progress. ~~X~~ (U)

At 8:30 p.m. on August 29, 1968, Special Agents of the FBI observed that the marchers, led by Dick Gregory, were stopped by the Chicago Police Force and by a contingent of the Illinois National Guard at 18th Street and Michigan Avenue. Police officers called Dick Gregory aside to confer with him. The group then assembled on Michigan Avenue, including spectators and marchers, was approximately two thousand in number.

At 9:00 p.m. on August 29, 1968, Superintendent James Conlisk, Jr., Chicago Police Department, advised that in connection with the march led by Dick Gregory on South Michigan Avenue, a confrontation had taken place at 18th Street and Michigan Avenue. Present at this confrontation, in addition to members of the Chicago Police Department, and Illinois National Guard were representatives of the Community Relations Service, Department of Justice; representatives of the United States Attorney's Office, Chicago, and representatives of the Corporation Counsel's Office, City of Chicago. Superintendent Conlisk said that the representative of the Community Relations Service took the position that Gregory and the group could lawfully "march wherever they pleased". Conlisk said that it was the position of the police department and the City of Chicago that this march, which was obviously headed in the direction of the amphitheater where the National Democratic Convention was in session, could not proceed for security reasons. Gregory and other leaders of the march were advised that they must turn back or submit to arrests. Superintendent Conlisk said they refused to turn back and, therefore, Gregory and ten or fifteen other individuals were arrested under peaceful circumstances.

On September 3, 1968, [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Cook County, Illinois, advised that Dick Gregory was released from the Cook County Jail on Friday, August 30, 1968, on bail.

Gregory advised that he had been arrested for his part in demonstrations during the National Democratic Convention, but had been released on bail on August 30, 1968. He said he intends to depart Chicago today, September 3, 1968, by air for London, England, and will return to Chicago on September 10, 1968.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, AUGUST, 1968.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 23, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory departed Chicago via airplane en route to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and will return to Chicago on August 25, 1968. Source advised that the reason for Richard Gregory's trip was not known. Source related that Richard Gregory now plans to remain in Chicago during the week of the Democratic National Convention; however, source has learned of no indication that Richard Gregory plans any disruptive activities during the convention. Source stated that Richard Gregory, after the convention is over, intends to vacation with his wife at the Jim Smith Family Farm near Stevens Point, Wisconsin. Smith is the publisher of the "Chicago Gazette," a newspaper directed to the Negro community.

On August 23, 1968, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised the Pittsburgh Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office that Richard Gregory arrived in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, at 9:00 A. M., August 23, 1968, for purpose of furthering his candidacy for the presidency.

He stated that Richard Gregory, at a press conference, predicted "a lot of awful things will happen in Chicago" during the Democratic convention and also stated the racial situation will not improve because "the Negro sees he can get too many gains by being unsmooth."

He related that Richard Gregory departed Pittsburgh via airplane at 11:00 A. M. on August 23, 1968, en route to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A copy of this memo is being furnished the office of the United States Attorney, Chicago, United States Secret Service, Chicago and Region I, 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.
